Introduction to the Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work GD6C 23

The Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work is based on the 2008 National Occupational Standards (NOS) and will replace the existing Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work, based on the previous version of the NOS. The current SVQs end their accreditation period at the end of 2010.

The Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work has been developed in conjunction with an Expert Group drawn from across the Youth Work sector, statutory and voluntary, in Scotland. The qualification structure was consulted upon during late summer 2010.

Qualification structure

The Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work will comprise five mandatory units and three optional units. A maximum of one optional unit can be selected from Group A (which comprises the four Level 2 SVQ Youth Work mandatory units) and two to be selected from Group B (comprising four units). Where a candidate has already completed the Level 2 SVQ in Youth Work, credit transfer of one unit at Level 2 will be permitted.

In order to achieve the Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work, eight units must be completed.

Mandatory units

Candidates must complete the following units:

Unit YW 17 Provide support to other workers

Source: Youth Work Standard 5.3.1

What this unit is about

This unit is about providing support to youth workers, including those for whom you have no managerial responsibility.

Who this unit is for

This unit is for team leaders and for youth workers involved in working with others to provide youth work services, providing them with support and advice but without necessarily having line management responsibilities.

This is an optional unit in the Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work

Elements

YW17.1 Provide support to other workers

Evidence requirements

You must provide your assessor with evidence for all the Performance and all aspects of the Knowledge. Evidence derived from a candidate's workplace performance is a mandatory requirement for all aspects of this unit.

Assessment guidance

The primary assessment location will be the workplace. The primary evidence source will be activities naturally occurring in the workplace wherever possible.

Although all the performance and knowledge requirements must be met, assessment evidence wherever possible should be holistic. Competence should therefore, wherever possible, be demonstrated across elements and units that naturally link together in terms of whole job operations.

Unit YW18/MSCE6 Ensure health and safety requirements are met in your area of responsibility

Source: Youth Work Standard 5.4.2 (MSC E6 imported from the Management Standards Centre (MSC) suite of standards)

What this unit is about

This unit is concerned with managing the overall health and safety process in your area of responsibility. It is intended to go beyond meeting health and safety legislation and move towards a situation where health and safety considerations are firmly embedded in the planning and decision making processes and the 'culture' of your area of responsibility.

Who this unit is for

This unit is for first line managers and middle managers.

This is an optional unit in the Level 3 SVQ in Youth Work.
