Course outline

Course title: Advanced Higher Religious, Moral and Philosophical Studies

SCQF level: 7 (32 SCQF credit points)

Course code: ~~to be advised~~ C764 77

Course assessment code: ~~to be advised~~ X764 77

The purpose of the Course Assessment Specification is to ensure consistent and transparent assessment year on year. It describes the structure of the Course assessment and the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding that will be assessed.

Course assessment structure

Component 1 — question paper 60 marks

Component 2 — project: dissertation 40 marks

Total marks 100 marks

This Course includes eight SCQF credit points to allow additional time for preparation for Course assessment. The Course assessment covers the added value of the Course.

Equality and inclusion

This Course Assessment Specification has been designed to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to assessment. Assessments have been designed to promote equal opportunities while maintaining the integrity of the qualification.

For guidance on assessment arrangements for disabled learners and/or those with additional support needs, please follow the link to the Assessment Arrangements web page: www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/14977.html.

Guidance on inclusive approaches to delivery and assessment of this Course is provided in the Course and Unit Support Notes.

Assessment

To gain the award of the Course, the learner must pass all of the Units as well as the Course assessment. Course assessment will provide the basis for grading attainment in the Course award.

Course assessment

SQA will produce and give instructions for the production and conduct of Course assessments based on the information provided in this document.

Added value

The purpose of the Course assessment is to assess added value of the Course as well as confirming attainment in the Course and providing a grade. The added value for the Course will address the key purposes and aims of the Course, as defined in the Course Rationale. It will do this by addressing one or more of breadth, challenge, or application.

In this Course assessment, added value will focus on the following:

- ◆ challenge — requiring greater depth or extension of knowledge and/or skills
- ◆ application — requiring application of knowledge and/or skills in practical or theoretical contexts as appropriate

This added value consists of:

- ◆ drawing on, extending and applying the skills, knowledge and understanding acquired during the Course. This will be assessed by a question paper and a project
- ◆ demonstrating depth of knowledge and understanding and application of skills in the question paper. This will sample knowledge and understanding from the mandatory content of the Course and will require the application of skills
- ◆ demonstrating challenge and application through independent research related to an appropriate religious, moral or philosophical or issue, in the project

Grading

Course assessment will provide the basis for grading attainment in the Course award.

The Course assessment is graded A–D. The grade is determined on the basis of the total mark for all Course assessments together.

A learner's overall grade will be determined by their performance across the Course assessment.

Grade description for C

For the award of Grade C, learners will have demonstrated successful performance in all of the Units of the Course. In the Course assessment, learners will typically have demonstrated successful performance in relation to the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Course.

Grade description for A

For the award of Grade A, learners will have demonstrated successful performance in all of the Units of the Course. In the Course assessment, learners will typically have demonstrated a consistently high level of performance in relation to the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Course.

Credit

To take account of the extended range of learning and teaching approaches, remediation, consolidation of learning and integration needed for preparation for external assessment, six SCQF credit points are available in Courses at National 5 and Higher, and eight SCQF credit points in Courses at Advanced Higher. These points will be awarded when a Grade D or better is achieved.

Structure and coverage of the Course assessment

The Course assessment will consist of two Components: a question paper and a project: dissertation

~~Questions will be drawn from the content described in the 'Further mandatory information on Course coverage' section of this document.~~

Section 2 Part B: Medical Ethics will have 30 marks.

This Part will be made up of two extended response questions from which learners will choose to answer one. Both questions will be drawn from the same sub-section of the mandatory Course content described in the 'Further mandatory information on Course coverage' section of this document..

~~Section C: Medical Ethics will have 30 marks.~~

~~This Section will be made up of two extended response questions from which learners will choose to answer one. Both questions will be drawn from the same sub-section.~~

~~Questions will be drawn from the content described in the 'Further mandatory information on Course coverage' section of this document.~~

Command words

All questions will require candidates to integrate points of analysis and critical evaluation and synthesise information, in order to structure and sustain a lines of argument. They will be based on the following command words:

- 'To what extent...'
- '[statement]..Discuss'
- 'Critically evaluate...'

followed by 'Present a reasoned argument and conclusion'

Scaffolding

Where necessary, questions will be accompanied by appropriate scaffolding which clarifies the demands of the question. Scaffolding will not provide any advice on either the content being sampled, or the structure which a candidate might use in their answer.

Optional questions

In both Sections, candidates will choose one question to answer from a choice of two. The optional questions will be of equal demand, ~~and~~ comparable structure and ~~and~~ ~~They will also be~~ coterminous in scope.

Sampling

The question paper will sample from the full range of content outlined in the further mandatory information on course coverage. The full range of the mandatory content of the Course will be assessed over a number of years. No pattern will be set for the rotation of mandatory content, meaning that the same content may be assessed in subsequent years. Questions will use the same phraseology as the mandatory content, and candidates will be awarded marks for relevant knowledge and understanding that they use in answering the question. This may vary depending on the focus of learning and teaching in different centres.

Component 2 — project: dissertation

The purpose of this project is to demonstrate challenge and application by demonstrating skills, knowledge and understanding within the context of a project on a complex religious, moral or philosophical issue.

The project: dissertation will give learners an opportunity to undertake independent research in order to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ ~~organising, presenting and referencing findings using appropriate conventions~~

The project: dissertation will have 40 marks.

Setting, conducting and marking of assessment

Question paper

This question paper will be set and marked by SQA, and conducted in centres under conditions specified for external examinations by SQA. Learners will complete this in 2 hours.

~~Evidence will be submitted to SQA for external marking~~

All marking will be quality assured by SQA

Controlled assessment — project: dissertation

The project: dissertation will be managed set by centres within SQA guidelines and conducted under some supervision and control. Evidence for assessment will be produced independently by the learner in time to meet a submission date set by SQA.

~~Evidence will be submitted to SQA for external marking.~~

All marking will be quality assured by SQA.
