The Worst Son Ever

The mother of the emperor Nero was very critical of her son and was punished as a result.

Agrippina erat mater Neronis. illa facta dictaque filii acerbius exquirebat et corripbat. itaque Nero eam honore et potestate privavit, ac Palatio expulit.

Nero felt so uncomfortable near his mother that he tried to kill her, using all his evil genius.

verum minis matris et violentia territus, Nero eam perdere statuit, et cum ter veneno frustra eam temptavisset, machinam paravit, ut lacunaria noctu super eam dormientem 5 deciderent. sed hoc consilio forte revelato, commentus est solutilem navem, ut naufragio matrem perderet.

He invited his mother to sail across the Bay of Naples to join him, but he made sure that she came back in a different boat.

ita Nero reconciliatione simulato eam Baias evocavit; tum negotium trierarcho dedit ut liburnicam confringeret in qua mater prius advecta erat, et in locum corrupti navigii prae-buit alteram navem machinosam.

The ship sank, but Nero's mother swam to safety. Nero then found another way of bringing about her murder.

10 reliquum noctis Nero cum magna trepidatione vigilavit, opperens coeptorum exitum. subito libertus Agrippinae advenit et cum gaudio nuntiabat matrem Neronis nando evasisse. sed ubi forte Nero vidit pugionem liberti, eum arripi iussit ut percussorem subornatum. deinde Nero matris caedem curavit.
