Course Assessment Specification

Media Studies Intermediate 1

The purpose of this document is to provide:

- ◆ details of the structure of the Question Paper in this Course
- ◆ details of the structure of the Unseen Analysis that contributes to this Course
- ◆ guidance to centres on how to use information gathered from the Question Paper and the Unseen Analysis in this Course to estimate candidate performance

PART 1

This part of the Course Assessment Specification details the structure of the Question Paper in this Course.

The Question Paper:

- ◆ examines Knowledge and Understanding covering the Course content
- ◆ consists of two sections, 1 and 2
- ◆ has a mark allocation of 80 marks and a time allocation of one hour

Section 1-Total marks 40

Questions in this section of the paper will:

- ◆ assess the candidate's ability to analyse media texts
- ◆ cover both fiction and non fiction
- ◆ assess the ability to describe the key aspects, focusing on Narrative, Representation, Audience and Institution

Candidates will:

- ◆ be expected to refer to media text(s) with which they are familiar
- ◆ answer six-eight restricted response questions based on a text studied in class

Section 2-Total marks 40

Questions in this section of the paper will

- ◆ require candidates to analyse their own production or a potential production based on the question rubric
- ◆ allow candidates to refer to a range of media
- ◆ include types which are reflective, creative or knowledge based

It is crucial, however, that this does not become an additional analytical question. Candidates must be directed to concentrate on the construction aspects of a production. It should not allow for regurgitation of the evaluation.

Candidates will answer three-four restricted response questions which relate to different types of media.

PART 2

This part of the Course Assessment Specification details the structure of the Unseen Analysis in this Course.

The Unseen Analysis has a mark allocation of 20 marks and lasts for 45 minutes.

- ◆ The Unseen Analysis requires candidates to demonstrate the extent to which they have assimilated critical descriptions of the text-based key aspects. Candidates should apply the key aspects to a text that they have not seen or heard before. This differs from the Question Paper which requires critical description of previously studied texts. The ability to describe an unseen text is part of the added value of the Course as a whole.
- ◆ At Intermediate 1 candidates will be advised of the most appropriate key aspects to cover through the rubric of the question.
- ◆ Candidates will be required to demonstrate the analytical skills from Performance Criterion (a) of either of the Analysis Units.
- ◆ The explanation must focus on Categories and Language, however, reference could be made to Narrative and Representations when appropriate.
- ◆ To achieve a pass the response to the unseen text must describe Categories and Language in detail.
- ◆ Candidates will apply these skills to a media text or extract in a medium and genre which has been studied in one of the Units; this unseen text, which may be fiction or non-fiction, will not be drawn from the same title as that previously studied.
- ◆ Centres will conduct the assessment to specifications provided by the Scottish Qualifications Authority and the completed folio will be submitted for external assessment.
- ◆ Access to the text should be allowed for the duration of the assessment.

Part 3

This part of the Course Assessment Specification provides guidance on how to use assessment information gathered from the Question Paper and the Unseen Analysis to estimate candidate performance.

The Course assessment is based on two components. The mark range for each component takes account of the weighting of each component.

Component	Mark Range
Question Paper	0–80
Unseen Analysis	0–20
Total Marks	0–100

In National Qualifications cut-off scores should be set at approximately 70% for Grade A and 50% for Grade C with grade B falling midway. These cut-off scores may be lowered if either or both components turn out to be more demanding or raised if less demanding.

Grade	Band	Mark Range
A	1	85–100
A	2	70–84
B	3	65–69
B	4	60–64
C	5	55–59
C	6	50–54
D	7	40–49
NA	8	35–39
NA	9	0–35

Worked example

- ◆ In a centre's own prelim, a candidate scores 52/80 and 9/20, giving a total mark of 61/100.
- ◆ The centre's view is that their own prelim is slightly less demanding than SQA's external assessment. Using the mark range, a realistic estimate may be band 5 rather than band 4.

There are two Sections in this paper:

Section 1—Media Analysis

Attempt all the questions in Section 1.

Section 2—Media Production

Attempt one question from Section 2.

Each Section is worth 40 marks.

Write your answers in the spaces provided.

A pack of storyboard sheets and equipment which includes coloured pencils, a rubber, a ruler and a sharpener has been provided for you. You should use these where appropriate when attempting Section 2—Media Production.

Before leaving the examination room you must give this book to the invigilator. If you do not, you may lose all the marks for this paper.

Part (i)

Plan an advertisement that will encourage more people to go and watch live football.

Decide on your target audience and what medium you will choose.

If you choose television or film, you should think about:

- target audience
- camera—position (close-up, medium shot, long shot, etc)
  - angle (low, high, etc)
  - movement (panning, tracking, zoom, etc)
- editing—fades, dissolves, cuts, etc
- sound—music, voice over, sound effects, dialogue.

If you choose radio, you should think about:

- target audience
- script breakdown
- music
- sound effects
- dialogue.

If you choose print, you should think about:

- target audience
- placement (newspaper, magazine, billboard etc)
- size (full-page, half-page, large or small poster)
- colour
- layout
- images
- words.

Make sure you include the following information:

- medium
- target audience(s)
- what your advertisement will look/sound like.

You may use the storyboards and coloured pencils provided if you like.

Your drawing skills are not being tested.

Attempt ONE question from this section

For Intermediate 1 Unseen Analysis—the marks awarded will be dictated by the choice of questions selected by the Centre. There is no extended mark scale but up to 20 marks will be accrued by answering 20 marks worth of supporting questions.

The instructions below apply to all answers:

- use the full range of marks (0–40)
- mark positively—credit should be given for a genuine attempt to answer the question
- mark on content, not presentation—knowledge of Media Studies is being assessed
- give credit for the application of production knowledge and skills
- where the response does not fit the question, mark only what is relevant

In order to achieve a pass, the candidate must:

- answer all parts of the question
- respond in a format appropriate to the question
- demonstrate understanding of the key aspects of Media Studies
- respond from a production viewpoint
- demonstrate knowledge and understanding of production processes

1. Part (i)

Categories

The answer must describe how a knowledge of categories helped plan the production. It must not be an evaluation of the production.

An answer which does not demonstrate any knowledge award	0
When the contribution of categories is sketchily described award	5
When the contribution of categories is sufficiently described award	7
When the contribution of categories is fully described award	8–10

Part (ii)

Language

The answer must describe how a knowledge of language helped plan the production. It must not be an evaluation of the production.

An answer which does not demonstrate any knowledge award	0

[END OF SPECIMEN MARKING INSTRUCTIONS]

MEDIA STUDIES INTERMEDIATE 1 – UNSEEN ANALYSIS

The questions should focus on Categories and Language with some reference to their relationship to other key aspects. To achieve a pass the unseen must describe Categories and Language in detail.

Instrument of assessment

The instrument of assessment is the response to a range of questions on an unseen analysis internally selected and externally assessed/marked.

Evidence can be hand-written, word-processed, scribed and/or oral form. Oral evidence should be recorded on audio or videotape.

Candidates will undertake the analysis of the text in controlled conditions.

The time allocated for the task will be 45 minutes. Access to the text should be allowed for the duration of the assessment.

- The text itself must be unseen, but should be from a medium and genre familiar to the candidate.
- The text should not be taken from a previously studied title.
- For a time-based medium the text should last no longer than 3 minutes; for a page-based medium, one page of a newspaper should be sufficient but in some cases it may be considered necessary to analyse more eg. a few pages of a pamphlet for a mail order catalogue.

Teaching and Learning

Much of the teaching and learning for Unseen Analysis will be done in the early stages of the course when all the key aspects are taught.

Guidance on approaches to Assessment

GENERAL ADVICE

- It is advisable to select the type of unseen text to be used early in the course, this allows for study in a similar medium/genre/form throughout the year. The example given below would follow the study of film and advertising.
- If the Unseen Analysis is an extract from Coronation Street the text studied in the fiction unit should be a different title eg. Eastenders.
- The text should include cultural / technical codes likely to be familiar and appropriate to the candidates. (Candidates should not be disadvantaged because of their different ideology/background)
- Candidates benefit from written vocabulary tests on media language from early in the course e.g. connotation, denotation, codes, signs, stereotypes, mise-en-scene, use of fonts, camera angles, use of colour etc. At this level it is not necessary to use analytical terms e.g. mise-en scene, but they should show understanding of the idea that everything in the frame can be de-constructed in terms of signs and codes. At all levels technical terms should be used accurately. (Media specific terminology can be found in the support notes in the Arrangements and the glossaries in the Production NAB)
- Learning media language can be very dry but is the basis of deconstructing in analysis and constructing in production. It is one of the most important aspects of a media course. To make it enjoyable language should be taught through practical work e.g. creating a shot, camera angle, font, caption.
- Simple exercises:
  - Create a film poster or advert in groups using blank sheets of paper, old magazines, coloured pens and glue.
  - Quiz in groups/pairs based on a collection of print media e.g. adverts (public service, product or company), newspaper and magazine articles, front pages, DVD covers etc.
  - Quiz based on film posters stuck on walls (a source for these is your local video shop). Candidates can identify and label signs and codes.
- Time spent on language is invaluable. Always link the use of language to other key aspects e.g. in the example given below link why a certain actor is used to reinforce stereotype and attract audience in order to make profit for the institution.
- Build a bank of words (signs and codes) commonly used with justification of choice e.g. soft focus / romance, sans serif / modernity, sepia / from the past.

Exemplar content

Because of the diversity of media used for Unseen Analysis it is impossible to do a general format. Below is an example of preparation to deconstruct a film advert taken from a film magazine (a war based love story with comic elements).

CATEGORIES

MEDIUM	Print
PURPOSE	Inform (genre, stars, certification, possibly inform on venue and time) – persuade (to see the film) – profit (for the institution)
GENRE	Genre of the text - Special interest magazine. The genre of the film attracts target audience – give examples of codes representing war/love/comedy – explain in each case the target audience – hybrid genre increases appeal – more profit
FORM	Advert to inform and attract audience
OTHERS	Stars - sexy male (attract female audience) – macho male (attract male audience) - well known director ( known for genre/quality ) – actor (known for comedy) – Institution (known for quality/genre)

- Describe each of the categories giving, where possible, 2 purposes and 2 types of audience. Give reasons for each choice.
- Describe what Categories are influenced by or influence the Audience and Institution eg. certification (narrative) logo, company name (quality, genre).

LANGUAGE

- Describe as many signs, codes and conventions as possible (denotation) and give meanings for their use (connotation) and reasons for their choice (motivation)
Eg. Character formatting (font, colour, size, information, anchorage etc)
Icons – stars (stereotype)
Costumes – (period, genre, colour, stereotype etc)
Misc-en-scene – (set, background, props etc)
Technical codes – (lighting, focus, graphic elements, text elements)

Preparation for answering questions

Caterories	Cultural/Technical Codes	Denotation/Connotation	Motivation	Target Audience	Maker
Medium Purpose Form Genre Target Audience Institution	C.C. – signs whose meaning is shared by members of a culture e.g. dress/costume, gesture, mise-en-scene. T.C. – specific to media (see support notes and Production NAB glossaries)	Denotation – the description of a sign. Connotation – the meaning associated with the sign.	To aid understanding, to tell the story, to conform to genre, for connotations.	Identify target audience, justify with reference to the text	Identify the types of production companies involved in producing the text.

Exemplar questions

GENERAL ADVICE

- The following questions should be adapted to the text. The words in italic should be substituted with examples from the text and where a choice of question is given the one most appropriate to the text should be used e.g. questions on genre in advertising could disadvantage candidates, in the case of a film advert it is possible to word the question to the genre of the film (name the genre of the film being advertised etc.).
- At this level candidates should be given the conventions, signs or codes to be described.
- When marking practice questions if a candidate's answer has not been predicted in the marking scheme but is well explained it should be accepted.
- Candidates should not be penalised because their cultural assumptions differ from that of the marker.
- The maximum mark allocated by the centre for the Unseen Analysis is 20.

Questions

1. What is the medium of the text?	1 mark
2. What is the form of the text?	1 mark
3. Name one type of production company involved in producing the text.	1 mark
4. Eg. Who paid for this advert? What type of television channel transmitted this programme? Who published this magazine?
5. Identify the genre of this text and describe two elements from the text that help you identify the genre. OR Identify the target audience and give two reasons for your choice.	3 marks
6. Identify two purposes of this text, justify your choices by referring to the text. Choose one cultural/technical code and explain the connotation or meaning (questions 6-10)	4 marks
7. Eg. Describe the character formatting and explain why you think it was chosen?	2 marks
8. Eg. Describe the person in the middle, why do you think they are - in that position/shot at that angle?	2 marks
9. Eg. Describe the background, why do you think it was used?	2 marks
10. Eg. Describe the colours used, why do you think they were chosen?	2 marks
11. Eg. Describe a strapline, why was it used?	2 marks
TOTAL	20 marks

In order to pass the candidate must deal with both Categories and Language.

Guidelines for assessment

- Give a reasonable amount to be analysed – one page of a newspaper (if the text is a pamphlet or a website a few pages might be necessary) or 2 minutes of moving image (maximum of 3 minutes). Being asked to analyse too much disadvantages many candidates.
- Familiarise candidates with the Flyleaf issued by SQA well in advance.
- Allow candidates time to read the questions before giving access to the text.
- It is advisable to allocate reading/viewing/listening time at the beginning of the 45 minutes when continual access is given to the text. In the case of non-print texts this could be achieved by a continuous running loop or unrestricted access to audio tape/videotape facilities.
- Regardless of the medium chosen, candidates should be provided with access to the text for the duration of the time available for assessment.
- It is advisable to complete the Unseen well before the exam diet.
- It should be remembered that a copy of the unseen text will have to be submitted with each pack of 10 completed candidate scripts. (With this in mind the text given in the example would be an advert in a magazine not a full size poster)
