

H5RD 04 (SCDLMCS E3) — Monitor and Manage the Quality of the Provision of Care Services

Overview

This Unit is for leaders and managers of care services. It is about promoting and managing a quality care services provision.

Elements of Competence

- 1 Implement systems, procedures and practice to meet quality standards.
- 2 Develop a culture for promoting quality in which everyone participates.
- 3 Implement, monitor and review quality systems, procedures and practices.

Additional Information

Scope/range

The scope is here to give you guidance on possible areas to be covered in this Unit. You need to provide evidence for the areas that are relevant to the care service that you lead and manage, and a sound rationale for not providing evidence for the remaining items.

People include:

- 1 adults using care services, their families, carers, groups and communities.
- 2 children and young people using care services, their parents/carers, families, carers, groups and communities.

Preferred communication methods and language including: people's preferred spoken language; the use of signs; symbols; pictures; writing; objects of reference; communication passports; other non-verbal forms of communication; human and technological aids to communication; pre-verbal utterances in infants and young children.

Relevant others could include: other professionals who should contribute to the activity, people from within the provision who should contribute to the activity, people from outside the provision who should contribute to the activity.

Workers could include: those supporting the people within your provision who are paid, unpaid, contractual or non-contractual.

Your knowledge and understanding for this Unit relates to: legal and organisational requirements for care services; employer and employee codes of practice and conduct within care services; the depth and breadth of understanding that will enable you to lead and manage care services effectively, support workers to perform competently, ensure the wellbeing of all within your provision, critically evaluate, assess and intervene appropriately to resolve issues and conflicts and the need to understand and work in collaboration with people, workers and relevant others within and outside your provision to ensure its viability into the short, medium and longer-term future.

Competent leadership and management practice is a combination of the application of skills and knowledge informed by values and ethics. This specification details the knowledge and understanding required to carry out competent leadership and management in the performance described in this Unit.

Values

Values underpinning the whole of the Unit

The values underpinning this Unit have been derived from the key purpose statement, relevant service standards and codes of practice for health and social care in the four UK countries.

Glossary

This section provides explanations and definitions of the key words and concepts used in this Unit. In occupational standards it is quite common to find words or phrases used which you will be familiar with, but which, in the detail of the standards, may be used in a very particular way. Therefore, we would encourage you to read this section carefully before you begin working with the standards and to refer back to this section as required.

Abuse

Abuse is causing physical, emotional, sexual and/or financial harm to an individual and/or failing/neglecting to protect them from harm. This could be at a personal or institutional level.

Culture

A shared set of ideas, beliefs, values and knowledge which underpins behaviour.

Governance

The way in which the provision is governed and directed as required by legislation, regulation, standards and guidance.

Independent representation and advocacy

Where the views, wishes and concerns of the adult/child/young person are communicated by another person, either through someone independently representing their wishes, or someone acting as their advocate.

Leadership

The ability to provide a model of best practice that is creative, innovative, motivating and flexible and supports people to follow by example and through respect.

Management

The ability to lead and organise the effective running of the provision and to meet the overall service needs and those required by legislation, regulation, registration and inspection. Effective managers are able to solve problems, balance the needs of all within the provision, to manage competing demands and to cope under stress.

Organisational requirements

Aspects of policy, procedure and practice that are required by the service and the provision.

Partnership

Working effectively together with people, professionals, agencies and organisations to enhance the wellbeing of people and support positive and improved outcomes.

People

For adults, people includes adults using care services, their advocates, their families, carers, significant others, groups and communities For children and young people, people includes the children and young people using care services, their advocates, their parents/carers, their families, teachers, college lecturers, significant others, groups and communities.

Positive outcomes

Beneficial outcomes for adults as specified in regulation and guidance for each of the countries of the UK and agreed as appropriate with and for each person within the provision.

They include:

- 1 improved health, emotional wellbeing and quality of life.
- 2 staying safe and being free from discrimination and harassment.
- 3 enjoying, achieving and making a positive contribution.
- 4 exercising choice and control.
- 5 achieving economic wellbeing, dignity and respect.

Beneficial outcomes for children and young people as specified in the regulation of each of the countries of the UK and as agreed with children and young people. They include:

- 1 being healthy.
- 2 staying safe.
- 3 enjoying and achieving.
- 4 making a positive contribution.
- 5 achieving economic wellbeing.

Provision

The specific Unit or part of the service for which you have leadership and management responsibilities.

Relevant others

Key people within and outside the provision with whom it is beneficial to work and who can influence the provision and the outcomes for the provision and people within it.

Resources

The assets of the provision: financial, human, physical and environmental.

Rights

The rights of:

- 1 adults are those embodied in the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
- 2 children and young people are those embodied in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

These include rights under the social care codes of practice that everyone should be: respected (in terms of their beliefs, culture and values); treated and valued equally, not be discriminated against; treated as an individual; treated in a dignified way; socially included; included in activities; protected from danger and harm; cared for in a way they choose; have privacy and access to information about themselves and be able to communicate using their preferred methods of communication and language.

Service

The overall organisation, agency or service within which your specific provision resides and for which you are the manager.

Supervision

A process that involves a manager meeting regularly and interacting with worker(s) to review their work. It is carried out as required by legislation, regulation, guidance, standards, inspection requirements and requirements of the provision and the service. The purpose is to monitor tasks and workload, solve problems, support workers in dealing with complex situations and moral and ethical dilemmas and to promote staff development.

Take informed action against discrimination

Actions taken about discrimination on the basis of your knowledge of good practice, legal requirements and professional codes and in relation to information received and investigated.

Workers

Those supporting people within the provision who are paid or unpaid, contractual or non-contractual.
