Course assessment

SQA will produce and give instructions for the production and conduct of Course assessments based on the information provided in this document.

Added value

The purpose of the Course assessment is to assess added value of the Course as well as confirming attainment in the Course and providing a grade. The added value for the Course will address the key purposes and aims of the Course, as defined in the Course Rationale. It will do this by addressing one or more of breadth, challenge, or application.

In this Course assessment, added value will focus on the following:

- ◆ breadth – drawing on knowledge and skills from across the Course
- ◆ challenge — requiring greater depth or extension of knowledge and/or skills
- ◆ application — requiring application of knowledge and/or skills in practical or theoretical contexts as appropriate

This added value consists of:

- ◆ demonstrating the ability to understand, analyse and evaluate an unseen written text. This will be assessed by a question paper. Over the Course assessment there will be broad parity between the assessment of skills, knowledge and understanding.
- ◆ demonstrating the ability to understand, analyse and evaluate detailed texts in the contexts of literature, language or media. This will be assessed by a question paper.
- ◆ demonstrating application and meeting challenge in applying language skills in the creation of texts. This will be assessed in a portfolio.

Grading

Course assessment will provide the basis for grading attainment in the Course award.

The Course assessment is graded A–D. The grade is determined on the basis of the total mark for all Course assessments together.

A learner's overall grade will be determined by their performance across the Course assessment.

Grade description for C

For the award of Grade C, learners will have demonstrated successful performance in all of the Units of the Course. In the Course assessment, learners will typically have demonstrated successful performance in relation to the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Course.

Grade description for A

For the award of Grade A, learners will have demonstrated successful performance in all of the Units of the Course. In the Course assessment, learners will typically have demonstrated a consistently high level of performance in relation to the mandatory skills, knowledge and understanding for the Course.

Credit

To take account of the extended range of learning and teaching approaches, remediation, consolidation of learning and integration needed for preparation for external assessment, six SCQF credit points are available in Courses at National 5 and Higher, and eight SCQF credit points in Courses at Advanced Higher. These points will be awarded when a Grade D or better is achieved.

Structure and coverage of the Course assessment

The Course assessment will consist of two Components, a question paper titled 'Reading' and a portfolio titled 'Writing'. The question paper will have two Sections. The portfolio will have one Section.

Component 1 — question paper: reading

The purpose of this question paper is to assess learners' application of their reading skills in a familiar but challenging context, and to provide the challenge of questions and other tasks to be accomplished in a limited amount of time.

This question paper will give learners an opportunity to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ reading skills in the understanding, analysis and evaluation of texts
- ◆ critical reading skills and knowledge of appropriate literary contexts, forms and genres
- ◆ knowledge and understanding from across the Course

The question paper will have 70 marks out of a total of 100 marks. This is 70% of the overall marks for the Course assessment.

This question paper has two Sections.

Section 1, titled 'Reading for Understanding, Analysis, and Evaluation' will have 30 marks.

These 30 marks will be awarded for addressing the challenge of applying reading skills in understanding, analysis and evaluation to one unseen non-fiction text. Assessment will involve learners answering questions to show these reading skills and completing a task that involves inference making and summarising.

Section 2, titled 'Critical Reading' will have 40 marks.

These 40 marks will be awarded for applying critical reading, knowledge and understanding.

This Section has two Parts.

Part 1

Learners will apply their understanding, analysis and evaluation skills to previously studied Scottish texts from the specified list. These texts will be both contemporary, 20th century and pre-20th century. The list will be refreshed as required and will cover the genres of drama, prose and poetry. An extract from each writer will be provided. Candidates will select an extract and answer questions.

Part 2

Learners will apply their understanding, analysis and evaluation skills to previously studied texts from the following contexts: drama, prose, poetry, film and TV, or language by selecting one question and writing one critical essay.

In each part, learners must cover a different genre.

Twenty marks will be awarded for each of the two parts.

Component 2 — portfolio: writing

The purpose of this portfolio is to provide evidence of the learner's writing for two different purposes and audiences.

This portfolio will give learners an opportunity to demonstrate the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ writing in different genres
- ◆ writing for a range of purposes and audiences

The portfolio will have 30 marks out of a total of 100 marks. This is 30% of the overall marks for the Course assessment.

The portfolio has one Section.

The portfolio will comprise the production by learners of two written texts that address the main language purposes, namely creative and discursive writing. One text will be broadly creative and the other broadly discursive.

Fifteen marks will be awarded for each writing piece chosen for the portfolio.
