

Navita Pahuja – St George's School for Girls

I enjoy Skills for Work because it's a very fun and useful subject because you can learn a lot and you gain a lot of experience as well. It's been very useful because I want to do Business Management in the future and it's basically preparing me for the future.