NOS PSS SPO110 Support learning development

Unit PSS SPO110.1 Provide learning opportunities for colleagues (SQA Unit Code-H79J 04)

Performance Criteria

You must be able to Provide learning opportunities for colleagues

- 1. promote the benefits of learning to team members and make sure that their willingness and efforts to learn are recognised
- give team members fair, regular and useful feedback on their work performance, discussing and agreeing how they can improve
- work with team members to identify and prioritise learning needs based on any gaps between the requirements of their work-roles and their current knowledge, understanding and skills
- 4. help team members to identify the learning style(s) or combination of styles which works best for them and ensure that these are taken into account in identifying and undertaking learning activities
- 5. work with team members to identify and obtain information on a range of possible learning activities to address identified learning needs
- discuss and agree, with each team member, a development plan which includes learning activities to be undertaken, the learning objectives to be achieved, the required resources and timescales
- 7. work with team members to recognise and make use of un-planned learning opportunities
- 8. seek and make use of specialist expertise in relation to identifying and providing learning for team members
- support team members in undertaking learning activities making sure any required resources are made available and making efforts to remove any obstacles to learning
- 10. evaluate, in discussion with each team member, whether the learning activities they have undertaken have achieved the desired outcomes and provide positive feedback on the learning experience
- 11. work with team members to update their development plan in the light of performance, any learning activities undertaken and any wider changes
- 12. encourage team members to take responsibility for their own learning, including practising and reflecting on what they have learned

Knowledge and understanding

You need to know and understand

- 1. the legal responsibilities for maintaining own and others' health, safety and security in your workplace
- 2. the health and safety requirements placed upon the individual and the organisation by current legislation, directions and bye-laws, relevant to own area of operations
- 3. the principle types of hazard and risk likely to be found in own area of operations
- 4. the precautions appropriate for minimising hazards and risks in own area of operations
- 5. the benefits of learning for individuals and organisations and how to promote these to team members

Unit PSS SPO110.1 Provide learning opportunities for colleagues (SQA Unit Code-H79J 04)

- 6. ways to develop an 'environment' in which learning is valued and willingness and efforts to learn are recognised
- 7. why it is important to encourage team members to take responsibility for their own learning
- 8. how to provide fair, regular and useful feedback to team members on their work performance
- 9. how to identify learning needs based on identified gaps between the requirements of team members' work-roles and their current knowledge, understanding and skills
- 10. how to prioritise learning needs of team members, including taking account of organisational needs and priorities and the personal and career development needs of team members
- 11. the range of different learning styles and how they affect learning
- 12. how to support team members in identifying their particular learning style(s) or combination of learning styles
- 13. different types of learning activities, their advantages and disadvantages and the required resources (for example, time, fees, substitute staff)
- 14. how/where to identify and obtain information on different learning activities
- 15. why it is important for team members to have a written development plan and what it should contain (for example, identified learning needs, learning activities to be undertaken and the learning objectives to be achieved, timescales and required resources)
- 16. how to set learning objectives which are SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic and Time-Bound)
- 17. you know sources of specialist expertise in relation to identifying and providing learning for team members
- 18. what type of support team members might need to undertake learning activities, the resources needed and the types of obstacles they may face and how they can be resolved
- 19. how to evaluate whether a learning activity has achieved the desired learning objectives
- 20. the importance of regularly reviewing and updating written development plans in the light of performance, any learning activities undertaken and any wider changes
- 21. how to take account of equality legislation, any relevant codes of practice and general diversity issues in providing learning opportunities for team members
- 22. industry/sector requirements for the development or maintenance of knowledge, skills and understanding and professional development
- 23. learning issues and specific initiatives and arrangements that apply within the industry/sector
- 24. working culture and practices of the industry/sector
- 25. relevant information on the purpose, objectives and plans of own team or area of responsibility or the wider organisation
- 26. the work roles of team members, including the limits of their responsibilities and their personal work objectives
- 27. the current knowledge, understanding and skills of team members
- 28. the identified gaps in the knowledge, understanding and skills of team members
- 29. the identified learning needs of team members
- 30. the learning style(s) or combinations of styles preferred by team members
- 31. the written development plans of team members

NOS PSS SPO110 Support learning development

Unit PSS SPO110.1 Provide learning opportunities for colleagues (SQA Unit Code-H79J 04)

- 32. sources of specialist expertise available in/to your organisation in relation to identifying and providing learning for team members
- 33. the learning activities and resources available in/to the organisation
- 34. the organisation's policies in relation to equality and diversity
- 35. the organisation's policies and procedures in relation to learning
- 36. the organisation's performance appraisal system
- 37. how to analyse and use developments in learning and new ways of delivery, including technology-based learning
- 38. which types of learning are best achieved and supported through coaching
- 39. how to identify individual learning needs
- 40. how to match coaching opportunities to individual learning needs and objectives
- 41. how to put learners at their ease
- 42. how to put information in order and how to decide whether the words used will be appropriate for individual learners
- 43. how to recognise possible barriers to learning and how to overcome them

Additional Information

This standard is applicable to the provision of learning opportunities and links to enabling individual learning through coaching and assessing candidates' skills using a range of methods.

The performance criteria, knowledge and understanding requirements are related to the individual's own organisation, job role and area of operations. This includes but is not limited to the individual's immediate place of work. It extends to areas, operations and persons that may be impacted upon by the individual's activity in the workplace.

The performance criteria, knowledge and understanding requirements are specific to the: regulations, industry and other guidance recognised by the individual's employer, employing organisation's objectives, policies, procedures, and working practices; that relate to the elements covered in this standard.

The performance criteria, knowledge and understanding requirements are specific to the individual's own level of authority and responsibility.

Ports and the activities which take place there vary. Employers and any other duty holders must comply with the legal duties imposed on them by health and safety legislation, including the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974. This will also involve careful and continuing risk assessments to enable duty holders to plan, implement, manage and review policies and procedures which address the risks associated with the conduct of their business. The statutory duty of the employee to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work and to cooperate with the employer with regard to the employer's health and safety duties, are an essential part of this standard.