Work with others to improve customer service

Overview

Teamwork is a key component of delivering and improving excellent customer service. The people you work with to improve customer service may include one or more of the following: team members; colleagues; suppliers; service partners; supervisors; managers; team leaders.

The delivery of excellent customer service depends on your skills and those of others. It involves communicating with each other and agreeing how you can work together to give a more effective service. You need to work together positively. You must also monitor your own and the team's performance and change the way you do things if that improves customer service.

This unit is all about how you develop a relationship with others to improve your customer service performance.

Note: This unit has been taken from the National Occupational Standards developed by the Institute of Customer Service (ICS), the standards setting body for customer service. The format of the unit is different to that used by the Management Standards Centre (MSC) for the units the MSC has developed.
