

NOS PSSPO114 Use organisational resources in ports

Unit PSSPO114.3 Operate radio equipment (SQA Unit Code-H78704)

Performance Criteria

You must be able to

Operate radio equipment

1. operate radio equipment in line with organisation's procedures
2. recognise environments where radio performance may be impaired
3. establish communication with intended recipient
4. use agreed local radio communication phrases, where appropriate
5. use the phonetic alphabet where required
6. use channels and frequency according to organisation procedures
7. comply with regulations and organisational procedures when transmitting and receiving radio communications
8. report any difficulties in transmitting information to the relevant person
9. maintain up to date, complete and accurate records of transmitted and received communications

Knowledge and understanding

You need to know and understand

1. own organisation's procedures for normal and emergency situations
2. how different weather conditions and locations can affect the transmission and reception of radio signals
3. the phonetic alphabet and its use and the appropriate standard communication phrases
4. how to operate radio equipment used within own organisation
5. organisational requirements for reporting difficulties in transmitting information using radio equipment
6. organisational requirements for recording and retaining records of radio communications