Changes to documents in August and September

As part of our agreed schedule of planned changes to documents for session 2016–17, the following documents have been revised.

National 5 Course and Unit Support Notes

A slight amendment has been made in each of the sections under 'Added value-History assignment'. One example of an appropriate question for the assignment from the Scottish, British and European and World units has been provided to reflect the advice in the 2016 National 5 Course Report, namely the recommendation that assignment questions have a clear isolated factor.

Higher Coursework

As a result of post-examination analysis, minor amendments have been made to the assignment marking instructions. The course assessment task and the general assessment information documents have been updated to reflect changes in the distribution and allocation of marks in the areas of analysis and evaluation. The number of marks for Section B (Analysing different factors contributing to an event or development) has been reduced from eight marks to seven. The number of marks for Section C (Evaluating factors to develop a line of argument) has been increased from four to five. The detailed marking instructions can be found in the coursework assessment task on SQA's secure site.

Higher question paper

The detailed marking instructions for Section 2: British and Section 3: European and World have been amended to reflect a change in the distribution of marks for analysis in the 20-mark extended response. A maximum of three marks (reduced from four marks) will be awarded for comments which analyse aspects within individual factors, ie for more straightforward analytical comments.

The marking instructions in the specimen question paper have been updated to reflect these changes.

Advanced Higher Coursework

The course assessment task and the general assessment information documents have been updated to emphasise the need for candidates to make reference to primary sources in their project-dissertations.

The Notification of Changes spreadsheets have been updated to reflect the latest changes to documents. You can view these spreadsheets at www.sqa.org.uk/ngsubjectchanges

Further information and guidance

Changes to National Courses

In September 2016, the Deputy First Minister announced that unit assessments will be removed from National 5, Higher and Advanced Higher courses. These changes will be implemented over a three-year period and we have started to review how each course is assessed.

What's next for Subject Review Reports?

Following the Scottish Government decision to make changes to unit assessment in National Courses, we are reviewing current activities with regard to the Subject Review Reports and associated guidance notes.

Completed review report actions for 2016–17 will remain. Actions for 2017–18 onwards may be cancelled or rescheduled in light of the work associated with the revisions to National Courses, especially those relating to unit assessments.

Further information and subject-specific updates will continue to be communicated via Centre News and the subject web pages.

Removal of exemplar question papers

Exemplar question papers were created as a revision resource for learners during the implementation of the new Higher and Advanced Higher National Qualifications. As we now have two years' worth of past papers for new Higher as well as a specimen question paper for each subject with an exam, the exemplar question papers will be removed from our website in the week commencing 24 October 2016. Associated guidance documents and guidance on the use of past-paper questions documents will also be removed at this time.

The Advanced Higher exemplar question papers and associated guidance will remain for session 2016–17 and will be removed from the website in July 2017.

Advanced Higher Dissertation titles

The exemplar dissertation titles list has been updated and can be found on the Advanced Higher History subject page, under the Coursework Information tab. The titles list is for exemplification purposes; candidates may select their own title and if they wish they can submit the proposed title to SQA for feedback on its suitability. Please note that, where proposed titles are being submitted, these must be submitted by 1 November 2016. For further information please refer to the Advanced Higher subject page. Further information on the marking criteria for the dissertation can be found on SQA's secure website.

Course Reports

We strongly recommend that you read the annual Course Reports for the subject(s) and levels you are teaching. These reports are produced following the annual diet of exams and are published by the end of October. The reports provide informed and valuable comment on the assessment for each component in the course, and include a summary of:

- candidate performance in the course assessment
- areas in which candidates performed well
- areas which candidates found demanding

The reports also contain advice on preparing future candidates, and statistical data relating to grade boundaries. Course Reports will be available from the relevant subject pages of our website at www.sqa.org.uk/nqsubjects

Verification Key Messages

Key messages from rounds 1 and 2 of verification in session 2015–16 are available on the relevant subject pages of our website at www.sqa.org.uk/nqsubjects. You can access them from the 'Verification and Course Reports' tab.

Looking ahead to session 2016–17

National Qualification Support Team

Ahead of the autumn meeting of the History National Qualification Support Team (NQST) we would like to add to the existing membership.

NQSTs are subject-specific stakeholder consultation groups that feed back to SQA on the internal and external assessment of National Qualifications. These groups communicate via secure online discussion forums as well as an annual face-to-face meeting.

For more information and to express an interest in joining the team, visit www.sqa.org.uk/nqst

Marker recruitment opportunities for 2017

We are now accepting marker applications from teaching professionals to contribute to the 2017 exam diet. If you are interested in joining us as a marker, please visit the appointee opportunities section of our website where you will find a marker advert for all subjects and levels, with details of the role.

Becoming a marker helps to increase your awareness of the demands of course assessment and provides excellent professional and personal development.

Please check www.sqa.org.uk/appointees regularly for other appointee opportunities which may be of interest to you.

Understanding Standards programme

Our Understanding Standards programme will continue in the coming session and will include nominee training events, subject-specific course events and the publication of further Understanding Standards materials.

Understanding Standards course events 2016–17

We are running a programme of subject-specific Understanding Standards events from October 2016 until January 2017. The majority of these events will focus on the standards required for course assessment at Advanced Higher.

For more information and to book your place, visit www.sqa.org.uk/nqevents. Please note that for each subject there is a maximum of one place per centre.

Understanding Standards materials

Understanding Standards materials contain real examples of candidate evidence from course and unit assessments, along with a commentary that explains why the evidence has or has not met the assessment standards. These materials are a really useful resource for helping you to strengthen your understanding of the standards required for assessment.

We will continue to publish new Understanding Standards materials throughout the coming session and you can access them from the following locations:

SQA Understanding Standards website (www.understandingstandards.org.uk)	SQA secure website (https://secure.sqa.org.uk)
Candidate evidence and commentaries for externally assessed components of course assessment (including question papers).	Candidate evidence and commentaries for unit assessment and internally assessed components of course assessment.

You can arrange access to our secure website through your SQA co-ordinator. Any materials downloaded from our secure website must be stored securely and treated as confidential.

Extra support to help you deliver your courses

Local authority continuing professional development (CPD)

We will continue to offer subject-specific CPD support at a local authority level, subject to request. This involves an experienced SQA appointee providing advice and guidance on any areas of concern that are not already addressed by the Understanding Standards programme.

Please note that CPD requests should be made by the appropriate representative from the local authority, independent school or college. For each request we will agree with the local authority the content to be covered and the most appropriate way to deliver the support, eg in person, by webinar or by video conference/teleconference.

Subject Implementation Manager

Denise Dunlop is the Subject Implementation Manager for History. Denise has a thorough understanding of the national standards and extensive knowledge of the curricular areas developed for the NQ History courses at all levels, having gained her experience through many years of teaching in schools in Aberdeenshire and through membership of SQA marking teams. Denise will be continuing to support centres in the assessment and delivery of the new qualifications and will be delivering webinars focusing on course assessment and unit assessment in NQ History courses at all levels.
