Health and Food Technology: Contemporary Food Issues with a Scottish Context (National 3)

SCQF: level 3 (6 SCQF credit points)

Unit code: H6NA 73

Unit outline

In this Unit, learners will develop an awareness of consumer food choices in Scotland. They will consider factors which may affect food choices and organisations which protect consumer interests. They will also develop knowledge of food labelling and how it helps consumers make informed food choices.

Learners who complete this Unit will be able to:

- 1 Describe consumer food choices

This Unit is an alternative mandatory Unit of the National 3 Health and Food Technology Course, an optional Unit in the Scottish Studies Award at SCQF level 3 and is also available as a free-standing Unit. The Unit Specification should be read in conjunction with the Unit Support Notes which provide advice and guidance on delivery, assessment approaches and development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work.

Recommended entry

Entry to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre. However, learners would normally be expected to have attained the skills, knowledge and understanding required by one or more of the following or equivalent qualifications and/or experience:

- ◆ National 2 Food, Health and Wellbeing Course or relevant component Units

In terms of prior learning and experience, relevant experiences and outcomes may also provide an appropriate basis for doing this Unit.

Equality and inclusion

This Unit Specification has been designed to ensure that there are no unnecessary barriers to learning or assessment. The individual needs of learners should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment methods or considering alternative evidence. For further information, please refer to the Unit Support Notes.

Standards

Outcomes and assessment standards

Outcome 1

The learner will:

1 Describe consumer food choices by:

- 1.1 Identifying factors which may affect consumers' choice of food
- 1.2 Identifying organisations which protect the interest of consumers
- 1.3 Describing, briefly, how information on food labels help consumers make informed choices

Evidence Requirements for the Unit

Assessors should use their professional judgement, subject knowledge and experience, and understanding of their learners, to determine the most appropriate ways to generate evidence and the conditions and contexts in which they are used.

Candidates will provide evidence that they have studied consumer food choices in Scotland including factors affecting consumer choices and organisations which protect consumers' interests.

Development of skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work

It is expected that learners will develop broad, generic skills through this Unit. The skills that learners will be expected to improve on and develop through the Unit are based on SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work and drawn from the main skills areas listed below. These must be built into the Unit where there are appropriate opportunities.

1 Literacy

1.1 Listening and talking

2. Numeracy

2.2 Money, time and measurement

3 Health and wellbeing

3.3 Physical wellbeing

4 Employability, enterprise and citizenship

4.6 Citizenship

5 Thinking skills

5.3 Applying

Amplification of these is given in SQA's Skills Framework: Skills for Learning, Skills for Life and Skills for Work. The level of these skills should be at the same SCQF level of the Unit and be consistent with the SCQF level descriptor. Further information on building in skills for learning, skills for life and skills for work is given in the Unit Support Notes.
