The candidate can respond to given stimuli, convey and seek information, express feelings and opinions, describe a personal or vicarious experience and common activities and events.

Nature of Communication

With time for preparation, the candidate can communicate intelligibly, showing some evidence of accuracy in spelling, grammar and sentence construction.

With time for preparation, the candidate can convey meaning clearly at first reading. Work shows accuracy in spelling, grammar and sentence construction, a range of vocabulary and some appropriate use of idiom.

Work in the main consists of sentences and short sequences of sentences which may contain subordinate clauses and modification devices such as adjectives and adverbs.

Extended work is produced, eg reports, reviews, letters and transcripts of dialogues or interviews.

The above aspects on the previous page can be tabulated for ease of application, as follows:

In deciding which of the two grades to award within each Level, consideration is given to whether, in meeting the stated criteria for a particular Level, the candidate

- has demonstrated a high standard of performance, or
- has demonstrated a lower standard of performance but nevertheless meets the criteria

The questions presented in Section A require a short, succinct piece, but one which includes all relevant information. By contrast, Section B requires a piece of extended writing.

If candidate does not merit grade 4 or better, enter the code 444 (instead of grade) on the script and on Form Ex6.
