

Latin: Literary Appreciation (Advanced Higher) Unit

SCQF: level 7 (8 SCQF credit points)

Unit code: to be advised

Unit outline

The general aim of this Unit is to provide learners with the opportunity to develop the advanced language skills needed to understand, analyse and evaluate in depth complex literary texts in Latin and in English translation. Learners also develop knowledge and understanding of aspects of Roman culture.

Learners who complete this Unit will be able to:

- 1 Understand, analyse and evaluate in depth complex verse and/or prose texts in Latin and translated into English

This Unit is a mandatory Unit of the Advanced Higher Latin Course and is also available as a free-standing Unit. The Unit Specification should be read in conjunction with the Unit Support Notes, which provide advice and guidance on delivery, assessment approaches and development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work. Exemplification of the standards in this Unit is given in the National Assessment Resource.

The Course Assessment Specification for the Advanced Higher Latin Course gives further mandatory information on Course coverage for learners taking this Unit as part of the Advanced Higher Latin Course.

Recommended entry

Entry to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre. However, learners would normally be expected to have attained the skills, knowledge and understanding required by one or more of the following or equivalent qualifications and/or experience:

- ◆ Higher Latin Course or relevant component Units

Equality and inclusion

This Unit Specification has been designed to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to learning or assessment. The individual needs of learners should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment methods or considering alternative evidence. For further information, please refer to the Unit Support Notes.

Standards

Outcomes and assessment standards

Outcome 1

The learner will:

- 1 Understand, analyse and evaluate in depth complex verse and/or prose texts in Latin and translated into English by:
 - 1.1 Identifying and explaining main ideas and themes
 - 1.2 Identifying and explaining how literary techniques are used to convey meaning
 - 1.3 Communicating an appropriate critical response
 - 1.4 Identifying and explaining aspects of Roman culture

Evidence Requirements for the Unit

Assessors should use their professional judgement, subject knowledge and experience, and understanding of their learners, to determine the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and the conditions and contexts in which they are used.

For this Unit, learners will be required to provide evidence of understanding, analysing and evaluating in depth a range of complex verse and/or prose texts partly in Latin and partly translated into English. Learners will be required to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of a wide range of literary techniques and aspects of Roman culture.

Exemplification of assessment is provided in the National Assessment Resource. Advice and guidance on possible approaches to assessment is provided in the Unit Support Notes.

Development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work

It is expected that learners will develop broad, generic skills through this Unit. The skills that learners will be expected to improve on and develop through the Unit are based on SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work and drawn from the main skills areas listed below. These must be built into the Unit where there are appropriate opportunities.

1 Literacy

1.1 Reading

4 Employability, enterprise and citizenship

4.6 Citizenship

5 Thinking skills

5.3 Applying

5.4 Analysing and evaluating

Amplification of these is given in SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work. The level of these skills should be at the same SCQF level as the Unit and be consistent with the SCQF level descriptor. Further information on building in skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work is given in the Unit Support Notes.
