

Overview

This Standard is part of the Customer Service Theme of Impression and Image. This Theme covers the Customer Service behaviours and processes that have most impact on the way your customer sees you and the services or products of your organisation. Remember that customers include everyone you provide a service to. They may be external to your organisation or they may be internal customers.

You may work in an organisation that has a carefully defined brand and vision which includes a specific service offer and promise to your customers. Often, much work has taken place to develop these, and they influence what your customer expects. That service offer and promise are all part of a brand. By promoting the brand, the organisation is making a promise to your customers about what they can expect. Customer satisfaction is unlikely to be achieved if your customer's experience does not match their expectations of that promise. Even in organisations without a strong brand image, customers often have defined expectations. This Standard is about the way your work supports the branding of your services or products. It covers what you must do to make sure that you deliver the promise that your customer has come to expect. It also covers how you can avoid giving your customer an experience that is significantly different from the one offered in the promise.
