(t) Item number one.
Whilst in France you meet Sylvie. She talks about her job.

You now have one minute to study the questions for item number one.

(f) Bonjour, je m'appelle Sylvie. J'adore les langues étrangères et donc j'enseigne l'espagnol et l'allemand.
Je viens d'un petit village dans le sud de la France mais il y a deux ans j'ai trouvé un poste dans une école internationale à Paris.
Au début c'était un peu difficile car je ne connaissais personne et je trouvais la vie en ville trop bruyante. D'ailleurs, pendant les premiers mois je rentrais à la maison tous les week-ends.
Maintenant tout va beaucoup mieux. J'ai beaucoup d'amis et je sors régulièrement.
De plus j'adore mon travail. Les élèves sont en générale très sympa et je m'entends très bien avec mes collègues. Par contre il y a des inconvénients. Le métier de prof peut être parfois très stressant et on a beaucoup de cahiers à corriger.
J'ai toujours voulu parler d'autres langues que le français. Quand j'étais plus jeune on passait souvent nos vacances en Espagne et j'avais toujours envie de communiquer avec les espagnols.
Il y a beaucoup d'avantages à savoir parler une langue étrangère. On devient plus tolérant envers d'autres cultures, on a plus de chances de trouver du travail et bien sûr, apprendre une langue est vraiment amusant.

Item number two.

Martin, a young French student, speaks to his friend Julie about his weekend and school life.

You now have one minute to study the questions for item number two.

Bonjour Martin, ça va?

Salut Julie, non je ne vais pas très bien. Je viens de passer un très mauvais week-end. D'abord vendredi soir j'ai dû faire les courses avec ma mère, samedi après-midi j'ai dû garder mon petit frère et puis dimanche j'ai passé toute la journée à faire mes devoirs. Le week-end dernier était vraiment nul.

Que fais-tu normalement le week-end, Martin?

Eh bien normalement, j'aime faire la grasse matinée, sortir en ville avec mes copains et j'adore promener mon chien. Mais en ce moment l'école est ma priorité.

Pourquoi?

Parce que je vais passer mes examens le mois prochain mais parfois c'est dur de réviser chez moi avec un petit frère énervant à la maison.

Quelles matières fais-tu cette année?

En tout j'en ai neuf mais ma matière préférée est l'anglais. Le prof est vraiment compréhensif et nous aide lorsqu'on a des difficultés.

De plus comme la lecture est ma passion, j'aime lire les classiques de la littérature anglaise. J'aime aussi apprendre des choses sur l'histoire britannique.

Es-tu déjà allé en Angleterre?

Oui quand j'avais 13 ans, j'ai fait un échange scolaire à Manchester. J'ai trouvé l'école bien différente de mon école en France. Ce que j'ai surtout aimé était que les cours ne duraient que 50 minutes et les profs étaient moins strictes qu'en France.

Par contre une chose que je n'ai pas aimé c'était que la pause déjeuner était trop courte. Mais à part ça je me suis bien amusé.

Que veux-tu faire à l'avenir?

Je ne sais pas encore. Mais après l'école je vais surement me trouver un petit boulot pour financer mes études et peut-être faire un voyage avec mes amis. On verra.

Je te souhaite bonne chance avec tes examens et j'espère que le week-end prochain se passera mieux.

Merci Julie et à bientôt.

End of test.

Now look over your answers.

General marking principles for National 5 French Listening

This information is provided to help you understand the general principles you must apply when marking candidate responses to questions in this paper. These principles must be read in conjunction with the detailed marking instructions, which identify the key features required in candidate responses.

(a) Marks for each candidate response must always be assigned in line with these general marking principles and the detailed marking instructions for this assessment.

(b) Marking should always be positive. This means that, for each candidate response, marks are accumulated for the demonstration of relevant skills, knowledge and understanding: they are not deducted from a maximum on the basis of errors or omissions.

(c) If a specific candidate response does not seem to be covered by either the principles or detailed marking instructions, and you are uncertain how to assess it, you must seek guidance from your team leader.

(d) The marking instructions indicate the essential idea that a candidate should provide each answer.

(e) The answers for each question must come from the item.

(f) There are a number of supported marks across the two items. Where there are supported marks in the form of a grid, award zero marks where a candidate ticks all boxes.

(g) For questions that ask candidates to ‘state’ or ‘give’, candidates must give a brief, accurate response/name.
