

Structure of Award

The award mirrors the modules which make up the Road Patrol Officers' and Advanced Driving Courses at the Scottish Police College.

Advanced Police Driving

The PDA has been designed to incorporate the learning outcomes of the Advanced Police Driving Course delivered at the Scottish Police College. Advanced Police Driving is a core skill required by all Road Patrol Officers.

This award consists of six mandatory Higher National units at SCQF Levels 7, 8 and 9. The overall award is at SCQF level 8.
