Guidance on the content and context for this Unit

This part of the Unit specification is offered as guidance. The support notes are not mandatory.

While the exact time allocated to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours.

The purpose of this Unit is to help candidates develop their listening skills in English, in relation to detailed texts and interactions, for personal/social, transactional and work-related purposes.

NB: The personal/social English is an integral part of English in a work-related context because of the nature of the interview and personal statement, in which job candidates have to describe aspects of themselves and their circumstances.

This Unit is designed as a core part of the National Certificate in ESOL for Employability at SCQF level 5. It can be delivered as an integral part of a school curriculum, in further education colleges, community-based provision or in a language support context. While in certain centres there may be reasons to deliver ESOL Listening for Employability SCQF level 5 as a stand-alone Unit, it is generally expected that centres will offer this together with ESOL Writing for Employability, ESOL Speaking for Employability and ESOL Reading for Employability as a package, integrating the preparation and practice for these in course work. ESOL Listening for Employability level 5 may be taught alongside Preparing for Work (F57F 11) and there may be opportunities for integration of assessment evidence.

The following are suggested contexts for study:

- ◆ personal identity
- ◆ social and physical environment
- ◆ free time and leisure
- ◆ foods and services
- ◆ health
- ◆ travel
- ◆ job searches and career advice
- ◆ personal statements and CVs
- ◆ mock interviews

Topics which may be studied within each context can be found in the Guidance on Learning and Teaching Approaches for this Unit.

Guidance on learning and teaching approaches for this Unit

The approach to learning and teaching should be candidate-centred and focus on developing candidates' abilities to listen to English in personal/social, transactional and work-related contexts. Candidates should be encouraged to take personal responsibility for developing their awareness of the language and their ability to use it.

The learning and teaching materials used in the classroom should be relevant to candidates' lives. Candidates should be given maximum opportunity to practise and demonstrate their listening skills.

Although suggested topics may be covered in the teaching of this Unit, candidates are not expected to demonstrate competence in each. Lessons should consolidate and extend candidates' knowledge of grammar, expand their vocabulary and build their confidence when using the language.

Listed below, under each heading, are suggested examples of topics suitable for listening texts.

Personal/social

(NB: Teachers should be sensitive to the personal circumstances of all candidates, eg those with difficult family situations.)

- ◆ families
- ◆ home country: culture, people, places, etc
- ◆ current/ future employment or education
- ◆ comparisons of different jobs or courses
- ◆ past habits and experiences
- ◆ wishes/hopes for the future
- ◆ plans and ambitions
- ◆ social events/occasions/festivals
- ◆ daily life
- ◆ physical environment: local area/places of interest/accommodation
- ◆ leisure and hobbies
- ◆ living in Scotland/ different countries

Transactional

Goods and services:

- ◆ buying and selling
- ◆ complaints: late deliveries, faulty goods or poor service
- ◆ making enquiries/requesting information

Health:

- ◆ doctor and patient/nurse and patient conversations
- ◆ general health-related broadcasts, conversations, etc

Unit title: ESOL Listening for Employability (SCQF level 5)

Travel:

- ◆ general travel information
- ◆ directions
- ◆ places of interest

Work-Related:

- ◆ job searches and career advice
- ◆ interviews and mock-interviews
- ◆ workplace routines and ethos

Listening activities should be varied and integrated into the work done in the other skills Units and, where relevant, into other Units in the NC in ESOL for Employability at SCQF level 5. Activities should relate to the listening tasks a candidate might be expected to undertake in personal/social transactional and work-related contexts. Feedback from the teacher/lecturer and reflection on it will form an essential part of this process.

Appropriate text types and activities to help candidates develop their English listening skills in personal/social, transactional and work-related contexts would be:

Text Types	Activities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>◆ one-to-one conversations</li><li>◆ job interviews/mock interviews</li><li>◆ careers guidance discussions</li><li>◆ paired or group discussions</li><li>◆ talks which relate to personal and social issues</li><li>◆ instructions and directions</li><li>◆ audio recordings of dialogues of authentic interactions</li><li>◆ recorded messages</li><li>◆ published audio and video material for learners of English</li><li>◆ short extracts from television and radio programmes</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>◆ listening comprehension in a variety of formats</li><li>◆ identifying the purpose of spoken information</li><li>◆ identifying specific information in spoken texts</li><li>◆ matching spoken information to written texts and pictures</li><li>◆ responding appropriately to spoken questions</li><li>◆ extracting information to complete diagrams, graphs and grids</li></ul>

Candidates should be able to understand detailed English on a variety of topics in the texts used for the above activities. They should be able to identify the main points, opinions, attitudes and specific details.

The information in this grid is not prescriptive but represents appropriate skills for candidates to learn or further develop at this level. It can be used as a checklist to ensure that the necessary skills have been covered in preparation for assessment. Levels 2–4 are included for reference.

Unit title: ESOL Listening for Employability (SCQF level 5)

By adopting the above learning and teaching approaches particularly through Outcome 3 and corresponding Evidence Requirements, the Unit should provide candidates with an opportunity to develop the following essential skills for life, learning and work:

Employability — through developing appropriate communication and literacy skills to a standard acceptable to industry, working on time limited tasks and the ability to work with others.

Guidance on approaches to assessment for this Unit

Centres must make sure that all Unit assessment is carried out under the stated conditions.

If re-assessment is required, an alternative task should be selected and assessment should be carried out under these same conditions.

Outcome 3 of this Unit may provide opportunities for integrated assessment with Preparing to Work (F57F 11). Outcome 3 of Preparing to Work is a job interview. Appropriate responses to the questions asked could provide evidence of understanding of detailed English in a work-related context.

In relation to each Outcome, the following guidance is given:

Candidates should be given a clear understanding of the suggested timing, conditions and nature of Unit assessment. Time should be made available for them to familiarise themselves with these and to clarify aspects with the teacher/lecturer.

For Outcome 1, candidates should hear one text of approximately four minutes on a matter of personal or social interest. The text will be heard twice. Candidates will demonstrate their understanding by answering a series of questions related to the text. The assessment will be conducted under closed-book conditions and could have an approximate time limit of 15 minutes.

For Outcome 2, candidates will hear one text of approximately four minutes, in a transactional context. The text will be heard twice. Candidates will demonstrate their understanding by answering a series of questions related to the text. The assessment will be conducted under closed-book conditions and could have an approximate time limit of 15 minutes.

For Outcomes 1 and 2, the texts may include recorded conversations, podcasts, radio broadcasts, lectures, course book material for English language learners, etc. Appropriate types of questions would include:

- ◆ short answer questions
- ◆ true/false
- ◆ multiple choice
- ◆ gap fill
- ◆ completion of diagrams, tables and charts

Unit title: ESOL Listening for Employability (SCQF level 5)

An assessor checklist will support the tasks and provide evidence that they are the candidate's own work. The checklist will list the Performance Criteria and allow further assessor comment on individual candidates.

For Outcome 3, candidates should hear spoken questions in the context of employment, eg in a mock job interview or a career guidance discussion. The task should last approximately five minutes if oral answers are given. A further approximate five minutes should be allowed if the answers are written. Candidates will demonstrate their understanding by giving appropriate responses, orally or in writing, to a range of questions.

There is considerable potential in the classroom for candidates to tackle themes and topics in a way that practises both reading and listening skills by using texts in parallel with audio and video extracts. Material and tasks to prepare candidates for assessment should reflect those that candidates are likely to encounter in personal/social, transactional and work-related contexts. Care should be taken to select material that is not culturally loaded.

Opportunities for the use of e-assessment

E-assessment may be appropriate for some assessments in this Unit. By e-assessment we mean assessment which is supported by Information and Communication Technology (ICT), such as e-testing or the use of e-portfolios or e-checklists. Centres which wish to use e-assessment must ensure that the national standard is applied to all candidate evidence and that conditions of assessment as specified in the Evidence Requirements are met, regardless of the mode of gathering evidence. Further advice is available in SQA Guidelines on Online Assessment for Further Education (AA1641, March 2003), SQA Guidelines on e-assessment for Schools (BD2625, June 2005).

Opportunities for developing Core Skills

Throughout this Unit candidates will concentrate on listening activities.

Candidates will listen and respond to texts covering personal and social matters, transactions and work.

Therefore as candidates are doing this Unit they will be developing aspects of the Core Skill of Communication.

Additionally group and pair work are frequently used, as they are embedded in Communicative Language Learning. Therefore aspects of the Core Skill of Working with Others will also be developed.

Disabled candidates and/or those with additional support needs

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering whether any reasonable adjustments may be required. Further advice can be found on our website www.sqa.org.uk/assessmentarrangements
