
Unit title: Modern Languages: Using Language (Higher)

SCQF: level 6 (9 SCQF credit points)

Unit code: to be advised

Unit outline

The general aim of this Unit is to provide learners with the opportunity to develop and extend talking and writing skills, and to develop their knowledge of detailed and complex language in familiar contexts. Learners develop the skills needed to use a modern language in familiar contexts.

Learners who complete this Unit will be able to:

- 1 Use detailed and complex spoken language in a modern language
- 2 Use detailed and complex written language in a modern language

This Unit is a mandatory Unit of the Higher Modern Languages Course and is also available as a free-standing Unit. The Unit Specification should be read in conjunction with the Unit Support Notes which provide advice and guidance on delivery, assessment approaches and development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work. Exemplification of the standards in this Unit is given in the National Assessment Resource.

The Course Assessment Specification for the Higher Modern Languages Course gives further mandatory information on Course coverage for learners taking this Unit as part of the Higher Modern Languages Course.

Recommended entry

Entry to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre. However, learners would normally be expected to have attained the skills, knowledge and understanding required by one or more of the following or equivalent qualifications and/or experience:

- ◆ Modern Languages (National 5) Course or relevant component Units

Equality and inclusion

This Unit Specification has been designed to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to learning or assessment. The individual needs of learners should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment methods or considering alternative evidence. For further information please refer to the Unit Support Notes.

Standards

Outcomes and assessment standards

Outcome 1

The learner will:

1 Use detailed and complex spoken language in a modern language by:

- 1.1 Using ideas and content to communicate
- 1.2 Using a structure of ideas and content that is appropriate to purpose and audience
- 1.3 Using pronunciation and register to be clearly understood by a sympathetic listener
- 1.4 Applying a detailed knowledge and understanding of language to communicate with accuracy

Outcome 2

The learner will:

2 Use detailed and complex written language in a modern language by:

- 2.1 Using a wide range of ideas and content
- 2.2 Using a structure of ideas and content that is appropriate to purpose and audience
- 2.3 Applying a detailed knowledge and understanding of language, including spelling, grammar and punctuation, to communicate with accuracy

Evidence Requirements for the Unit

Assessors should use their professional judgement, subject knowledge and experience, and understanding of their learners, to determine the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and the conditions and contexts in which they are used.

For this Unit, learners will be required to provide:

- ◆ one piece of written evidence
- ◆ one piece of oral evidence

Evidence should be gathered in combination with other Outcomes where possible, either from this Unit or in combination with the Outcomes from the Modern Languages: Understanding Language Unit. Evidence may also be gathered for individual Outcomes where appropriate.

Familiar contexts will be drawn from at least one of the following: society, learning, employability or culture.

Evidence of talking can be gathered from learners' interactions, such as presentations, conversations or discussions, and can be presented in either oral or digital form, such as a podcast. Learners can supplement their evidence of talking with visual and audio aids, such as PowerPoint slides, film/audio clips, newspaper articles, web-based or other digital media.

Evidence of writing can be presented in either written or digital form, such as an e-mail or a blog. Learners can use a bilingual dictionary.

Exemplification of assessment will be provided in the National Assessment Resource. Advice and guidance on possible approaches to assessment is provided in the Unit Support Notes.

Draft

Development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work

(Note: The information given below reflects the initial thinking on significant opportunities for development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work. These may be subject to change as the development process progresses.)

It is expected that learners will develop broad, generic skills through this Unit. The skills that learners will be expected to improve on and develop through the Unit are based on SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work and drawn from the main skills areas listed below. These must be built into the Unit where there are appropriate opportunities.

4 Employability, enterprise and citizenship

4.6 Citizenship

5 Thinking skills

5.3 Applying

Amplification of these is given in SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work. The level of these skills should be at the same SCQF level of the Unit and be consistent with the SCQF level descriptor. Further information on building in skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work is given in the Unit Support Notes.
