Stimulus C

Mum: What the hell've you been up to?
Alex: What did he say?
Mum: He said you got fired yesterday.
Alex: And?
Mum: And! What d'you mean, 'and'?
Alex: Did he say anything else?
Mum: Something about castanets.
Alex: Oh God!
Mum: Have you been nicking stuff from your work?
Alex: No.
Mum: What's that then, a leaving present?
Alex: Look . . .
Mum: Look nothing. I'm not having the polis at my door because of you. If you've got yourself into trouble you can get yourself out of here. I've warned you, you can pack your bags and . . .
Mum: Where are you going?
Alex: Eh?
Mum: Oh aye. Spain, is it? Costa del Crime n'that, eh?
Alex: Spain!
Mum: Castanets.
Alex: No. Look. I just need to go away for a while. Trust me.
Mum: About as far as I could throw you.
Alex: It's fine.
Mum: I'm not going through all that business again. D'you hear me?
Alex: I hear you. I have to go.
Mum: Just like his father.

General marking principles for National 5 Drama

This information is provided to help you understand the general principles you must apply when marking candidate responses to questions in this paper. These principles must be read in conjunction with the detailed marking instructions, which identify the key features required in candidate responses.

(a) Marks for each candidate response must always be assigned in line with these general marking principles and the detailed marking instructions for this assessment.

(b) Marking should always be positive. This means that, for each candidate response, marks are accumulated for the demonstration of relevant skills, knowledge and understanding: they are not deducted from a maximum on the basis of errors or omissions.

(c) Candidates may have performed a piece of text that is unknown to the marker, or based their answer on a devised performance. Markers should use their professional judgement.

(d) Candidates who do not respond to all aspects of a question cannot be awarded full marks.

(e) Candidates can answer Section 1 from the viewpoint of an actor, lighting designer, costume designer, make-up and hair designer, sound designer, set designer or props designer.

(f) Candidates are expected to use drama terminology throughout.

(g) In Section 2, candidates must base their drama on one of the stimuli.

(h) At this level, candidates are expected to justify and substantiate their responses, demonstrating a knowledge of drama. Marks should not be awarded for descriptive comment.

Overview
National 5 candidates are required to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of both process and performance.

Section 1 is designed to test candidates’ ability to evaluate their own work and the work of others.

Section 2 tests candidates’ ability to respond to stimuli and create their own piece of drama.
Marking instructions for each question

SECTION 1

These questions require candidates to give a personal evaluative response (not from a group perspective) of self and of others on a piece of work that they have been involved in or seen during the course, either as an actor or in a production role. This may be from the course assessment performance or another performance they have taken part in during the course.

The questions require candidates to demonstrate their reflection and evaluation skills.
