

Progression Routes

There are a number of progression pathways to and from the award. These are shown on the Qualifications Framework for the Police Service in Scotland.

On successful completion of this programme, you may have the opportunity to continue to Honours degree in Policing (SCQF Level 10) through a collaborative agreement with the Universities of Stirling, the West of Scotland, Napier and the Open University. Research studies at SCQF Level 11 may then be available through the Police Graduate School of the Scottish Institute for Policing Research.
