

Progression Routes

There are a number of progression pathways to and from the award. These are shown on the Qualifications Framework for the Police Service in Scotland.

On successful completion of Diploma in Police Service Leadership and Management, you may have the opportunity to continue on to the Bachelor of Arts in Policing, Ordinary or Honours degree (SCQF Levels 9 and 10). This award has been developed through a collaborative agreement with the University of Stirling, Napier University and the Open University.