- 1.1 Interpreting complex factors which have contributed to a historical development
- 1.2 Drawing a well-reasoned conclusion on the factors contributing to a historical development
- 1.3 Using detailed evidence to support a conclusion

If Units are taken as part of a Course, then the evidence for Outcome 1 may be presented in the Historical Study: Scottish or Historical Study: British Units.

Evidence Requirements for the Unit

Assessors should use their professional judgement, subject knowledge and experience, and understanding of their learners, to determine the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and the conditions and contexts in which they are used.

Evidence is required to show that the learner has met the Outcomes and Assessment Standards.

Learners may describe and comment on specific historical events but also historical themes such as heritage, change and continuity, and cause and effect. The sources used may be written, numerical, graphical, audio visual, pictorial or oral. Artefacts may also be used.

Assessment evidence can be drawn from a variety of activities and presented in a variety of formats, including, for example, presentations, posters, brief written responses to questions and participation in group tasks. All of the evidence does not need to be from the one activity, but can be assembled from a variety of tasks and assessments carried out during the Course.

Evidence may be presented for individual Outcomes or gathered for the Unit, Units or Course as a whole by combining assessment holistically.

Exemplification of assessment is provided in Unit Assessment Support.
Advice and guidance on possible approaches to assessment is provided in the Unit Support Notes.

Development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work

These must be built into the Unit where there are appropriate opportunities.

Further information on building in skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work is given in the Unit Support Notes.
