1 Introduction

This is the combined Arrangements Document for the new National Progression Awards in Sports Coaching at SCQF levels 4, 5 and 6, which were validated in 2006 and 2007. This document includes: background information on the development of the Group Award, its aims, guidance on access, details of the Group Award structure, and guidance on delivery.

The new National Progression Awards (NPA) in Sports Coaching are awarded by SQA. These awards have been specifically developed to align with the United Kingdom Coaching Certificate (UKCC) which was (and continues to be) developed by Sports Coach UK under instructions (and funded by) Central government. The current intention is that in due course, all coaching may be regulated and a license may be required. The document accepted by all four home countries 'UK Vision for Coaching' (page 7) states that by 2012 'Coaching will have.... a regulated and licensed structure'. While this is some way in the future, it is important that coaching in Scotland moves towards a position of readiness. This must align with United Kingdom requirements and this development is (most significantly) supported by the (then) Scottish Executive and Scottish Government. See Appendix 1 for this information.

These awards will encompass both the Knowledge requirements and the Competence requirements of the UKCC certificates at UKCC levels 1, (SCQF level 4) level 2 (SCQF level 2) and level 3 (SCQF level 6).

This qualification is one of a number of NPAs offered by SQA that are designed to meet the changing needs in vocational education and training. SQA has undertaken wide consultation with the sector to identify what kind of qualification was required. A gap in the market for a shorter, more manageable introductory qualification was identified.

The validation of SCQF levels 4 and 5 preceded that of SCQF level 6 and this document is designed to show the structure for all three levels, as the structure is progressive in nature with each level being built upon the competencies, skills and experiences of the preceding level.

Mapped against the following principles, the UK-wide structure will in time be a five level framework (that remains the current plan) and will:

- ◆ be coach and participant centred
- ◆ be based on national occupational standards
- ◆ offer opportunities for vertical and horizontal progression
- ◆ feature quality assurance systems and procedures
- ◆ be flexible to meet the demands of sport
- ◆ be centrally co-ordinated
- ◆ be owned by sport
- ◆ build on existing good practice

Governing Bodies for sport will have their own policies on various issues. These may well be appropriate while still meeting the requirements of the Units and the Award. These issues may include:

Selection of candidates: Access requirements: Legal and Ethical codes: Modes of delivery: Tutor and assessor requirements: Assessment material: Methodology.

All of these may vary according to the specific needs of each sport and the requirements nationally of each governing body. The governing bodies referred to will be considered to be those recognised by Sport Scotland or any successor body.

2 Rationale for the development of the Group Awards

Background information

The 'Coaching Task Force' Final Report (July 2002) concluded that in the UK, coach education and qualification schemes varied enormously in terms of quality of content, delivery and assessment, both within and across sports.

This lack of a coherent system has resulted in an inconsistent approach to coach education and qualification programmes. There is no equivalence of qualifications across sport, and no consistency in quality assurance procedures. Inevitably this has resulted in the lack of a recognised professional framework for coaching, and subsequently a poor public recognition of coaches and coaching. Central Government gave the task of requiring sport governing bodies across the UK (four home countries where possible) to Sports Coach UK (SCUK) overseen by the Sector Skills Council (Skills Active). Detailed and lengthy research was carried out the SCUK and numerous meetings and events were held over several years as the five stage plan was developed. Governing bodies and awarding bodies worked together (and indeed continue to do so) to ensure success.

What will the United Kingdom Coaching Certificate (UKCC) be?

Mapped against the following principles, the UKCC will be a five level framework and will:

- ◆ be coach and participant centred
- ◆ be based on national standards
- ◆ offer opportunities for vertical and horizontal progression
- ◆ feature quality assurance systems and procedures
- ◆ be flexible to meet the needs of sport
- ◆ be centrally coordinated
- ◆ be owned by sport
- ◆ build on existing good practice

Which sports will be included in the UKCC?

The Department for Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) announced that 31 sports had endorsed the UKCC, the new national qualification for coaching.

The 31 sports are:

Angling, archery, athletics, badminton, basketball, bowls, canoeing, cricket, cycling, equestrian, football, golf, gymnastics, hockey, judo, karate, mountaineering, movement/dance, netball, orienteering, rounders, rowing, rugby league, rugby union, sailing, squash, swimming, table tennis, tennis, triathlon and volleyball.

DCMS announced the 22 sports which will be part of the first wave to implement the new NCC (UKCC). Of these 22, six sports — athletics, cricket, rowing, rugby union, swimming and triathlon — will be fast tracked, with support from sports coach UK, to report back on how it is working and help to modify the process to ensure it works best. These sports should be in a position to offer UKCC qualifications.

How will the UKCC work?

Accreditation will be via an endorsement of coaching qualifications that reflect the underpinning principles of the United Kingdom Coaching Certificate. This endorsement process will also enable sports to develop and deliver qualifications that meet the needs of their sport.

The SQA was invited as Scotland's National Awarding body, to work with Scottish Governing Bodies for Sport, together with Sport Scotland and the Sector Skills Council to create a qualifications structure which could be used by Sport in Scotland to access the UKCC award and meet the requirements National for Endorsement. This was supported by the then Scottish Executive (now government).

Background to Rationale

- (i) SQA has been part of the group developing the structure nationwide for a period of several years. Each 'home nation' has had to address a number of issues to try to ensure that the award was genuinely a UK-wide award but still took account of the individual nature of the devolved nature (structure, funding etc) of Scottish Education and coaching and different legal systems.
- (ii) SQA also along with SportScotland, The Scottish Rugby Union (SRU), Sports Coach UK and SkillsActive, formed a 'Scottish Task group' to take the development forward. A number of meetings and events were held and these included numerous events at which most Scottish/National Sports Governing (S/NGB) bodies were represented. The team circulated draft copies of the proposed structures to a substantial number of S/NGBs and accepted feedback. This has been a most positive process and was a development appreciated by all concerned in that perhaps for the first time, sports, the SSC, S/NGBs, SportScotland and SQA were seen to be working towards a shared vision. In addition meetings with individual sports have been held to support the development of sport specific material. These include Badminton, Cricket, Equestrian, Gymnastics, Hockey, Rugby and Swimming. Other sports have continue to move toward UK wide endorsement by SCUUK and in Scotland Scottish Governing Bodies for sport (SGBs) seek to work with the new NPA award at SCQF levels 4, 5 and 6 to permit UKCC endorsement.

Rationale

The development of the award has therefore been driven by a perceived and identified need (by central government) to create a structure for sports coaching within which sports governing bodies can professionalise what is mainly a volunteer work force in line with current European-wide trends.

The fact that London was awarded the Olympic Games (2012) and the current success of Glasgow in hosting the Commonwealth Games (2014) has further focussed the need to develop a unified coaching structure which is truly UK-wide.

The (then) Scottish Executive gave their clear support of this central government initiative as have all the home countries. It is recognised that the largest group of leaders and coaches in sport in general are in fact volunteers. Many are enthusiastic and knowledgeable but have no formal qualification. There has been no standardisation across sports in regard to standards, competence or knowledge. It is in an effort to address these issues (which have particular significance in terms of working with young people and vulnerable adults), that this initiative has been born.

The SQA Units have been developed along-side and with the full support of the stakeholders involved and who are keen to see the award being used by a number of the governing bodies for sport and improve and ensure the quality and standard of those who aspire to coach.

At all three levels the awards have to be accessible to coaches who may well be volunteers. There must be no unnecessary barriers to achievement while at the same time ensuring that the awards fully meets the requirements of the Governing Bodies for sport UK wide, the needs of Sport Scotland (or any successor body), the SQA (the Awarding Body) and be eligible for UKCC endorsement. It will build upon previous experience and allow progression to the next level, if a candidate so wishes, while at the same time being a significant achievement in its own right.

The awards will form a hierarchical structure with the knowledge and competence each level being the assumed as the 'starting point' for the next Unit and award in the hierarchy.

The Units and Awards have been devised to meet the need of the coaching industry from the outset. Support has been given by all governing bodies for all sports included and Sport Scotland. See Appendix 2 for further details.

The current plan UK-wide is to develop two more levels at around SCQF 8/9 and also 11/12 but that is still under consideration. The opportunity for further progress will clearly exist.

The Individual Units for each level has been mapped to the current National Occupational Standards and this has been supported by the SSC. The mapping is included in Appendices 3, 4 and 5.

Market research summary

It is important to understand that the drive for the development was initiated by central government. Substantial funding was made available through DCMS and the contract for the UK-wide development was awarded to SportsCoachUK. They in turn worked with the SSC (SkillsActive) and UK sports governing bodies.

This began in 2002 and the SQA as Scotland Awarding body was a partner in the process.

The research was conducted in a variety of ways but mostly by large and small events in London, Leeds, Ireland, Wales, Edinburgh, Glasgow and other venues.

Sports governing bodies from all four home countries were actively involved to ensure that they would buy into the process.

The SQA working with SportScotland, SkillsActive, SportsCoachUK and Scottish Governing Bodies (SGB), formed a task group to ensure that the needs of sport in Scotland were fully met.

The group met frequently over this extended period and there were frequent large and small scale events where the views of SGBs were fully recognised. The SGBs mandated the task group to develop a unitised structure for Scotland which mapped to the UKCC needs in order that they could work with SQA as their awarding body.

At each and every stage, draft Units and proposals were circulated to SGBs and this informed the next stage of development of the Units and award.

The process has so far been almost 5 years in development and is still on-going.

As stated the research took the form of live meetings conducted by SportsCoachUK, SportScotland and SQA (in Scotland) with the support of SkillsActive as the representative of the employers who have all given their full support for the process in Scotland.

- 2 To develop analytical skills in order to inform future planning.
- 3 To further develop and refine skills in communication.
- 4 To develop the ability to utilise feedback to inform future plans.
- 5 To develop strategies which will allow the goals of a programme to be met in a safe and ethical coaching environment.

3.2 Other aims and future objectives

- 1 To encourage candidates to continue with their CPD.
- 2 To allow progression where desired, to the next level (UKCC 4) SCQF 8/9 and SCQF 10/11: these levels being under development and discussion nationally.
- 3 To give the opportunity for candidates to continue to S/NVQ award level and utilise evidence and experience from previously undertaken work.
- 4 To further explore links between S/NGBs and Further Education this ensures the place of the S/NGB as key partners.

3.3 Target groups

SCQF level 4 — Intermediate 1 — UKCC level 1

The awards form a progression route and are considered suitable at SCQF level 4, for a person who aspires to be a coach and wishes to learn by assisting the coaching process. The candidate at this level may be still at school but has a keen interest in sport or may have long since left school, be interested or involved in coaching but has never formalised his or her qualification. This level will lead to skills development in the coaching process and allow the development of relevant skills and competencies. This may be school leavers, HNC/HND candidates, adults involved in sport and leading activity. This can even lead to work on a contractual basis at this level although again, many will remain volunteer workers.

SCQF level 5 — Intermediate 2 — UKCC level 2

At this level the candidates will be expected to already have completed or will have demonstrated the skills and knowledge of the previous level of award.

It will be suitable therefore for candidates who have moved or wish to move towards independent working and will allow the development of a higher level of autonomy but still have support accessible. Candidates will learn about making best use of other professional and colleagues to support the process of coaching. Again there will be no barriers to achievement apart from the requirement that candidates will already have experience of the activity and the coaching of the activity. At this level, the candidates will learn to work independently but still make use of other professionals to support their client(s).

SCQF level 6 — Higher — UKCC level 3

At this level, candidates will upon entry be assumed to either already hold the previous level of award, or have the skills and knowledge the previous level requires.

Coaches at this level will be more experienced and be capable of supporting other less experienced coaches and colleagues and candidates therefore will require sufficient experience of coaching to allow this process to take place. The award therefore is suitable for more experienced coaches.

For all levels, selection of candidates is ultimately at the discretions of the centre delivering the Units and award.

3.4 Employment opportunities

There are many types of opportunities but as previously indicated, most people involved in coaching are either not paid at all or are paid session rates. Working as a either a aid employee or working in a sports club as a volunteer, still places the same obligations on the leader or coach and it would be wrong to assume that the competencies of the volunteer were in some way inferior to those of the paid worker. Both are essential members of the sports coaching community and make essential contributions to the process nationally.

Coaches are required by Sports Clubs for all sporting activities and all 31 of the sports listed under Section 2, clearly state that they require more coaches and helpers at all levels.

Currently, Local authorities in Scotland require a number of coaches for various sports for session work and these coaches will require a recognised qualification. These awards now fulfil that requirement and if in time a licence is mandatory, these awards may well become an 'essential' one for insurance purposes. Sports have all given this their full attention and have worked log and hard to make the new system work for the benefit of all sport.

3.5 Links to SVQ and links to HNC/HND

The NPA awards have been developed as indicated in the Appendices 3, 4 and 5 to align with and build upon NOS. These same standards have been the basis of the HNC/HND awards in Sports Coaching with Development of Sport and the SVQ at level 2 and 3 in Coaching.

There is therefore a clear opportunity for candidates to build upon the awards and move in either direction (toward or from) each of the awards.

Candidates doing so may well be able to bring APL with them and this has already taken place for some sports involved in the development of these awards.

4 Access to Group Awards

Candidates do not require any formal entry qualifications, although Scottish/National Governing Bodies may wish to set a minimum entry requirement. It is anticipated that candidates will have achieved the level below this award before undertaking this level. However candidates clearly must have an active involvement in coaching of sport. At SCQF level 4 it is expected that all will have had involvement in the coaching process at a supported level and are keen to develop their coaching skills and personal knowledge to a higher level with the support of the S/NGB. It will be suitable mainly for those working in a volunteer capacity but it is worth noting that this represents over 90% of those involved in sport in a coaching capacity.

At subsequent levels the preceding level of knowledge or skills will be assumed and while it is not a requirement of SQA that the previous level has been achieved, the preceding level of competencies clearly will have to be achieved even so.

4.1 Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) (Scotland) Act 2007

Delivers must ensure that where candidates are to be or could be working with children or any group covered by legislation they fully adhere to the requirements of these provisions.

4.2 Age Discrimination Legislation

As with the above section, current legislation must be considered in this respect.

5 Group Awards structure

Due to the fact that this document is designed to address the requirements of three different levels of NPA award, each covering a separate sport, the codes for those current at the time of publication are contained in This is available for each award in Appendices 7, 8 and 9

This list may well be subject to additions during the life of this document.

5.1 Framework

SCQF level 4 — Intermediate 1 — UKCC level 1

For SCQF level 4, the codes are contained in Appendix 7 as stated above however the structure is given below. Each sport follows an identical structure.

Unit title	Code	SCQF credit points	SCQF level	SQA credit value
Promoting Safe and Ethical Sport: [Sport name]	App 7	3	4	0.5
Prepare for the Delivery of a Coaching Activity: [Sport name]	App 7	3	4	0.5
Conduct and review the delivery of a coaching activity: [Sport name]	App 7	6	4	1.0

SCQF level 5 — Intermediate 2 — UKCC level 2

For SCQF level 5 the codes are contained in Appendix 8 as stated above however the structure is given below. Each sport follows an identical structure.

Unit title	Code	SCQF credit points	SCQF level	SQA credit value
Plan and Prepare a Series of Coaching Sessions: [Sport name]	App 8	6	5	1.0
Coach Participants and Develop Personal Practice: [Sport name]	App 8	6	5	1.0

SCQF level 6 — Higher — UKCC level 3

For SCQF level 6, the codes are contained in Appendix 9 as stated above however the structure is given below. Each sport follows an identical structure.

Unit title	Code	SCQF credit points	SCQF level	SQA credit value
Analyse Participants' Needs and Plan a Coaching Programme: (Sport Name) (SCQF level 6)	App 9	6	6	1.0
Manage a Coaching Environment: (Sport Name) (SCQF level 6)	App 9	6	6	1.0
Manage and Develop Personal Coaching Programmes and Practice: (Sport Name) (SCQF level 6)	App 9	6	6	1.0
Deliver a coaching programme: (Sport Name) (SCQF level 6)	App 9	6	6	1.0

The awards are progressive in nature rather than forming a true hierarchical structure as each level builds upon the previous level of skill, knowledge and competence. For this reason, it is important that candidates achieve all the Units for the level of the Group Award being undertaken. Units do not necessarily cover the same ground as the preceding level.

5.2 Mapping information

Due to the extended nature of the mapping which has been supported by SCUUK and the SSC it is given in Appendices 3, 4 and 5.

This ensures that the Units covers both SQA requirements for mapping to the NOS and also shows how and where the individual Units map to the nationally agreed endorsement criteria for the UKCC award.

All three levels of the awards are designed to be based upon the NOS standards and awards at SVQ levels 1, 2 and 3 for Sport and Recreation (at level 1) and coaching at levels 2 and 3. These National Occupational Standards can be found on Skills Active's website and SQA web-site for the award information.

5.3 Articulation, professional recognition and credit transfer

The awards allow natural progression if desired while being a significant achievement in its own right. The coaching structure in the UK is under considerable review and this is expected to become the de facto standard by which licensing may take place. As such this has been embraced by sports not only in Scotland but UK wide.

5.4 Core Skills opportunities

There are opportunities at each of the three levels, for candidates to develop aspects of Core Skills. While these are not embedded, there will be many possibilities even so and the list is not intended to be an exhaustive one. See Appendix 6 for further information on Core Skill opportunities.

6 Approaches to delivery and assessment

6.1 Delivery modes

The structures of the awards are suited to delivery by a variety of methods. Some sports may wish to undertake a major part of the delivery over a continuous period of many days. Candidates may be given out work for home study prior to attending the Course itself and be questioned during the Course. Some may deliver over a number of weekends or separate days.

These awards will take time to deliver and assess due to the fact that candidates are required to refine and develop skills and knowledge. It is envisaged that candidates will be assessed over a period of time and supported in their development over a period of time as well.

At SCQF level 4, it is envisaged that delivery may be shorter and that candidates will have carried out pre-course work to ensure that they are familiar with the key rules and relevant codes for the sport.

At SCQF level 5 and 6, delivery and subsequent assessment is likely to take place over longer periods to ensure that the candidate has the time to acquire the skill and knowledge needed and display competence over an appropriate period of time.

6.2 Assessment approaches

Scottish Governing bodies have worked together with their home country counterparts and the SQA has supported the SGB to develop both support material and assessment material appropriate to the sport and its required level.

All NPAs are internally assessed and internally verified (ie verified by the centre) and externally verified (by SQA).

SQA working with individual SGBs will support the production of assessment exemplars for these awards as is the norm for other SQA qualifications. Centres will be able to use these materials to develop their own assessment instruments, which SQA will, on request, verify prior to use with candidates.

In general there are three key stages to carrying out assessment:

- ◆ planning assessment and designing the assessment instruments
- ◆ collecting and assembling evidence — through tests, assignments, observation, etc
- ◆ making and recording assessment decisions

Some of these stages will occur simultaneously in the natural course of events. For example collecting, judging assessment evidence and recording assessment decisions can often be completed at the same time.

For the award at SCQF level 4, the likely order of delivery would be Promoting Safe and Ethical Sport:[Sport name], followed logically by Prepare for the Delivery of a Coaching Activity: [Sport name] and then Conduct and Review the Delivery of a Coaching Activity: [Sport name]. It follows that in order to 'deliver' first you must prepare your material and before that you must have sufficient knowledge to make the plan one that is safe.

Centres may wish to give candidates pre-delivery work to ensure that this knowledge has some basis and for each sport there will be differences in their codes and requirements. Candidates may be able to provide strong evidence of competence quickly if they already have a sound level of experience prior to delivery.

For SCQF level 5 again the delivery order is likely to be similar in that candidates will have to plan before they deliver. Suggested order is therefore Plan and Prepare a Series of Coaching Sessions: [Sport name] followed by Coach Participants and Develop Personal Practice: [Sport name].

With regard to SCQF level 6, the order is less clear although again candidates will need to cover their 'plan' stage before the 'do' stage and then the 'review' stage.

Possible order is therefore Analyse Participants' Needs and Plan a Coaching Programme: [Sport Name] (SCQF level 6), Manage a Coaching Environment: [Sport Name] (SCQF level 6), Manage and Develop Personal Coaching Programmes and Practice: [Sport Name] (SCQF level 6), Deliver a coaching programme: [Sport Name] (SCQF level 6).

For all levels it should be noted that there is a strong recommendation that Units are not generally delivered in isolation but that as far as is possible, an integrated approach to both delivery and assessment is used to enhance the total candidate experience.

Due to the practical nature of many of the assessments for all these Units and levels, it is unlikely that e-assessment will be appropriate although it could be possible for some of the knowledge aspects. Some of the Underpinning knowledge of the legal and ethical issue could for example be delivered and assessed in this way but even so, assessors will need to be able to ensure the practical application of this knowledge in a real coaching environment. Governing bodies already hold substantial amounts of material and more is available from SportScotland sources supported by SQA.

6.3 Tutor and Assessor roles

The tutor of a Course may also carry out some of the assessment. Delivering centres will wish to ensure that their tutors are appropriately trained to deliver the award.

It is a requirement for this award, that assessors are recognised as being acceptable by the S/NGB for the sport in question and that the S/NGB is recognised by SportScotland. It would be necessary for this to be confirmed at the time of specific award approval and at each external verification visit. Tutors and Assessors may have undergone a recognised Coach Education Tutor Award as recognised by (eg) SportScotland, S/NGBs or SCUK. Assessors must also be 'operationally competent' and have evidence of CPD. The SQA has developed an appropriate recognised award in conjunction with the stakeholders already involved in this development. Endorsement of the UK Coaching Certificate is held by the SGB and it is for this reason that the assessor must be recognised by the SGB.

The role of the tutor is to:

- ◆ guide and support the candidates during the delivery
- ◆ facilitate the process to allow the candidate to achieve the required competence
- ◆ support and guide the candidate during the gathering of evidence

The Assessor may also do some of the Course delivery or may be another person not involved in the delivery as a tutor.

The Assessor must as stated be recognised as an appropriate assessor by the governing body (recognised in turn by SportScotland) and also be an appropriate person to assess the candidate at the level of the award. Assessors must be familiar with the requirements of the award (at the level required) and be 'operationally competent' and have evidence of CPD. Assessors may have attended an approved Course run by (eg) SportScotland or SCUUK. There are also SQA Assessor awards which are suitable and are based upon the existing A1 and A2 standards.

The role of the assessor in the assessment process is to:

- ◆ ensure that the candidates are ready for assessment
- ◆ identify opportunities to carry out assessments, agree an assessment plan and set flexible target dates with the candidate
- ◆ work with the candidate to collect evidence of achievement
- ◆ assess evidence and make decisions about the candidate's achievement
- ◆ record assessment decisions and keep records
- ◆ provide feedback to the candidate
- ◆ liaise with the Internal Verifier

The Internal Verifier

The Internal Verifier must be a person not directly involved with the delivery or assessment of the Course being verified. The verifier must also be knowledgeable about SQA procedures and the requirements of the Unit and award and 'operationally competent'.

The role of the Internal Verifier is to:

- ◆ help assessors to prepare for, and standardise, assessments
- ◆ help standardise the judgement of candidate evidence
- ◆ support the assessors by offering guidance and advice
- ◆ co-ordinate the appeals procedure

See advice in Section 7.

The External Verifier

The role of the SQA External Verifier is to make sure that national standards are being met in all centres. External verification is carried out in a number of ways, including:

- ◆ centrally — with assessment instruments and candidates' work being verified by a team of external verifiers in our offices
- ◆ visiting — to view practical work or activities or where the assessment evidence is not easily transportable

External verifiers monitor the assessment process, verify the assessment decisions of assessors and internal verifiers, and gather feedback on the operation of the award. They can also discuss and help resolve issues causing concern and provide clarification of SQA's requirements.

Additional information on assessment can be found in the SQA publication: Guide to Assessment.

7 General information for centres

Candidates with disabilities and/or additional support needs

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for Units. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).

Internal and external verification

All instruments of assessment used within this/these Group Award(s) should be internally verified, using the appropriate policy within the centre and the guidelines set by SQA.

External verification will be carried out by SQA to ensure that internal assessment is within the national guidelines for these qualifications.

Further information on internal and external verification can be found in SQA's Guide to Assessment and Quality Assurance (www.sqa.org.uk).

8 General information for candidates

SCQF level 4 — Intermediate 1 — UKCC level 1

At this level you will be expected to be knowledgeable about the main rules, laws and control procedures of your own sport. It is anticipated that you will have gained this knowledge and have a keen interest in coaching to start with.

Before the Course begins you may be asked to study the code of conduct or ethics for your sport. During delivery you will put this into a practical setting while you work under some direction. You will be supported in the process of developing sessions and delivering part of a session. You are not expected to be solely in charge although it is recognised that some sports make close supervision very hard due to their nature. Even so your tutor will explain the process in detail.

You will learn how to plan parts of a session and how to deliver followed by a review of the session. This is more commonly known as 'Plan — Do — Review'. This underpins virtually all coaching. Assessment is mainly in the form of a log book but your assessor will give you guidance and feedback on each stage of your progress. You are encouraged to consider advancing your skills and if appropriate, move to the next level in due course.

SCQF level 5 — Intermediate 2 — UKCC level 2

At this level you will be considered to have gained good experience on coaching with support and are ready to accept greater responsibility and you will learn how to plan in more detail. You will gain further insight into the process of coaching and further develop skills in evaluation. Delivery and assessment will take place over a longer period to allow your development and to ensure that you are safe and competent to work on your own with those you coach. As with the previous level you are encouraged to progress in the coaching structure and to take your knowledge and skill to the next level if you can.

SCQF level 6 — Higher — UKCC level 3

At this level, you will have considerable responsibility and autonomy for the development of your own coaching material and delivery styles. You will also have to demonstrate your ability to work with other less experienced coaches and offer guidance and assist them with their coaching development.

There are three components:

- 1 Practical assignments: The purpose of this award is to ensure your competence in the coaching process. Assessments are intended to be completed in the coaching environment as far as is possible. The use of simulation is permitted in some circumstances but still within a 'real' sports environment and is stated within the Evidence Requirements of each Unit.
- 2 Test of knowledge and understanding: The Knowledge and Understanding (K&U) component is broadly based on the underpinning knowledge contained within the NOS for Sport and Recreation at SVQ level 3 in Coaching and the award structure has been mapped against these by SkillsActive (the Sector Skills Council). Knowledge and Understanding may be assessed by the use of logbooks, assignments, observation checklists and/or questioning as required by the needs of each individual sport.
- 3 Review the process to inform the next stage of development. This will include aspects of:
  - ◆ analysing participants' performance, needs and aspirations
  - ◆ monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of coaching programmes
  - ◆ managing a safe coaching environment
  - ◆ managing and developing own coaching practice

Again you are encouraged to consider advancing your skill and knowledge and may wish to consider undertaking an SVQ award or HNC/HND if that is appropriate for you.

9 Glossary of terms

SCQF: This stands for the Scottish Credit and Qualification Framework, which is a new way of speaking about qualifications and how they inter-relate. We use SCQF terminology throughout this guide to refer to credits and levels. For further information on the SCQF visit the SCQF website at www.scqf.org.uk

SCQF credit points: One SCQF credit point equates to 10 hours of learning. NQ Units at SCQF levels 2-6 are worth 6 SCQF credit points, NQ Units at level 7 are worth 8 SCQF points.

SCQF levels: The SCQF covers 12 levels of learning. National Qualification Group Awards are available at SCQF levels 2-6 and will normally be made up of National Units which are available from SCQF levels 2-7.

Dedicated Core Skill Unit: This is a Unit that is written to cover one or more particular Core Skills, eg National Units in Information Technology or Communications.

Embedded Core Skills: This is where the development of a Core Skill is incorporated into the Unit and where the Unit assessment also covers the requirements of Core Skill assessment at a particular level.

Signposted Core Skills: This refers to the opportunities to develop a particular Core Skill at a specified level that lie outwith automatic certification.

Qualification Design Team: The QDT works in conjunction with a Qualification Manager/Development Manager to steer the development of the National Certificate/National Progression Award from its inception/revision through to validation. The group is made up of key stakeholders representing the interests of centres, employers, universities and other relevant organisations.

Consortium-devised National Certificates/National Progression Awards are those developments or revisions undertaken by a group of centres in partnership with SQA.

18 July 2005

Dear Billy

At our recent meeting we discussed the work sportscotland is undertaking with sports coach UK, Scottish sports governing bodies and the other UK sports councils on the development of the UK Coaching Certificate which is to be linked to national occupational standards.

We believe that it is important for the future of sport in Scotland that we have well qualified coaches and recognise the benefits of a standard approach across the UK that will facilitate the transfer of skills. We discussed the difficulties which have arisen about recognition and funding for the UKCC and agreed that we would join you in meeting with the Scottish Qualifications Authority and the Further and Higher Funding Councils. It is important that the Certificates awarded in Scotland should be endorsed by the Scottish Qualification Authority. As Scotland's national agency for the development, accreditation, assessment and certification of qualifications other than degrees, the SQA works with all sectors on qualifications within Scotland and its awards are recognised by employers, local and central government and further and higher education institutions.

I look forward to receiving details of the meetings.

Yours sincerely

Pat Morrison
