

Delivery

The award should take you approximately 23 months to complete. The award has been designed to be developmental in nature and as such should provide you with much of the knowledge and many of the skills, both general and specific, that are required of analysts.

The award will be delivered via your chosen Centre and through open learning material. Assessment will be a mix of multiple choice questions and practical assessments under controlled conditions, reports and oral presentation and will be generated both at the Centre and subsequently in your place of work.
