SQA + Tribal

To help you to deliver and assess qualifications, SQA and Tribal have combined their expertise into a partnership. Over the coming months we will be working together to create a number of opportunities to help you to support your learners.

SQA is a hugely experienced awarding organisation working internationally with a global reputation for quality and service. We are experts in qualifications and assessment design, Ofqual approved and have a growing range of qualifications on the QCF.

Tribal is one of the country's leading providers of professional support services to the learning and skills sector, producing high quality learning materials and interactive resources which can lead to nationally accredited qualifications. We work extensively across the UK with further education colleges, training providers and employers.

See overleaf for some examples of the qualifications and support we can offer you.

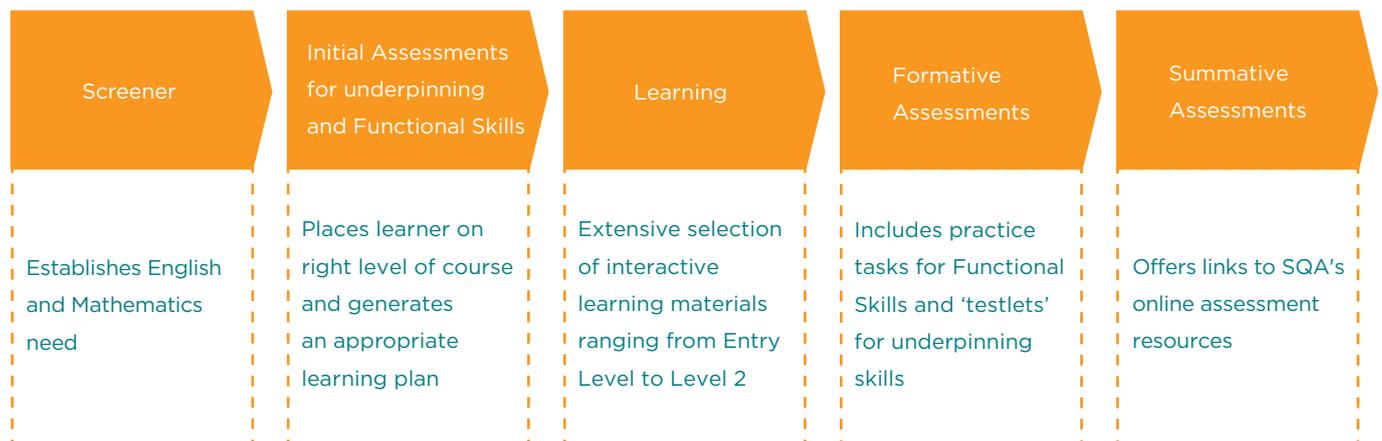

Functional Skills

By combining our resources, your learners will have a seamless journey through Functional Skills.

SQA offers Functional Skills qualifications in English, Maths and ICT. We will support your learners with summative assessment delivered through SQA SOLAR; an online assessment experience which fits perfectly with the learning journey.

Tribal's support in English and Maths will take learners through the first four stages of their journey with a rigorous online initial assessment to ensure individual learning needs are identified and addressed from the outset. Tribal's e-learning resources, assessment and skills checking and technological tools are also available including the Assessment Player.

Learner Journey

Customer Service

SQA offers Level 1 and Level 2 NVQ Certificate and Level 3 NVQ Diploma in Customer Service. These qualifications are designed for people whose job involves dealing with either internal or external customers and assesses their skills and knowledge. Customer Service impacts on all occupational sectors and the qualifications can be embedded in a company's normal training and development or levels 2 and 3 can be taken as part of an apprenticeship training programme.

Tribal's support materials can be used for formative assessment of these qualifications.

Retail

SQA offers a comprehensive portfolio of competence and knowledge based qualifications to support the Retail sector and, as a Functional Skills provider, we can offer a number of complete Apprenticeship packages. We are experts in developing relevant qualifications delivering the real skills, knowledge and progression routes in demand by employers and learners alike.

Tribal offers support materials for a selection of Retail Knowledge qualifications which can be used to help support some of our Retail qualifications.
