

Hannah Barnes – Portree High School

I'm going to go to Art College and I think it'll really help me get in now that I've got the basic skills like bricking, painting and stuff. I think it's good, I think all the girls in my class really do enjoy this course and quite a lot of them are actually better than the boys I have to say.