Write your answer clearly, in Urdu, in the space provided in this booklet.

You may use an Urdu dictionary.

Additional space for answers is provided at the end of this booklet.

Use blue or black ink.

There is a separate question and answer booklet for Reading. You must complete your answers for Reading in the question and answer booklet for Reading.

Before leaving the examination room you must give both booklets to the Invigilator; if you do not, you may lose all the marks for this paper.
Total marks—20

You are preparing an application for the job advertised below and you write an e-mail in Urdu to the company.

To help you to write your e-mail, you have been given the following checklist. You must include all of these points:

• Personal details (name, age, where you live)
• School/college/education experience until now
• Skills/interests you have which make you right for the job
• Related work experience
• Your specific language skills
• Your experience of working at functions or events

Use all of the above to help you write the e-mail in Urdu. The e-mail should be approximately 120–150 words. You may use an Urdu dictionary.

General marking principles for National 5 Urdu Writing

Task: E-mail application for a job in this country or abroad, including information specified in six bullet points.

Assessment process:

(a) Candidates will write a piece of extended writing in the modern language by addressing six bullet points. These bullet points will follow on from a job-related scenario. The bullet points will cover the four contexts of society, learning, employability and culture to allow candidates to use and adapt learned material. The first four bullet points will be the same each year and the last two will change to suit the scenario. Candidates need to address these ‘unpredictable bullet points’ in detail to access the full range of marks.

(b) With reference to Content, Accuracy and Language resource, assess the overall quality of the candidate’s response and allocate it to a pegged mark. It is important to assess how candidates have addressed bullet points and detail in relation to this as highlighted in bold in Content.
