

Guidance on the use of past paper questions for Higher Classical Studies

The Curriculum for Excellence Higher Courses draw on the strengths of popular areas of study from the existing Higher, with the introduction of some new content. The purpose of this support document is to help centres and departments to identify suitable past paper questions/items that could be used, or possibly amended, to support learners in their preparation for sitting question papers (exams) as part of the Higher Course assessment. The advice in this document reflects questions selected from 2011 to 2013 past papers. If you click on the highlighted links in the columns below, this will take you to the relevant past paper.

When utilising any past paper questions, you need to take into account the following:

- ◆ You must select questions that provide the learners with the same level of challenge as those in the Higher Specimen Question Paper.
- ◆ You may be able to use questions as published or with amendments as suggested in the columns below.
- ◆ You must use questions that adhere to the Higher General Marking Principles and reflect the form of detailed Marking Instructions as published in the Higher Specimen Question Paper.

If any change to a question/items is necessary, you must ensure that:

- ◆ The style and structure matches the Specimen Question Paper for Higher
- ◆ Marking of the learner's response to the question adheres to the General Marking Principles in the Higher Specimen Question Paper
- ◆ Marking Instructions are amended to reflect the style of the Higher detailed Marking Instructions.

The details below should be read in conjunction with the relevant:

Key for the section below:

C — amend context as required

S — amend source as required

St — amend question style

Str — amend structure of the question

Not all topics/areas of study will appear every year due to the sampling techniques used in producing question papers.

Information from the Course Assessment Specification Each Section of the question paper will be made up of restricted/extended response questions. Questions will sample the knowledge and understanding and apply skills described in the Further mandatory information on Course coverage section.	The columns below identify additional support questions from Higher Past Papers 2011 to 2013.
Classical Literature
The content in this Course is either new, or treated differently to content within the existing Higher, so there are no equivalent questions in past papers. However, some questions can be adapted, as described below.	2011, S2, Q4 — S, Str 2012, S2 Q4 — S, Str 2013 S2 Q4 — S, Str	St/Str questions asking candidates to analyse, evaluate and express a reasoned view about themes in classical literature will appear in the new Higher question paper. However, the question style, the mark allocations, and the marking instructions will be different (with the marking instructions clearly describing numbers of marks for each skill/KU). Questions will not specify mandatory texts, but will ask a candidate to discuss a given theme within any text they have studied.
