GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS UNIT

Candidates should select one area of study, from either Existence of God, Science and Belief or Belief and Action. Within the area selected, candidates should study all three issues.

In Outcome 1, the emphasis should be on describing what the issue is about. This will usually involve candidates in setting out the parameters of the issue and highlighting the main point of contention. They also have to explain why the issue presents a challenge to religious belief. In Outcome 2 candidates are expected to analyse an issue of religious belief by explaining both the challenge and a relevant response. In Outcome 3 candidates are expected to evaluate the issue by expressing a clear personal opinion on the issue and support it with at least two appropriate reasons.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

Wherever possible, assessment should be used judiciously and efficiently to provide evidence of the achievement of all the learning outcomes in the units, and where appropriate, to contribute to course assessment. The evidence can be gathered during and/or at the end of the unit and must be completed under controlled conditions, ie under supervision without collaboration and the assistance of notes or teacher/lecturer advice. The evidence should be composed of assessments relating to each of the outcomes with equal weighting being given to each outcome. The evidence should be based on one out of the three issues within the chosen area of study.

The marking scheme would reflect the standard embodied in the performance criteria. This would allow the evidence to be considered as a whole. The level of attainment required for successful completion of the unit should represent satisfactory attainment of all the performance criteria.

SPECIAL NEEDS

This unit specification is intended to ensure that there are no artificial barriers to learning or assessment. Special needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments or considering alternative outcomes for units. For information on these, please refer to the SQA document Guidance on Special Assessment and Certification Arrangements for Candidates with Special Needs/Candidates whose First Language is not English (SQA, 1998).
