It is about responding to a situation by trying to defuse it and, when appropriate, leaving a threatening situation safely. It is also about reviewing the incident for recording and monitoring purposes.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Simulation is NOT permitted for any part of this unit.
The following forms of evidence ARE mandatory:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Direct Observation: Your assessor or an expert witness must observe you in real work activities which provide a significant amount of the performance criteria for most of the elements in this unit. For example how you were able to keep a safe distance in a violent or potentially violent situation and how you maintained a calm approach to the situation. Reflective Account/professional discussion: You should describe your actions in a particular situation and explain why you did things. For example how you worked with individuals to de-escalate a situation how you learned what to do and why the skills you learned are important. You will also have to describe when you would seek help and state what your agency policy and procedures are.
Competence of performance and knowledge could also be demonstrated using a variety of evidence from the following:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Questioning/professional discussion: May be used to provide evidence of knowledge, legislation, policies and procedures which cannot be fully evidenced through direct observation or reflective accounts. In addition the assessor/expert witness may also ask questions to clarify aspects of your practice. Expert Witness: A designated expert witness may provide direct observation of practice, questioning, professional discussion and feedback on reflective accounts. Witness Testimony: Can be a confirmation or authentication of the activities described in your evidence which your assessor has not seen. This could be provided by a work colleague or service user. Products: you may have recorded your observations of the situation in the incident/accident book or on specific incident forms prepared by your agency. Your assessor may be able to use this as evidence for your SVQ. You need not put confidential records in your portfolio, they can remain where they are normally stored and be checked by your assessor and internal verifier. If you do include them in your portfolio all names and identifying information must be removed to ensure confidentiality. These may also be assignments/projects: You may have been on a course for example, TCI, CALM, communication training, group work skills and have completed some assessment at the end of the course; you may be able to use this as evidence of knowledge.
