

National Unit Specification: general information

UNIT Audio: Legal (SCQF level 5)

CODE F7KR 11

SUMMARY

This Unit is an optional Unit of the National Certificate Group Award in Administration but can also be taken as a free-standing Unit.

This Unit will further develop the skills required to produce legal text from instructions in recorded material. In this Unit, candidates will apply their skills in word processing to transcribe material which will consist of a variety of complex legal documents. The documents should be laid out in the organisational house style, some within time constraints.

OUTCOMES

- 1 Produce legal documents from recorded instructions.
- 2 Produce mailable copy of approximately 600 words in a 1 hour 15 minute working period.

EVIDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR THIS UNIT

Evidence is required to demonstrate that candidates have achieved all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

To demonstrate satisfactory attainment of all Outcomes of the Unit, candidates will produce a series of practical tasks both in timed and untimed conditions.

For both outcomes, hard copy of documents would be the most appropriate form of evidence.

These documents should demonstrate that the candidate has achieved Outcome 1 to the standard specified in the Outcome and Performance Criteria. The evidence for this Outcome should be obtained under controlled, supervised conditions and would consist of a table/tab, a passage and display.

The table should be approximately 100 words in length. The passage should be approximately 250 words in length and the display approximately 100 words in length. On first submission the teacher/lecturer may point out a maximum of two errors per task, which should be corrected and resubmitted. On final submission there should be no errors.

Evidence for Outcome 2 should demonstrate that the candidate has achieved the outcome to the standard specified in the Outcome and Performance Criteria. This evidence should be obtained under controlled, supervised conditions within 1 hour 15 minutes and would consist of a letter, an email with a form attachment and a report with integration with an overall total of approximately 600 words. On submission, eight errors are allowed overall.

The assessment for both outcomes should be open-book with candidates having access to reference material.

The Assessment Support Pack (ASP) for this Unit illustrates the standard, lists texts of an appropriate level of demand for this Unit and includes an assessor record/checklist. Centres wishing to select their own texts and devise their own instruments of assessment should refer to the ASP to ensure that standards are comparable.

National Unit Specification: support notes

UNIT Legal Audio: Intermediate (SCQF level 5)

This part of the Unit Specification is offered as guidance. The support notes are not mandatory.

While the exact time allocated to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours.

GUIDANCE ON THE CONTENT AND CONTEXT FOR THIS UNIT

This Unit should be set in the context of a modern legal office environment and as such candidates should have access to industry standard software and hardware. Candidates should be aware of different types of equipment used for transcribing recorded text in an office and should understand the importance of the safe and effective operation of the equipment used.

It is suggested that a thematic and inter-related approach be used for the documents produced to make the tasks more meaningful to the candidate.

Candidates should be able to create tables which contain merged cells and be able to centre them horizontally and vertically. They should be able to set margins, line spacing and make use of different formatting features such as fonts, sizes, boldening and justification. The passage should contain bulleted points, different types of headings, indenting and foreign or unusual words. The display should contain a graphic which should have particular instructions such as exact positioning.

Candidates should be able to produce a business letter according to house style on headed paper and create and send an email with form attachment. The report should contain numbering and have integration from another file.

The importance of good file management should be stressed from the outset. Candidates should be able to locate folders and files, create and open folders and files and use appropriate backup procedures.

Candidates should be aware of the importance of the security and confidentiality of documents.

GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS UNIT

Candidates are developing skills for the use of transcribing text from dictated instructions in a legal office using a thematic approach. To convey the relevance and importance of audio work and the opportunity for employment, a visit could be made to a legal office to observe the work of a legal secretary. If the candidate is involved in work experience as part of their course, if possible this could take place in a legal office.

Candidates should produce work that would be acceptable in the workplace and be considered as work of a high standard. There should be emphasis on the candidate taking responsibility for the quality of the work produced and the importance of proofreading should be emphasised. Spell check and error correction techniques should be used throughout.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CORE SKILL DEVELOPMENT

This Unit provides opportunities for Core Skills development in Communication — written business documents, and Information and Communication Technology — use of word processor, email with attachment and integration of files.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

The assessments for both Outcomes for this Unit are open book under controlled, supervised conditions. The assessment should be thematic based on documents within one organisation.

There is no time limit for Outcome 1, but Outcome 2 must be completed within 1 hour 15 minutes.

In Outcome 1, on first submission the teacher/lecturer may point out a maximum of two errors per task, which should be corrected and resubmitted. On final submission there should be no errors.

In Outcome 2, on submission, eight errors are allowed overall.

Where candidates fail to meet the assessment criteria, re-assessment should follow using an alternative instrument of assessment.

An Assessment Support Pack (ASP) is available for this Unit.

DISABLED CANDIDATES AND/OR THOSE WITH ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering whether any reasonable adjustments may be required. Further advice can be found on our website www.sqa.org.uk/assessmentarrangements.
