COURSE Personal Development (Intermediate 1)

RATIONALE

Scottish education recognises the need to educate the whole person, providing the skills and knowledge to participate fully in society and potentially lead rich, fulfilling lives. The Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course seeks to develop candidates' potential as employable, contributing members of society through the development of life skills related to task management, social interaction, and self evaluation. This Course also provides opportunities for candidates to demonstrate the ability to manage information, communicate effectively and deliver a product or a service.

Through the development of these skills and abilities candidates can become reflective learners which will help them to build self confidence and self esteem. This will complement and enhance their learning in other subjects giving them the potential to achieve success in new and challenging situations.

The Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course consists of four Units. These are:

- ◆ F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1) — candidates will aim to increase their knowledge of their own qualities and feelings while undertaking a personal project
- ◆ F37W 10 Personal Development: Self and Society (Intermediate 1) — candidates will aim to develop their interpersonal skills as they work with others to plan and carry out a group project
- ◆ F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1) — candidates will aim to develop their task management skills while carrying out a vocational project
- ◆ F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1) — candidates will demonstrate their abilities in handling information, communicating effectively and delivering a product or a service while undertaking one or more projects

The wide variety of contexts suitable for the projects within the Units offers candidates a flexible approach to their learning. Candidates will be able to select a context which may come from many areas within and beyond the formal curriculum. They may, for example, choose a context within their local community such as a peer education programme. Alternatively, they may choose a context from the global community, eg a student exchange programme. Examples of contexts include: enterprise, study skills, health education, citizenship, the world of work, internet use, independent living, career planning, rights and responsibilities and learning styles.

The Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course offers a holistic approach which allows candidates the opportunity to develop, demonstrate and apply a range of skills and abilities in a variety of contexts and settings. By applying these skills and abilities across all Units of the Course candidates have the opportunity to consolidate what has been learned. The Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Units and Course will enable candidates to target their own development needs and build the self confidence and self awareness to fulfill their potential both now and in the future.

The Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course may provide a natural progression route for candidates who have undertaken Units or the Course in Personal Development at Access 3 level or a Standard Grade in Social and Vocational Skills at Foundation level. Achievement in the Personal Development Course at Intermediate 1 may prepare candidates who wish to progress to Intermediate 2. Candidates will also find that the skills and abilities developed in this Course are relevant when studying in other areas of the curriculum and for training or employment.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

The Units of all Courses are subject to internal verification and may also be chosen for external verification. This is to ensure that national standards are being applied across all subjects.

To assist centres, Principal Assessor and Senior Verifier reports are published on SQA's website www.sqa.org.uk.

GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS COURSE

The Course has four mandatory Units which offer a range of personal development opportunities.

A glossary of terms relevant for all Personal Development Units and Courses can be found in the Appendix to this Course specification.

This Course exists in a hierarchy with other Personal Development Courses from Access 3 to Higher. This means that it is possible to deliver this Course to a group of candidates operating at different levels.

The F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1) Unit could be delivered in an integrative way with the other Units of the Course, allowing candidates ample opportunity to demonstrate and review their practical abilities in a range of projects. There is no prescribed order of delivery for the other Units which may be delivered sequentially or concurrently.

As part of the induction process, time should be devoted to ensuring that candidates have a clear understanding of the expectations for the Course and Units by explaining and discussing Outcomes, Performance Criteria, Evidence Requirements and Core Skills. Brainstorming activities which encourage critical thinking and sharing of ideas may be useful for individual and group work.

COURSE Personal Development (Intermediate 1)

Integration of Units: Context

There are many suitable contexts for the projects, for example, enterprise, rights and responsibilities, the world of work and citizenship. It may be possible for one context to be carried through all Units. For example, a candidate studying 'Health' may:

- ◆ for F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1), produce a personal health plan.
- ◆ for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1), work with others to produce a health booklet.
- ◆ for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1), find out about health and safety for a work placement.
- ◆ for F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1), demonstrate practical abilities through health activities. These will be evident in acquiring health information, communication with others about health issues and the production of the health booklet and the presentation of findings about health and safety at work.

Integration of Units: Projects

It may be possible for one project to allow evidence to be gathered for more than one Unit. For example, a candidate working in a group to set up an enterprise company may:

- ◆ for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1), target their interpersonal skills, whilst working with others in the group to plan, set up and run the company
- ◆ for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1), plan to develop task management skills as they carry out their role for the enterprise company
- ◆ for F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1), gather information for the company, communicate information to others and deliver an output such as a product for the company

Throughout the Course candidates should be encouraged to:

- ◆ take and use personal guidance from teacher/lecturers, peers or experts from the community or business
- ◆ adopt an investigative approach through self evaluation, interviewing, shadowing, questioning and information gathering
- ◆ become reflective learners through review of personal development and knowledge of self, and through the use of feedback from teachers/lecturers and others to set goals and make plans for the future

Approaches to assessment

Evidence should be gathered at appropriate points as candidates make progress through the Course.

Candidates will receive support throughout the Course whilst gathering the evidence required to achieve the national standard. This means that the teacher/lecturer should issue advice to candidates to enable progress through each Unit of the Course.

COURSE Personal Development (Intermediate 1)

Observation checklists and other records of assessment should be maintained and kept up-to-date in order to track candidate progress and to provide evidence for verification. Assessor observation checklists may relate to just one candidate, a group of candidates or a whole class.

Written and/or recorded oral evidence may be produced in a variety of formats, for example:

- ◆ candidate written records
- ◆ recordings of interviews
- ◆ e-mails
- ◆ blogs
- ◆ assessor record of candidate responses
- ◆ review sheets
- ◆ electronic presentations
- ◆ electronic journals
- ◆ log books
- ◆ diaries
- ◆ videos
- ◆ photographs

Centres should select the formats most appropriate for individual candidates and the learning environment in which they are completing the Course.

CANDIDATES WITH DISABILITIES AND/OR ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for this Course. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).

I will look at my reports and test scores to find out which are my best subjects. I will also ask my teachers what they think I am good at. I will ask the careers officer what jobs my best subjects would be good for. 3 I will ask people what they think makes a good friend. I will think about my friends and why I like them. I will ask them what they think of me as a friend. I will use this information to try and be a better friend. 4 I am going on a trip with the football team. When I am away I will keep a diary. I will not only record what happens in my diary but how I am feeling each day and what decisions I have had to make for myself. At the end of the trip I will think about how I have felt about being away from my family.

This Unit is designed to allow candidates to develop self awareness through undertaking a project.

With support, candidates will evaluate their knowledge of self in relation to the following qualities and feelings:

Qualities:

- ◆ strengths
- ◆ weaknesses

Feelings:

- ◆ likes
- ◆ dislikes
- ◆ interests
- ◆ fears
- ◆ aspirations

UNIT Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1)

These qualities and feelings will be considered in relation to the context for the project. There are many suitable contexts for the project examples of which can be found in the table above. Having completed their evaluation, candidates will be involved in identifying an aim for their project, carrying out their project and then reviewing their progress on completion of their project.

Outcomes

For Outcome 1 candidates are being asked to think about three things:

- ◆ How do I see myself?
- ◆ How do others see me?
- ◆ Where do I go from here?

With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates should answer these questions by carrying out an evaluation of their qualities and feelings in relation to a specific context. Candidates will also seek opinions on their qualities from another person. It is important that the candidate feels comfortable with this person and they may choose, for example, a teacher/lecturer, a classmate, a relative or a friend. The candidate should consult with their teacher/lecturer to ensure that they choose someone who is able to provide them with useful feedback. The person offering opinions will be commenting on the qualities which they think the candidate has in relation to the context. It would not be appropriate for this person to comment on the candidate's own evaluation of their personal qualities. In light of the self evaluation and opinions, candidates will identify an aim for a project to develop self awareness. Guidance on suitable contexts and aims for the project can be found in the table above.

For Outcome 2 candidates need to carry out their personal development project.

With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will identify and carry out a minimum of four straightforward tasks which will enable them to achieve the aim of their project. Guidance on tasks suitable for F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1) can be found in the table above.

Although candidates will be monitoring on an ongoing basis, evidence of monitoring should be gathered at a suitable mid-point and then again towards the end of the project. Candidates should be encouraged to keep records of monitoring progress and the action taken as a result of monitoring. Appropriate action could be amendments to the identified tasks or it could be deciding to carry on with the tasks as they stand. It is possible and acceptable that any amendments may be initiated by the teacher/lecturer.

UNIT Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1)

For Outcome 3 candidates need to think about:

- ◆ Where am I now?
- ◆ What next?

With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will carry out a review of their knowledge of their own qualities and feelings on completion of the project. They will identify what they have learned about themselves as a result of completing the project. It is recommended that candidates make comparisons with the evaluation carried out for Outcome 1. Candidates could use these comparisons to identify personal goals for further personal development.

If candidates are studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course, it may be possible for the chosen context for the personal development project to be used in other Units. For example, candidates studying in the context of 'Health' may:

- ◆ produce a personal health plan as a personal development project for this Unit
- ◆ find out about health and safety on a work placement for a vocational project for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)
- ◆ produce a health booklet in a group project for the F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1) Unit
- ◆ generate evidence for the F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1) Unit from these projects

Thus candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course may be able to adopt an integrated approach to their learning.

GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS UNIT

As part of the induction process, time should be devoted to ensuring that candidates have a clear understanding of the expectations for the Unit by explaining and discussing Outcomes, Performance Criteria, Evidence Requirements and Core Skills. A glossary of terms relevant for all Personal Development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

In this Unit the focus is on self awareness. As a starting point for the development of self awareness candidates could complete a self awareness questionnaire. Thinking about themselves in general terms may be suitable preparation for thinking about themselves in relation to the context for a project. Some examples of self awareness questions can be found in the Appendix 2 to this Unit specification.

In this Unit learning is by doing; the project must allow candidates to develop their knowledge of self through experience and activity. Centres must ensure that the project allows candidates the opportunity to achieve all of the Outcomes and Performance Criteria for the Unit. It is possible that the setting for the project will be outside the centre environment. Centres must ensure that the relevant health and safety guidelines are followed at all times.

UNIT Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1)

Throughout the Unit candidates should be encouraged to:

- ◆ take and use personal guidance from teachers/lecturers, peers or experts from the community or business
- ◆ adopt an investigative approach through self evaluation, interviewing, shadowing, questioning and information gathering
- ◆ become reflective learners through the review of personal development and knowledge of self and through the use of feedback from teacher/lecturers and others to set goals and make plans for the future

If candidates intend to complete a Personal Development: Practical Abilities Unit they could also be made aware of the expectations of that Unit since it may be possible for them to gather evidence for F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities whilst gathering information, communicating and delivering the output for a personal development project.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CORE SKILL DEVELOPMENT

In this Unit candidates will be involved in carrying out an evaluation, identifying an aim and tasks and reviewing progress while undertaking a project. This provides good opportunities for developing aspects of Problem Solving and, where the project is carried out as a group activity, Working with Others.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

As stated in the Evidence Requirements, candidates must be given templates for evaluating, planning, monitoring and reviewing to ensure that they have the opportunity to achieve all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

Candidates should receive support from the teacher/lecturer when gathering evidence for their folio. Evidence should be gathered at appropriate points as candidates make progress through the Unit. Records of assessment should be maintained and kept up-to-date in order to track candidate progress and to provide evidence for verification.

Written and/or recorded oral evidence may be produced in a variety of formats, for example:

- ◆ candidate written records
- ◆ recordings of interviews
- ◆ e-mails
- ◆ blogs
- ◆ assessor record of candidate responses
- ◆ review sheets
- ◆ electronic presentations
- ◆ electronic journals
- ◆ log books
- ◆ diaries
- ◆ videos
- ◆ photographs

UNIT Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1)

Centres should select the formats most appropriate to the individual and the learning environment in which the Unit is being completed.

If candidates intend to complete a Personal Development: Practical Abilities Unit it may be possible to integrate learning, teaching and assessment while undertaking the project.

In addition, it may be possible for candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course to use one project to gather evidence for more than one Unit. For example, a candidate working in a group to set up an enterprise company may:

- ◆ for F37FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1), increase knowledge of self in preparation for a role in the company
- ◆ for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society(Intermediate 1), target their interpersonal skills, whilst working with others in the group to plan, set-up and run the company
- ◆ for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1), plan to develop task management skills as they carry out their role for the enterprise company
- ◆ for F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1), gather information for the company, communicate information to others and deliver an output such as a product for the company

CANDIDATES WITH DISABILITIES AND/OR ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for Units. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).

EVIDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR THIS UNIT

Evidence is required to demonstrate that candidates have achieved all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

The candidate will receive support throughout the Unit whilst generating the evidence required to achieve the national standard through each of the Outcomes. This means that the teacher/lecturer should issue advice to candidates to enable progress.

The evidence will be generated by the candidate, with support from the teacher/lecturer, at appropriate points throughout the Unit. The evidence must consist of:

- ◆ written and/or recorded oral evidence generated by the candidate for all Outcomes. This evidence must be retained in a folio.
- ◆ assessor observation checklists to support performance evidence for Outcomes 2 and 3.

For Outcome 1

A candidate evaluation identifying:

- ◆ strengths and weaknesses of candidate's own interpersonal skills. The following interpersonal skills must be covered: speaking in a group, demonstrating a positive attitude to others, demonstrating positive body language to others, accepting advice from others.
- ◆ a minimum of two targets for the development of interpersonal skills within a group project. These should be based on the identified strengths and weaknesses.

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the production of the evidence required. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

For Outcomes 2 and 3

A candidate record of planning and carrying out the group project which includes:

- ◆ roles and responsibilities of the members of the group.
- ◆ own straightforward tasks. A minimum of two routine tasks for each target are required. Examples of appropriate tasks can be found in the Support Notes of this specification.
- ◆ monitoring the group project. As a member of the group and through discussion with the group, the candidate will be involved in monitoring on an ongoing basis. Written and/or recorded oral evidence of this monitoring should be gathered at a suitable mid-point and then again towards the end of the project.
- ◆ own role which has been carried out for the group project. This will be confirmed by the teacher/lecturer.
- ◆ completion of the candidate's own identified tasks. This will be confirmed by the teacher/lecturer.

The candidate will be given a template to enable the production of the evidence required. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

UNIT Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)

Performance evidence, supported by an assessor observation checklist, is required to show that during the planning and carrying out of the group project the candidate has worked cooperatively with others. This must cover taking account of the views of others, responding appropriately to others and seeking and providing help and advice as required.

For Outcome 4

A candidate review covering:

- ◆ feedback from at least one other person. This could be either the teacher/lecturer or a member of the group.
- ◆ strengths and weaknesses in relation to own interpersonal skills taking account of this feedback.
- ◆ progress made towards achieving personal targets, confirmed as authentic and realistic by the teacher/lecturer.
- ◆ areas for further development of interpersonal skills in light of progress.

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the production of the evidence required. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

The National Assessment Bank (NAB) item for this Unit contains examples of candidate evaluation and review sheets, candidate templates and assessor observation checklists. Centres wishing to design their own assessments should refer to the National Assessment Bank to ensure a comparable standard.

This Unit is designed to allow candidates to develop interpersonal skills while carrying out a group project. The wide range of suitable contexts and locations for the group project will allow a flexible approach to teaching and learning.

UNIT Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)

With support, candidates will be involved in evaluating their own interpersonal skills and setting targets for the development of these skills whilst working with others to plan and carry out a group project. They will review their progress on completion of the group project. The following specific interpersonal skills will be evaluated by the candidate:

- ◆ speaking in a group
- ◆ demonstrating a positive attitude to others
- ◆ demonstrating a positive body language to others
- ◆ accepting advice from others

In addition to the skills being evaluated, centres may wish to make candidates aware of additional interpersonal skills, for example:

- ◆ paying attention to others
- ◆ responding positively to others
- ◆ starting a conversation with a peer
- ◆ accepting authority
- ◆ starting a conversation with an adult
- ◆ carrying out a telephone conversation
- ◆ sharing work and resources
- ◆ expressing own opinion
- ◆ being tolerant of others
- ◆ accepting criticism positively
- ◆ addressing a group
- ◆ being sensitive to the feelings of others
- ◆ negotiating decisions

There are many types of group project which offer suitable contexts for the development of interpersonal skills.

UNIT Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)

Outcomes

For Outcome 1 candidates need to ask themselves:

- ◆ What strengths and weaknesses do I have in my interpersonal skills?
- ◆ Where do I go from here?

To answer these questions, candidates will evaluate their own specific interpersonal skills in preparation for undertaking a group project. They will do this with support from their teacher/lecturer. Candidates must identify their strengths and weaknesses in relation to the specified interpersonal skills. In their evaluation, they may also wish to take account of the additional interpersonal skills stated above. Teachers/lecturers should make candidates aware of what is meant by the specific interpersonal skills and highlight their importance in relation to a group project. With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates should identify a minimum of two personal targets for the development of interpersonal skills. The targets will allow candidates the opportunity to develop specified and/or additional interpersonal skills and must relate to the initial evaluation. A variety of targets which are relevant to F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1) can be found in the table above.

For Outcome 2 candidates need to ask themselves:

- ◆ How will I develop my interpersonal skills?

To answer this question, candidates will be involved in planning a group project. A group will normally consist of more than two people, but in exceptional circumstances, a group size of two would be acceptable. The group may consist of members who are not studying a Personal Development: Self in Society Unit. With support from their teacher/lecturer candidates should agree with the group the roles and responsibilities to be carried out as part of the group project and to decide on the roles and responsibilities for each member of the group. Account must be taken of individual strengths and preferences. Teachers/lecturers must ensure that the group project allows candidates to identify straightforward tasks which are routine and will enable them to achieve their personal targets. Examples of tasks appropriate for this Unit can be found in the table above. Candidates should be encouraged to keep records of their activities, tasks and interactions with others throughout the planning process. Candidates will work cooperatively with others in the group throughout the planning of the project.

For Outcome 3 candidates need to carry out their role in the group project.

With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will carry out their role for the group project. During the group project candidates will carry out any activities associated with their own role and responsibilities within the group project. They will also complete their own tasks which will enable progress towards achieving their personal targets for the development of interpersonal skills. As a member of the group, and through discussion with the group, the candidate will be involved in monitoring the group project on an ongoing basis. Evidence of this monitoring should be gathered at a suitable mid-point and then again towards the end of the project. Candidates should be encouraged to keep records of their activities, tasks and interactions with others throughout the group project and task completion, to help keep them on track. Candidates will work cooperatively with others in the group to carry out the group project.

UNIT Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)

For Outcome 4 candidates need to ask themselves:

- ◆ Where am I now?

To answer this question, candidates will carry out a review of their personal development within the group project. They will do this with support from their teacher/lecturer. Candidates will be required to seek feedback from someone in their group or their teacher/lecturer about their interpersonal skills as they work with their group. This feedback should be used as a basis for identifying strengths and weaknesses in relation to interpersonal skills. Candidates will also review the progress made towards their personal targets for the development of interpersonal skills. It is recommended that candidates make comparisons with the strengths and weaknesses identified for Outcome 1. They could use this comparison and the feedback to identify areas for the further development of interpersonal skills.

If candidates are studying this Unit as part of the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course it may be possible for the chosen context for the group project to be used in other Units. For example candidates studying within the context of 'Health' may:

- ◆ produce a health booklet in a group project for this Unit
- ◆ find out about health and safety in the workplace as part of a vocational project for the F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1) Unit
- ◆ produce a personal health plan as part of a project for the F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1) Unit
- ◆ generate evidence for the F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1) Unit from these projects

Thus candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course may be able to adopt an integrated approach to their learning.

GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS UNIT

As part of the induction process, time should be devoted to ensuring that candidates have a clear understanding of the expectations for the Unit by explaining and discussing Outcomes, Performance Criteria, Evidence Requirements and Core Skills. A glossary of terms relevant for all personal development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

In this Unit learning is by doing; the group project must allow candidates to develop their interpersonal skills through experience and activity. There are many suitable contexts for a group project such as a school newspaper, a coffee morning for local pensioners or a healthy tuck shop. Brainstorming activities which encourage critical thinking and sharing of ideas may also be useful during the planning of the group project.

Centres must ensure that the project allows candidates the opportunity to achieve all Outcomes and Performance Criteria for the Unit. It is possible that the setting for the group project will be outside the centre environment. Centres must ensure that relevant health and safety guidelines are followed at all times.

UNIT Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)

Throughout the Unit candidates should be encouraged to:

- ◆ take and use personal guidance from teachers/lecturers, peers or experts from the community or business
- ◆ adopt an investigative approach through self evaluation, interviewing, shadowing, questioning and information gathering
- ◆ become reflective learners through the review of personal development and knowledge of self and through the use of feedback from teachers/lecturers and others to set goals and make plans for the future

If candidates intend to complete a Personal Development: Practical Abilities Unit they could also be made aware of the expectations of that Unit since it may be possible for them to gather evidence for Personal Development: Practical Abilities whilst gathering information, communicating and delivering an output for a group project.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CORE SKILL DEVELOPMENT

In this Unit candidates will be involved in carrying out an evaluation, target-setting, planning, carrying out and monitoring a group project and reviewing their progress. This covers Working with Others at Intermediate 1 and provides good opportunities for developing aspects of Problem Solving.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

The Evidence Requirements are fully expressed in the mandatory section of this Unit specification.

As stated in the Evidence Requirements, candidates must be given templates for evaluating, recording their work and reviewing to ensure that they have the opportunity to achieve all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

Candidates should receive support from the teacher/lecturer when gathering evidence for their folio. Evidence should be gathered at appropriate points as candidates make progress through the Unit. Since candidates will be working in groups for this Unit, centres must ensure that individual candidates generate their own evidence to cover the Outcomes and Performance Criteria for this Unit. Observation checklists and other records of assessment should be maintained and kept up-to-date in order to track candidate progress and to provide evidence for verification. Assessor observation checklists may relate to just one candidate, a group of candidates or a whole class.

Written and/or recorded oral evidence may be produced in a variety of formats, for example:

- ◆ candidate written records
- ◆ recordings of interviews
- ◆ e-mails
- ◆ blogs
- ◆ assessor record of candidate responses
- ◆ review sheets
- ◆ electronic presentations
- ◆ electronic journals
- ◆ log books

National Unit Specification: support notes (cont)

UNIT Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)

- ◆ diaries
- ◆ videos
- ◆ photographs

Centres should select the formats most appropriate to the individual and the learning environment in which the Unit is being completed.

If candidates intend to complete a Personal Development: Practical Abilities Unit it may be possible to integrate learning, teaching and assessment while undertaking the group project.

In addition, it may be possible for candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course to use one project to gather evidence for more than one Unit. For example, a candidate working in a group to set up an enterprise company may:

- ◆ for F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1), increase knowledge of self in preparation for a role in the company
- ◆ for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1), target their interpersonal skills, whilst working with others in the group to plan, set up and run the company
- ◆ for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1), plan to develop task management skills as they carry out their role for the enterprise company
- ◆ for F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1), gather information for the company, communicate information to others and deliver an output such as a product or a service for the company

CANDIDATES WITH DISABILITIES AND/OR ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for Units. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).

SUMMARY

This Unit is mandatory in the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course but it is also available as a free-standing Unit.

This Unit is designed to allow candidates to improve their self reliance and self esteem by setting targets for the development of task management skills within a vocational project. The vocational project must be related to the world of work and can be carried out individually or in a group. The wide range of contexts and locations suitable for the project allows a flexible approach to teaching and learning. Candidates will increase their self awareness by evaluating their own task management skills and then reviewing their progress on the development of these skills on completion of the project. Guidance on suitable contexts, projects, targets and tasks can be found in the support notes of this specification.

A glossary of terms relevant for all Personal Development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

Throughout the Unit candidates will be working with support. This means that the teacher/lecturer should offer advice to enable progress through the Unit.

This Unit is suitable for candidates who have not previously completed a Personal Development Course or Unit but it also offers progression for candidates who have completed the F37X 09 Personal Development: Self and Work (Access 3) Unit, other Personal Development Units or the Course at Access 3 level or a Standard Grade in Social and Vocational Skills at Foundation level.

EVIDENCE REQUIREMENTS FOR THIS UNIT

Evidence is required to demonstrate that candidates have achieved all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

The candidate will receive support throughout the Unit whilst generating the evidence required to achieve the national standard through each of the Outcomes for this Unit.

This means that the teacher/lecturer should issue advice to candidates to enable progress.

The evidence will be generated by the candidate, with support from the teacher/lecturer, at appropriate points throughout the Unit. The evidence will consist of:

- ◆ written and/or recorded oral evidence generated by the candidate for all Outcomes. This evidence must be retained in a folio.
- ◆ assessor observation checklists to support performance evidence for Outcome 3.

The specific evidence required to demonstrate the achievement of each Outcome is listed below:

For Outcome 1

A candidate evaluation identifying:

- ◆ strengths and weaknesses of candidate's own task management skills. The following task management skills must be covered: punctuality, completing tasks to an appropriate standard, keeping records of task completion, seeking advice to enable progress.
- ◆ a minimum of two targets for the development of task management skills within a vocational project. These must be based on the identified strengths and weaknesses.

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the production of the evidence required. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

For Outcome 2

The candidate plan which identifies:

- ◆ own straightforward tasks. A minimum of two routine tasks for each target are required.
- ◆ examples of appropriate tasks can be found in the support notes of this Unit specification.
- ◆ the resources required to carry out tasks.
- ◆ realistic timescales for task completion.

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the production of the plan. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

For Outcome 3

A candidate record covering:

- ◆ monitoring of progress. Although the candidate will be monitoring on an ongoing basis, evidence of monitoring should be gathered at a suitable mid-point and then again towards the end of the project.
- ◆ action taken as a result of this monitoring. Appropriate action could be making amendments to the plan or deciding to continue with the plan as it stands.
- ◆ completion of the candidate's own identified tasks. This will be confirmed by the teacher/lecturer.

The candidate will be given a template to allow the monitoring of progress and the action taken in light of this monitoring to be recorded. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

Performance evidence, supported by an assessor observation checklist, is also required to show that the candidate has used resources appropriately.

For Outcome 4

A candidate review identifying:

- ◆ progress made towards achieving personal targets, confirmed as authentic and realistic by the teacher/lecturer.
- ◆ strengths of the plan in relation to the tasks which have been carried out and the resources used, confirmed as realistic by the teacher/lecturer.
- ◆ weaknesses of the plan in relation to the tasks which have been carried out and the resources used, confirmed as realistic by the teacher/lecturer.
- ◆ a conclusion about the effectiveness of the plan based on the identified strengths and weaknesses. The conclusion should indicate whether the plan and its implementation could have been improved.
- ◆ areas for further development of task management skills in light of the progress made towards achieving personal targets.

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable him/her to produce the review. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

The National Assessment Bank (NAB) item for this Unit contains examples of candidate evaluation and review sheets, candidate templates and assessor observation checklists. Centres wishing to design their own assessments should refer to the National Assessment Bank to ensure a comparable standard.

National Unit Specification: support notes

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

This part of the Unit specification is offered as guidance. The support notes are not mandatory.

While the exact time allocated to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours.

GUIDANCE ON THE CONTENT AND CONTEXT FOR THIS UNIT

This Unit is suitable for candidates who have no previous experience of Personal Development Units and Courses but it also offers progression for candidates who have completed F37X 09 Personal Development: Self and Work (Access 3), other Personal Development Units or the Course at Access 3 or a Standard Grade in Social and Vocational Skills at Foundation level.

A glossary of terms relevant for all personal development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

Guidance on suitable contexts, projects, targets and tasks can be found in the table below. Centres may choose contexts and projects suitable for their candidates and are not restricted to the examples in the table.

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

Contexts	Some examples of suitable contexts are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 workplace 2 rights and responsibilities 3 enterprise 4 health
Projects	Some examples of vocational projects relating to the above contexts are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 a work placement; a work shadow; a visit to a workplace; voluntary work; a mock interview 2 finding out about equal opportunities in the work place; finding out about rights and responsibilities of an employee, an employer, a consumer; finding out about the role of staff associations and trade unions 3 contributing to the setting up an enterprise company; contributing to the organisation of an event such as a school show or coffee morning 4 finding out about health and safety at work; a work placement in the health industry; shadowing a health worker
Targets	Some examples of suitable targets are to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 improve punctuality 2 ask for advice when needed 3 complete tasks to a better standard 4 improve ability to follow instructions

This Unit is designed to allow candidates to develop task management skills within a vocational project. The vocational project must be related to the world of work and can be carried out either individually or in a group.

With support from the teacher/lecturer, candidates will be involved in evaluating their own task management skills, setting targets for the development of these skills and monitoring and reviewing their progress in the development of task management skills whilst undertaking a vocational project. The following task management skills will be evaluated by the candidate:

- ◆ punctuality
- ◆ completing tasks to an appropriate standard

National Unit Specification: support notes (cont)

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

- ◆ keeping records of task completion
- ◆ seeking advice to enable progress

In addition to the skills being evaluated, centres may wish to make candidates aware of additional task management skills for example:

- ◆ following instructions
- ◆ staying on task
- ◆ breaking down tasks into smaller parts
- ◆ completing tasks on time
- ◆ asking for help to improve understanding of instructions
- ◆ keeping detailed records of work
- ◆ prioritising tasks
- ◆ checking quality of own work
- ◆ estimating time for task completion

There are many types of vocational project which offer suitable contexts for the development of task management skills, for example, a work placement or investigating health and safety at work. The vocational project may be undertaken individually or as part of a group, however, individual candidates must do their own evaluating, planning and reviewing to ensure that the Outcomes and Performance Criteria are covered for this Unit.

Outcomes

For Outcome 1 candidates need to ask themselves:

- ◆ What strengths and weaknesses do I have in my task management skills?
- ◆ Where do I go from here?

To answer these questions, candidates will carry out an evaluation of their own task management skills in preparation for undertaking a vocational project. They will do this with support from their teacher/lecturer. Candidates must identify their strengths and weaknesses in relation to the specified task management skills. In their evaluation, they may also wish to take account of the additional task management skills stated above. Teachers/lecturers should make candidates aware of what is meant by task management skills and highlight their importance in relation to a vocational project. With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates must identify a minimum of two personal targets for the development of task management skills. The targets will allow candidates the opportunity to develop specified and/or additional task management skills and must relate to the identified strengths and weaknesses. A variety of targets which are relevant to F37X10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1) can be found in the table above.

For Outcome 2 candidates need to ask themselves:

- ◆ How will I develop my task management skills?

To answer this question, candidates will plan to meet their targets for the development of task management skills within a vocational project. With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will produce a straightforward plan consisting of a minimum of two straightforward tasks per target.

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

The tasks will be routine. Examples of tasks appropriate for this Unit can be found in the table above. The plan must identify resources necessary for carrying out tasks and realistic timescales.

For Outcome 3 candidates need to carry out their plan within a vocational project.

With support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will carry out their plan. Candidates should be encouraged to keep records of their work which will provide evidence of monitoring progress and the action taken as a result of monitoring. Although the candidate will be monitoring on an ongoing basis, evidence of monitoring should be gathered at a suitable mid-point and then again towards the end of the project. Appropriate action could be an amendment to the plan or it could be deciding to carry on with the plan as it stands. Candidates will receive advice to enable them to identify tasks.

For Outcome 4 candidates need to ask themselves:

- ◆ Where am I now?

To answer this question, candidates will carry out a review of the progress they have made towards achieving their targets for the development of task management skills. They will do this with support from their teacher/lecturer. It is recommended that candidates make comparisons with the strengths and weaknesses identified for Outcome 1. They could use this comparison to identify areas for the further development of task management skills.

If candidates are studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course, it may be possible for the chosen context for the vocational project to be used in other Units. For example, candidates studying within the context of 'Health' may:

- ◆ find out about health and safety on a work placement for a vocational project for this Unit
- ◆ produce a health booklet in a group project for the F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1) Unit
- ◆ produce a personal health plan as a personal project for the F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1) Unit
- ◆ generate evidence for the F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1) Unit from these projects

Thus candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course may be able to adopt an integrated approach to their learning

GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS UNIT

As part of the induction process, time should be devoted to ensuring that candidates have a clear understanding of the expectations for the Unit by explaining and discussing Outcomes, Performance Criteria, Evidence Requirements and Core Skills. A glossary of terms relevant for all personal development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

In this Unit learning is by doing; the vocational project must allow candidates to develop their task management skills through experience related to the world of work. Centres must ensure that the project allows candidates the opportunity to achieve the Outcomes and Performance Criteria for the Unit. It is possible that the setting for the vocational project will be outside the centre environment. Centres must ensure that the relevant health and safety guidelines are followed at all times.

Throughout the Unit candidates should be encouraged to:

- ◆ take and use personal guidance from teachers/lecturers, peers or experts from the community or business
- ◆ adopt an investigative approach through self evaluation, interviewing, shadowing, questioning and information gathering
- ◆ become reflective learners through the review of personal development and knowledge of self and through the use of feedback from teachers/lecturers and others to set goals and make plans for the future

If candidates intend to complete a Personal Development: Practical Abilities Unit they could also be made aware of the expectations of that Unit since it may be possible for them to gather evidence for Personal Development: Practical Abilities whilst gathering information, communicating and delivering an output for a group project.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CORE SKILL DEVELOPMENT

In this Unit candidates will be involved in carrying out an evaluation, target-setting and planning and reviewing while undertaking a vocational project. This covers Problem Solving at Intermediate level 1 and provides good opportunities for developing aspects of Working with Others where the project is carried out as a group activity.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

The Evidence Requirements are fully expressed in the mandatory section of this Unit specification.

As stated in the Evidence Requirements, candidates will be given templates for evaluating, planning, monitoring and reviewing to ensure that they have the opportunity to achieve all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

Candidates should receive support from the teacher/lecturer when gathering evidence for their folio. Evidence should be gathered at appropriate points as candidates make progress through the Unit. Observation checklists and other records of assessment should be maintained and kept up-to-date in order to track candidate progress and to provide evidence for verification. Assessor observation checklists may relate to just one candidate, a group of candidates or a whole class.

Written and/or recorded oral evidence may be produced in a variety of formats, for example:

- ◆ candidate written records
- ◆ recordings of interviews
- ◆ e-mails
- ◆ blogs

National Unit Specification: support notes (cont)

UNIT Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

- ◆ assessor record of candidate responses
- ◆ review sheets
- ◆ electronic presentations
- ◆ electronic journals
- ◆ log books
- ◆ diaries
- ◆ videos
- ◆ photographs

Centres should select the formats most appropriate to the individual and the learning environment in which the Unit is being completed.

If candidates intend to complete a Personal Development: Practical Abilities Unit it may be possible to integrate learning, teaching and assessment while undertaking the vocational project.

In addition, it may be possible for candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course to use one project to gather evidence for more than one Unit. For example, a candidate working in a group to set up an enterprise company may:

- ◆ for F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1), increase knowledge of self in preparation for a role in the company
- ◆ for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1), target their interpersonal skills, whilst working with others in the group to plan, set up and run the company
- ◆ for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1), plan to develop task management skills as they carry out their role for the enterprise company
- ◆ for F37Y 10 Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1), gather information for the company, communicate information to others and deliver an output such as a product or a service for the company

CANDIDATES WITH DISABILITIES AND/OR ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for Units. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).

This means that the teacher/lecturer should issue advice to candidates to enable progress.

The evidence will be generated by the candidate, with support from the teacher/lecturer, at appropriate points throughout the Unit. The evidence must consist of:

- ◆ written and/or recorded oral evidence generated by the candidate for all Outcomes. This evidence must be retained in a folio.
- ◆ product evidence for Outcome 3 supported by an assessor checklist.

The specific evidence required to demonstrate the achievement of each Outcome is listed below:

For Outcome 1

The candidate will be given a template to allow him/her to list the type of information required for a project and the techniques used to gather this information. These lists, along with the information gathered, which will be organised in a way appropriate for the project, must be retained in the folio.

The sources of information will be specific to the project and will be suggested to the candidate by the teacher/lecturer. The candidate will need to select the relevant sources of information. The candidate will use a minimum of two different types of source of information. Examples of types of source of information are:

- ◆ text
- ◆ catalogue
- ◆ table
- ◆ person
- ◆ directory
- ◆ graph

Examples of techniques to gather the information are:

- ◆ extracting information from a text
- ◆ conducting a brief interview
- ◆ using a questionnaire
- ◆ extracting information from a catalogue
- ◆ extracting information from a table
- ◆ extracting information from a graph
- ◆ extracting information from a directory

The candidate will use a minimum of two techniques to gather the information.

National Unit Specification: statement of standards (cont)

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

For Outcome 2

Written and/or recorded oral evidence from the candidate which covers:

- ◆ the information to be communicated
- ◆ who is to receive a communication and when
- ◆ the methods of communication

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the production of the evidence required. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

Evidence to show that the communication has been successfully transmitted is also required. This could take the form of, for example, a postal receipt, a reply to an e-mail, an attendee list at an event, a thank you letter, a receipt for ticket sales for an event or confirmation that a request has been actioned.

The candidate will receive advice from the teacher/lecturer and/or, in the case of a group project, another candidate or another person involved in the project. This advice will cover the information the candidate needs to communicate, the people they need to communicate with and when. The information to be communicated will be straightforward, for example, a paragraph, a list, a short interview, straightforward numerical data or straightforward graphical data.

The candidate will communicate with others on a minimum of two occasions.

For Outcome 3

The teacher/lecturer will make resources available to the candidate.

Written and/or recorded oral evidence from the candidate which covers:

- ◆ an identified appropriate output such as a product or a service.
- ◆ own straightforward activities. Straightforward activities will consist of a few stages and will contain routine elements.
- ◆ the resources required.

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the production of the evidence. The completed template must be retained in the folio.

Evidence of appropriate use of resources and the successful delivery of the candidate's own output, supported by an assessor checklist, is also required. The output may be, for example, a product such as an advert for a school magazine, a batch of cakes. Services might include taking orders for a school newspaper or organising the delivery of invitations to an event.

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

For Outcome 4

The candidate will review his/her own practical abilities as used in one or more projects. This must cover strengths and weaknesses and areas for further development. The following practical abilities must be reviewed:

Gathering and organising information by:

- ◆ identifying relevant information
- ◆ gathering the information
- ◆ organising the information

Communicating by:

- ◆ identifying relevant information to be communicated
- ◆ identifying the relevant people to be communicated with
- ◆ communicating with relevant people at appropriate times
- ◆ using appropriate methods of communication
- ◆ communicating information effectively

Delivering an output by:

- ◆ identifying an appropriate output
- ◆ identifying the activities to be carried out to deliver an output
- ◆ using resources appropriately
- ◆ delivering an output which is fit for purpose

The candidate will be given a suitable template to enable the completion of the review. The completed review must be retained in the folio. The candidate review must be confirmed as authentic and realistic by the teacher/lecturer.

The National Assessment Bank (NAB) item for this Unit contains examples of candidate evaluation and review sheets, candidate templates and assessor checklists. Centres wishing to design their own assessments should refer to the National Assessment Bank to ensure a comparable standard.

National Unit Specification: support notes

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

This part of the Unit specification is offered as guidance. The support notes are not mandatory.

While the exact time allocated to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, the notional design length is 40 hours.

GUIDANCE ON THE CONTENT AND CONTEXT FOR THIS UNIT

This Unit is suitable for candidates who have no previous experience of Personal Development Units or Courses but it also offers progression for candidates who have completed Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Access 3), other Personal Development Units or the Course at Access 3 level or a Standard Grade in Social and Vocational Skills at Foundation level.

A glossary of terms relevant for all Personal Development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

Some examples of projects and the practical abilities which could be associated with these projects can be found in the table below. Centres may choose contexts and projects suitable for their candidates and are not restricted to the examples in the table.

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

This Unit is designed to allow candidates to demonstrate and review practical abilities through participation in one or more specific projects. Candidates will work with support from the teacher/lecturer, to demonstrate the following practical abilities:

Gathering and organising information

- ◆ identifying relevant information
- ◆ gathering information
- ◆ organising information

Communicating

- ◆ identifying relevant information to be communicated
- ◆ identifying people to be communicated with
- ◆ communicating at appropriate times
- ◆ using appropriate methods of communication
- ◆ communicating information successfully

Delivering an output:

- ◆ identifying an appropriate output
- ◆ identifying the activities to be carried out to produce the output
- ◆ using resources appropriately
- ◆ delivering an output which is fit for purpose

This Unit offers candidates a flexible approach to their learning in that their abilities can be demonstrated in relation to the personal development projects from other Units in the Intermediate 1 Personal Development Course or projects from other areas within and/or beyond the formal curriculum.

Outcomes

For Outcome 1, with support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will gather information while carrying out a specific project. The sources of information will be specific to the project and will be provided for candidates. The candidate must use a minimum of two types of source of information and a minimum of two techniques to gather the information. The candidate will need to extract information from, for example, a text, a catalogue, a table, a brief interview, a directory or a graph. A candidate involved in a vocational project, for example, may be given some bus timetables and an information sheet about a work placement. From this, the candidate would need to extract start and finish times from the information sheet and bus times from the timetables. The candidate would then organise this information, perhaps recording it in a log book, in preparation for going on a work placement. Teachers/lecturers will offer advice to candidates wishing to produce a questionnaire. Further guidance on information gathering appropriate to this Unit can be found in the table above.

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

For Outcome 2, with support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will carry out communication for a specific project. They will receive advice as to the nature of the information they need to communicate and to whom the communication should be directed. This advice may be issued by the teacher/lecturer, another candidate or another person involved in the project. The information to be communicated will be straightforward, for example, a paragraph, a list, straightforward numerical data or straightforward graphical data. A candidate involved in a vocational project, for example, may take part in a mock interview. Evidence of effective communication could be the candidate responding appropriately to the questions from the interviewer. Communication should take place on a minimum of two occasions. Further guidance on effective communication appropriate to this Unit can be found in the table above.

For Outcome 3, with support from their teacher/lecturer, candidates will demonstrate the ability to deliver an output from their own activities. This could be a product such as a poster, tickets, a cake, a clock, giving a presentation or providing a service such as organising the distribution of invitations to an event, or taking orders for a school newspaper. To deliver this output candidates will carry out routine activities consisting of a few stages. The candidate will choose relevant resources from a selection provided by the teacher/lecturer. Further guidance on an output appropriate to this Unit can be found in the table above.

For Outcome 4, with support from their teacher/lecturer candidates should identify their strengths and weakness in:

- ◆ gathering and organising information in a specific project
- ◆ communicating effectively in a specific project
- ◆ delivering an output which is fit for purpose for a specific project

GUIDANCE ON LEARNING AND TEACHING APPROACHES FOR THIS UNIT

As part of the induction process, time should be devoted to ensuring that candidates have a clear understanding of the expectations for the Unit by explaining and discussing Outcomes, Performance Criteria, Evidence Requirements and Core Skills. A glossary of terms relevant for all personal development Units can be found in the Appendix to this Unit specification.

In this Unit, learning is by experience and through reviewing performance with evidence being drawn from the demonstration of practical abilities in one or more specific projects. Centres must ensure that the projects allow candidates the opportunity to achieve all the Outcomes and Performance Criteria for the Unit. It is possible that the setting for a specific project will be outside the centre environment. Centres must ensure that relevant health and safety guidelines are followed at all times.

Throughout the Unit candidates should be encouraged to:

- ◆ take and use personal guidance from teachers/lecturers, peers or experts from the community or business
- ◆ adopt an investigative approach through self evaluation, interviewing, shadowing, questioning and information gathering
- ◆ become reflective learners through the review of personal development and knowledge of self and through the use of feedback from teachers/lecturers and others to set goals and make plans for the future

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CORE SKILL DEVELOPMENT

In this Unit candidates will be involved in selecting and organising information, communicating with others and using resources to deliver a product or a service. This provides good opportunities for developing aspects of Communication. If projects are carried out by candidates working in groups there may be opportunities for development of Working with Others. Depending on the nature of the project and sources of information being used, it may be possible to develop Numeracy and Information Technology Core Skills.

GUIDANCE ON APPROACHES TO ASSESSMENT FOR THIS UNIT

The Evidence Requirements are fully expressed in the mandatory section of this Unit specification.

As stated in the Evidence Requirements, candidates must be given templates for recording and reviewing their work to ensure that they have the opportunity to achieve all Outcomes and Performance Criteria.

Candidates will receive support from the teacher/lecturer when generating evidence for their folio. Evidence should be gathered at appropriate points throughout the Unit as candidates undertake specific projects. This can be gathered from the demonstration of practical abilities in one or more projects. Checklists and other records of assessment should be maintained and kept up-to-date in order to track candidate progress and to provide evidence for verification. Assessor checklists may relate to just one candidate, a group of candidates, or a whole class.

Written and/or recorded oral evidence may be produced in a variety of formats, for example:

- ◆ candidate written records
- ◆ recordings of interviews
- ◆ e-mails
- ◆ blogs
- ◆ assessor record of candidate responses
- ◆ review sheets
- ◆ electronic presentations
- ◆ electronic journals
- ◆ log books
- ◆ diaries
- ◆ videos
- ◆ photographs

Centres should select the formats most appropriate to individual candidates and the learning environment in which the Unit is being completed.

UNIT Personal Development: Practical Abilities (Intermediate 1)

If candidates intend to complete the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course it may be possible for a personal development project from one of the other Units to generate evidence for this Unit. For example, a candidate working in a group to produce a school newspaper for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1) may gather evidence in the following ways for this Unit:

- ◆ gather and organise information to be included in the newspaper
- ◆ communicate information to other pupils and staff about the newspaper
- ◆ produce articles to be included in the newspaper

It may also be possible for a candidate to use personal development projects in the other Units of the Course to gather evidence for this Unit. For example:

- ◆ health information could be gathered and organised for a personal health plan for F2FV 10 Personal Development: Self Awareness (Intermediate 1)
- ◆ communication could be about a website for an anti-bullying booklet to be produced as a group project for F37W 10 Personal Development: Self in Society (Intermediate 1)
- ◆ a car washing service (the output) could be provided for an enterprise company as a vocational project for F37X 10 Personal Development: Self and Work (Intermediate 1)

Thus candidates studying the Personal Development (Intermediate 1) Course may be able to adopt an integrated approach to their learning

CANDIDATES WITH DISABILITIES AND/OR ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

The additional support needs of individual candidates should be taken into account when planning learning experiences, selecting assessment instruments, or considering alternative Outcomes for Units. Further advice can be found in the SQA document Guidance on Assessment Arrangements for Candidates with Disabilities and/or Additional Support Needs (www.sqa.org.uk).
