Understanding Music with a Scottish Context (National 3)

SCQF: level 3 (6 SCQF credit points)

Unit code: H9P7 73

Unit outline

The general aim of this Unit is to develop learners' knowledge and understanding of music, music concepts and music literacy with a Scottish context.

On completion of the Unit, learners will be able to listen to music and identify and distinguish specific music concepts and music styles. They will identify where music concepts are used and have a basic understanding of the musical features which influence the sound of specific music styles

Learners who complete this Unit will be able to:

- 1 Recognise and identify simple music concepts and styles

This Unit is a mandatory Unit of the National 3 Music Course, an optional Unit in the Scottish Studies Awards at SCQF level 3 and is also available as a free-standing Unit. The Unit Specification should be read in conjunction with the Unit Support Notes, which provide advice and guidance on delivery, assessment approaches and development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work.

Recommended entry

Entry to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre. However, learners would normally be expected to have attained the skills, knowledge and understanding required by one or more of the following or equivalent qualifications and/or experience:

- ◆ National 2 Performance Arts Course or relevant component Units

In terms of prior learning and experience, relevant experiences and outcomes may also provide an appropriate basis for doing this Unit.

Equality and inclusion

This Unit Specification has been designed to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to learning or assessment. The individual needs of learners should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment methods or considering alternative evidence. For further information, please refer to the Unit Support Notes.

Standards

Outcomes and assessment standards

Outcome 1

The learner will:

1 Recognise and identify simple music concepts and styles by:

- 1.1 Identifying simple level-specific music concepts in excerpts of music including Scottish music.
- 1.2 Identifying and recognising the distinctive instrumental and/or vocal groupings used in music styles including Scottish music
- 1.3 Understanding the meaning of simple music signs, symbols and terms

Evidence Requirements for the Unit

Assessors should use their professional judgement, subject knowledge and experience, and understanding of their learners, to determine the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and the conditions and contexts in which they are used.

In this Unit, Evidence Requirements are as follows.

Evidence will be a combination of written or aural and/or recorded evidence.

In this Unit, learners will be required to provide evidence of:

- ◆ a basic understanding of music concepts and musical literacy
- ◆ discriminatory aural awareness
- ◆ a basic understanding of the factors which influence the distinctive sounds of music styles including Scottish music

Evidence generated for this Unit must include a Scottish context for the relevant assessment standards.

Development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work

It is expected that learners will develop broad, generic skills through this Unit. The skills that learners will be expected to improve on and develop through the Unit are based on SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work and drawn from the main skills areas listed below. These must be built into the Unit where there are appropriate opportunities.

1 Literacy

1.3 Listening and talking

3 Health and wellbeing

3.1 Personal learning

5 Thinking skills

5.2 Understanding

Amplification of these is given in SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work. The level of these skills should be at the same SCQF level of the Unit and be consistent with the SCQF level descriptor. Further information on building in skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work is given in the Unit Support Notes.
