Higher National Unit specification: support notes

Unit title: Communication in Gaelic: Developing Basic Reading and Writing Skills

This part of the Unit specification is offered as guidance. The support notes are not mandatory.

While the exact time allocated to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours.

Guidance on the content and context for this Unit

This Unit is part of a set of two units at SCQF level 5 and may be taught as a freestanding Unit or as part of the set. To successfully complete the Unit and achieve the Outcomes, the candidates will be introduced to all four language skills, and appropriate language structures, but the emphasis will be on Reading and Writing.

Content:

- ◆ Personal information
- ◆ Transactional situations (accommodation, obtaining goods and services, travel arrangements, directions)

Context: Social or Work-related

The context of this Unit should involve the kind of situations that a candidate will routinely be required to deal with in social or work-related situations, dealing with commonly occurring work situations where use of the language studied may be required, eg enquiring about hotel accommodation, buying items, requesting information, making travel arrangements, asking for directions. This is most likely to occur in formal or semi-formal settings:

- ◆ Letters
- ◆ E mails
- ◆ Faxes
- ◆ Job vacancies
- ◆ Advertisements
- ◆ Safety regulations
- ◆ Articles
- ◆ Reports
- ◆ Signs
- ◆ Notices
- ◆ Plans — lists of tasks, deadlines
- ◆ Step by step instructions
- ◆ Enquiries/requests
- ◆ Views
- ◆ Formal/informal correspondence
- ◆ Advice
- ◆ Announcements

The Unit embeds the National Language Standards (revised 2005) for SVQ level 2 Reading and Writing. The National Language Standards are published by CILT, The National Centre for Languages, 20 Bedfordbury, London, WC2N 4LB.

The Unit is also benchmarked against Intermediate 2/Standard Grade Credit level.

Guidance on the delivery and assessment of this Unit

This Unit is likely to form part of a number of group awards where it is recognised that knowledge of a modern language will either be a necessary or a beneficial skill for candidates when looking for employment. It can also be delivered as a stand alone unit for those wishing to learn the language for social purposes.

Although the Unit is expressed in generic terms, where possible, it should be related to a context that is familiar to candidates.

Each of the two Outcomes refers to a separate skill (reading, writing) but it is assumed that tutors will teach skills in an integrative manner.

Language structures appropriate to this level will underpin all Outcomes.

Assessment will be by two Instruments of Assessment.

An opportunity for reassessment should be given where candidates do not achieve a Pass. A new instrument should be chosen.

Opportunities for developing Core Skills

There are no opportunities to develop Core Skills in this Unit.

Open learning

This Unit could be delivered by distance learning. However, it would require planning by the centre to ensure the sufficiency and authenticity of candidate evidence. Arrangements would have to be made to ensure that the assessments for Outcomes 1 and 2 are delivered in a supervised environment under controlled conditions.

For information on normal open learning arrangements, please refer to the SQA guide Assessment and Quality Assurance of Open and Distance Learning (SQA, 2000).

Candidates with disabilities and/or additional support needs

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for Units. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).

General information for candidates

Unit title: Communication in Gaelic: Developing Basic Reading and Writing Skills

This Unit is designed to equip you with the ability to read and write in Gaelic in work or social contexts. It is primarily intended for candidates who expect to take up a post where some knowledge of the language would be beneficial or essential, or for those who want to gain a basic knowledge of the language for personal or social reasons. The Unit may be studied alone, as a means to proceeding to or in conjunction with Unit: Communication in Gaelic: Developing Basic Listening and Speaking Skills, or as part of any Group Award programme.

This Unit involves the kind of tasks that a person working in a company or organisation dealing with international clients may be expected to be able to perform, either in the UK or abroad. It will also enable you to use the language in a social context, either when travelling abroad or dealing with foreign visitors in the UK. To help you gain this ability you will develop all the skills necessary to function in another language at this level, including intercultural competence. You will also increase your knowledge about and understanding of the essential structures of the language you are studying. The language tasks will be practical and related to the context. There will be a requirement for private study. Your tutor will guide you on this.

Overall, the knowledge and skills gained from this Unit will enable you to move to the next level, and to work towards becoming an independent language learner. This may help you in the future if you wish, choose or need to start learning another language for either work or personal reasons.

Assessment

In order to complete this Unit successfully, you will be required to complete a range of tasks in which you will demonstrate that you can use some of the basic structures of the language. You must achieve a satisfactory level of performance in two assessments, which test the skills of Reading and Writing. These will be conducted under controlled conditions towards the end of the Unit, and no textbooks or handouts will be allowed.

For the Reading assessment (Outcome 1) you will need to answer questions in English to show that you have understood the important details of a written text or texts of about 250–350 words in total. You must show that you understand a range of routine materials on everyday matters. You can, for example: understand simple letters, e-mails and faxes, brochures or advertisements and pick out relevant details and grasp the gist of articles, reports or web page extracts on everyday topics. The use of text books or handouts will not be allowed. However, the use of a dictionary will be allowed.

For the Writing assessment (Outcome 2) you will have to compose a written piece of work in Gaelic of about 120–150 words. You will be allowed to use a dictionary and to refer to notes giving standard letter or message formats and phraseology.

If you do not achieve a Pass at the first attempt, an opportunity for reassessment will be given.

Depending on your reason for taking the Unit, the content and the assessments for the Unit may be tailored to take account of any special circumstances your work may involve.

Core Skills

There are no opportunities to develop Core Skills in this Unit.
