Listening and Discursive Writing

Marking Instructions

Please note that these marking instructions have not been standardised based on candidate responses. You may therefore need to agree within your centre how to consistently mark an item if a candidate response is not covered by the marking instructions.

General marking principles for Advanced Higher Gaelic (Learners) Listening

Always apply these general principles. Use them in conjunction with the detailed marking instructions, which identify the key features required in candidates' responses.

- (a) Always use positive marking. This means candidates accumulate marks for the demonstration of relevant skills, knowledge and understanding; marks are not deducted for errors or omissions.
- (b) If a candidate response does not seem to be covered by either the principles or detailed marking instructions, and you are uncertain how to assess it, you must seek guidance from your team leader.
- (c) Award a mark for each answer. Marks are not transferable between questions and the answers for each question must come from the item.
- (d) Award marks according to the accuracy and relevance of the candidate's answers. Award marks where the answer is accurate but expressed in their own words.

General marking principles for Advanced Higher Gaelic (Learners) Discursive Writing

Always apply these general principles. Use them in conjunction with the detailed marking instructions, which identify the key features required in candidates' responses.

- (a) Always use positive marking. This means candidates accumulate marks for the demonstration of relevant skills, knowledge and understanding; marks are not deducted for errors or omissions.
- (b) If a candidate response does not seem to be covered by either the principles or detailed marking instructions, and you are uncertain how to assess it, you must seek guidance from your team leader.
- (c) Marking should be holistic. There may be strengths and weaknesses; focus as far as possible on the strengths, taking account of weaknesses only where they significantly detract from the overall impression. Award marks for the candidate's demonstration of ability in the three main characteristics of writing:
 - (i) content
 - (ii) accuracy
 - (iii) language resource.
- (d) Using the pegged marks table first select the row of the table in which the descriptors most closely match the candidate's piece of writing. Once that row has been identified follow this guidance:
 - if the evidence largely matches the descriptors across all of the aspects of the work, award the higher of the two available marks
 - if the evidence largely matches the descriptors across most of the aspects of the work, award the lower of the two available marks.
- (e) If you are in doubt about which of two adjacent rows to select, select the upper row and award the lower pegged mark in that row.
- (f) Award the highest pegged mark for writing even if there are minor errors, when these do not detract from the overall impression.
- (g) Candidates are instructed to write 250–300 words. Apply the general and detailed marking instructions even where the length of the piece of writing falls outside this range.
