The purpose of the Course Assessment Specification is to ensure consistent and transparent assessment year on year. It describes the structure of the Course assessment and the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding that will be assessed.

Course assessment structure

Component 1 — question paper: Reading and Translation	50 marks
Component 2 — question paper: Listening and Discursive Writing	70 marks
Component 3 — portfolio	30 marks
Component 4 — performance	50 marks
Total marks	200 marks

This Course includes eight SCQF credit points to allow additional time for preparation for Course assessment. The Course assessment covers the added value of the Course.

Equality and inclusion

This Course Assessment Specification has been designed to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to assessment. Assessments have been designed to promote equal opportunities while maintaining the integrity of the qualification.

For guidance on assessment arrangements for disabled learners and/or those with additional support needs, please follow the link to the Assessment Arrangements web page: www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/14977.html.

Guidance on inclusive approaches to delivery and assessment of this Course is provided in the Course Support Notes.

Assessment

To gain the award of the Course, the learner must pass all the Units as well as the Course assessment. Course assessment will provide the basis for grading attainment in the Course award.

Course assessment

SQA will provide instructions for the production and conduct of Course assessments based on the information provided in this document.

Added value

The purpose of the Course assessment is to assess added value of the Course as well as confirming attainment in the Course and providing a grade. The added value for the Course will address the key purposes and aims of the Course, as defined in the Course Rationale. It will do this by addressing one or more of breadth, challenge or application.

In this Course assessment, added value will focus on the following:

- ◆ challenge — requiring greater depth or extension of knowledge and/or skills
- ◆ application — requiring application of knowledge and/or skills in practical or theoretical contexts as appropriate

This added value consists of:

- ◆ applying advanced language skills to understand complex and sophisticated written and spoken language in the modern language from the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture
- ◆ applying advanced language skills in writing and talking in the modern language

Grading

Course assessment will provide the basis for grading attainment in the Course award.

The Course assessment is graded A–D. The grade is determined on the basis of the total mark for all Course assessments together.

A learner's overall grade will be determined by their performance across the Course assessment.

Grade description for C

For the award of Grade C, learners will have demonstrated successful performance in all of the Units of the Course. In the Course assessment, learners will typically have demonstrated successful performance in relation to the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Course. Learners will be able to apply advanced language skills to understand complex and sophisticated written and spoken information in the modern language from the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture, with a satisfactory level of detail and accuracy. Learners will be able to apply advanced language skills to use complex and sophisticated written and spoken language in the modern language from the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture, by sustaining discussion in a manner comprehensible to a speaker of the modern language and producing a complex and sophisticated written text in the modern language.

Grade description for A

For the award of Grade A, learners will have demonstrated successful performance in all of the Units of the Course. In the Course assessment, learners will typically have demonstrated a consistently high level of performance in relation to the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Course. Learners will be able to apply advanced language skills to understand complex and sophisticated written and spoken information in the modern language from the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture with a high level of detail and accuracy. Learners will be able to apply advanced language skills to use complex and sophisticated written and spoken language in the modern language from the contexts of society, learning, employability, and culture by sustaining discussion in a manner comprehensible to a speaker of the modern language and producing a complex and sophisticated written text in the modern language.

Credit

To take account of the extended range of learning and teaching approaches, remediation, consolidation of learning and integration needed for preparation for external assessment, six SCQF credit points are available in Courses at National 5 and Higher, and eight SCQF credit points in Courses at Advanced Higher. These points will be awarded when a Grade D or better is achieved.

Structure and coverage of the Course assessment

The Course assessment will consist of four Components — two question papers, a portfolio and a performance.

Component 1 — question paper: Reading and Translation

The purpose of this question paper is to allow learners to demonstrate challenge and application in the skills of reading and translation.

This question paper will give learners an opportunity to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ understand, analyse and draw inferences from complex and sophisticated written from one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, or culture
- ◆ identify and explain the overall purpose
- ◆ translate one section of the written text into English

This question paper will have 50 marks (25% of the total mark).

Learners will read one written non-fiction text in the modern language.

They will respond to questions about the written text in English.

They will translate part of the text into English.

30 marks will be for identifying, explaining, analysing and drawing inferences from significant aspects of detail.

20 marks will be for translating part of the text into English.

Learners may use a bi-lingual dictionary.

Component 2 — question paper: Listening and Discursive Writing

The purpose of this question paper is to allow learners to demonstrate challenge and application in the skills of listening and writing.

This question paper will give learners an opportunity to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ understand complex and sophisticated spoken language from one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, or culture
- ◆ use complex and sophisticated written language in the modern language to write a discursive essay in response to a statement based on one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, culture

This question paper will have 70 marks (35% of the total mark).

Section 1, titled 'Listening', will have 30 marks.

Item 1: Learners will listen to one monologue in the modern language and respond to questions worth 10 marks.

Item 2: Learners will listen to one conversation between two people in the modern language and respond to questions worth 20 marks.

The questions for both Item 1 and Item 2 will be in English and learners will respond in English.

The content of the monologue and the conversation will be from one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, or culture.

Section 2, titled 'Discursive Writing', will have 40 marks.

Learners will write one essay using complex and sophisticated language in the modern language from one of the following contexts: society, learning, employability, and culture.

Learners may use a bi-lingual dictionary for both Section 1 and Section 2 of the question paper.

Component 3 — portfolio

This portfolio will give learners an opportunity to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ analysing literature or media or language in work within the context of the modern language

Learners will produce one piece of writing in English of 1,200–1,500 words.

The portfolio will have 30 marks (15% of the total mark).

Component 4 — performance

The purpose of this performance is to give learners the opportunity to demonstrate their talking skills in the modern language in a discussion.

Learners will talk about themes or topics related to the Specialist Study Unit and at least one context from Society, Learning, Employability or Culture studied in the Understanding Language or Using Language Units or in preparation of the portfolio.

This performance will give learners an opportunity to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ the ability to use complex and sophisticated spoken language, in the modern language, as part of a discussion
- ◆ the ability to take part effectively in a discussion
- ◆ the ability to use language accurately to convey meaning in the modern language
- ◆ the ability to maintain interaction as appropriate to purpose

The performance will have 50 marks (25% of the total mark).

Setting, conducting and marking of assessment

Question paper 1 — Reading and Translation

This question paper will be set and marked by SQA, and conducted in centres under conditions specified for external examinations by SQA. Learners will complete this question paper in 1 hour and 30 minutes.

Question paper 2 — Listening and Discursive Writing

This question paper will be set and marked by SQA, and conducted in centres under conditions specified for external examinations by SQA.

Learners will complete this question paper in approximately 1 hour 20 minutes

For Chinese languages, learners will complete this question paper in 1 hour and 45 minutes.

Controlled assessment — portfolio

This portfolio is:

- ◆ set by centres within SQA guidelines
- ◆ conducted under some supervision and control

Evidence will be submitted to SQA for external marking.

Controlled assessment — performance

Setting the assessment

Set by centres within SQA guidelines.

Conducting the assessment

Visiting Assessors appointed by SQA will carry out the assessment.

Learners will complete this performance in approximately 20 minutes and under controlled conditions.

Further mandatory information on Course coverage

The following table gives details of mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Advanced Higher Modern Languages Course. Course assessment will involve sampling the skills, knowledge and understanding. This list of skills knowledge and understanding also provides the basis for the assessment of Units of the Course.
