Evidence requirements

Candidates must produce a folio of three written assessments, one of these being an essay. Interpretation will be assessed by questions on prescribed literature in verse demanding short answers, restricted response and extended response. The time allocation for each of the three assessments will be 40 minutes. The total marks for each assessment will be 25. There may be choice within the questions. The overall assessment should cover both the sections prescribed for study in the original language and the sections prescribed for study in English. Questions will be phrased so as to guide answers in respect of authors' techniques. The unit assessments must include questions that enable all the performance criteria to be met. These assessments must be done under invigilated test conditions. Where reassessment is required, different questions should be used.

National Unit Specification: support notes

UNIT Interpretation – Verse (Higher)

This part of the unit specification is offered as guidance. The support notes are not mandatory.

While the time allocated to this unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours.

GUIDANCE ON CONTENT AND CONTEXT FOR THIS UNIT

The text for interpretation will be as prescribed in the Course Arrangements:

Latin – from Virgil or Plautus;

Classical Greek – from Homer or Sophocles.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

A national bank of unit assessment instruments will be developed. These national assessment instruments will serve two functions: providing evidence of attainment of unit outcomes; and providing evidence for course estimates and appeals. Therefore the marking system will be the same for both unit and course assessment.

SPECIAL NEEDS

This unit specification is intended to ensure that there are no artificial barriers to learning or assessment.
