PDA in Debt Recovery

SCQF level 8

Professional Development Awards (PDAs) provide focused education and training at a high level. They develop and deliver sharp, flexible skills quickly and cost effectively – a need which is widely recognised.

SQA's Professional Development Award in Debt Recovery delivers the essential skills and knowledge for practising debt recovery paralegals and is suitable for continuing professional development (CPD), or for anyone seeking to enter employment in this area.

With the implementation of the new Law Society of Scotland Registered Paralegal Scheme (which is likely to be launched during 2009), paralegals will require a formal qualification such as the PDA in Debt Recovery to register under the new scheme.

This PDA is jointly awarded with the Scottish Paralegal Association (SPA) which is formally recognised by the Law Society of Scotland as the body that represents the interests and promotes the development of paralegals in Scotland. When registering for the PDA, students can enrol with SPA as a student member – or at a higher level depending on relevant work experience. They will be able to:

- be part of a recognised Grading Scheme
- keep abreast of developments in law through CPD
- join the members' reward scheme
- attend the SPA Annual Conference
- be part of a national network of paralegals
