UNIT Sports Officiating and Organising - Recreational: Trampolining
(Intermediate 2)

Evidence Requirements

Performance evidence of the candidate's ability to officiate in a tournament at a recreational level with respect to fundamental controls and procedures. Performance criteria (b) and (c) may require to be further evidenced through simulations, or written/oral evidence of situations requiring the intervention and actions of officials if evidence does not occur naturally during performance. In the case of oral evidence, this must be retained in a format which can be produced as evidence of candidate achievement.

Performance criteria (a) and (d) should be assessed through written or oral evidence of organisational planning and evaluation. Performance criteria (b) and (c) will involve the candidate in a range of practical activities which should be assessed through observation of the implementation and direction of a tournament.

National unit specification: support notes

UNIT Sports Officiating and Organising - Recreational: Trampolining
(Intermediate 2)

This part of the unit specification is offered as guidance. None of the sections of the support notes is mandatory.

GUIDANCE ON CONTENT AND CONTEXT

While the exact time allocated to this unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours. Candidates will, in the context of a single sporting activity develop their knowledge, understanding and ability to both officiate in, and organise, tournaments at a recreational level. The unit has been written in the context of ‘fundamental controls and procedures’ to accommodate the large variety of activity references which include, ‘rules of the game’, ‘laws of the game’, ‘codes of practice’, ‘codes of conduct’, ‘standard procedures’, etc. Officiating and organising, within the context of this unit, are less formal than ‘regulation’ versions of the sporting activity and may include a large degree of adaptation from the major version of the activity to suit individual situations and facilities, eg. mini-volleyball tournament played with adapted rules on adapted court areas.

GUIDANCE ON TEACHING AND LEARNING APPROACHES

This is essentially a practical unit. Candidates should be provided with the opportunity to develop their knowledge, understanding and ability through experiential learning situations, underpinned with supporting lecture inputs, as and when required. Participation in a range of tournament types prior to developing their own individual plans, will allow candidates to recognise the demands and variations which exist between different types of tournament. The tournament types anticipated in this unit relate to knock-out, round robin and ladder. Candidates should be allowed to develop their knowledge, understanding and ability through individual, pairs and group work as each situation allows.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT

To achieve this unit evidence requires to be generated which confirms that candidates have successfully achieved all outcomes and performance criteria within any range specified. The following outlines how evidence could be generated:

Outcome 1

All performance criteria – written or oral questions relating to descriptions of ‘fundamental controls and procedures’.

Outcome 2

Performance criteria (a) to (e) – practical exercise in informal officiating in the tournament.
Performance criteria (b) and (c) – written or oral questions relating to intervention, decisions and actions if evidence is not available through performance.

National unit specification: support notes (cont)

UNIT Sports Officiating and Organising - Recreational: Trampolining
(Intermediate 2)

Outcome 3

Performance criteria (a) and (d) – assignment in developing of an organisational plan and evaluation exercise.

Performance criteria (b) and (c) – practical exercise implementing an organisational plan and directing a tournament.

Note: In the case of oral evidence, this must be retained in a format which can be produced as evidence of candidate achievement.

The presentation of the unit should allow for naturally occurring evidence of candidate achievement to be recorded on an on-going basis.

SPECIAL NEEDS

This unit specification is intended to ensure that there are no artificial barriers to learning or assessment. Special needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments or considering alternative outcomes for units. For information on these, please refer to the SQA document Guidance on Special Assessment and Certification Arrangements (SQA, 1998).
