Part One: General Marking Principles for English Intermediate 2 Critical Essay

This information is provided to help you understand the general principles you must apply when marking candidate responses to questions in this Paper. These principles must be read in conjunction with the specific Marking Instructions for each question.

- (a) Marks for each candidate response must always be assigned in line with these general marking principles and the specific Marking Instructions for the relevant question. If a specific candidate response does not seem to be covered by either the principles or detailed Marking Instructions, and you are uncertain how to assess it, you must seek guidance from your Team Leader/Principal Assessor.
- (b) Marking should always be positive ie, marks should be awarded for what is correct and not deducted for errors or omissions.
- (c) Marking Principles for Critical Essay are as follows.
 - The essay should first be read to establish whether it achieves success in all the Performance Criteria for Grade C, including relevance and the standards for technical accuracy outlined in Note 1 below.
 - If minimum standards are not achieved in any one or more of the Performance Criteria, the maximum mark which can be awarded is 11.
 - If minimum standards have been achieved, then the supplementary marking grids will allow you to place the work on a scale of marks out of 25.
 - The Category awarded and the mark should be placed at the end of the essay.

GENERAL MARKING ADVICE: English Intermediate 2 Critical Essay

The marking schemes are written to assist in determining the “minimal acceptable answer” rather than listing every possible correct and incorrect answer. The following notes are offered to support Markers in making judgements on candidates’ evidence, and apply to marking both end of unit assessments and course assessments.

1. “Sufficiently accurate” can be best defined in terms of a definition of “consistently accurate”.
 - Consistently accurate
A few errors may be present, but these will not be significant in any way. The candidate may use some complex vocabulary and sentence structures. Where appropriate, sentences will show accurate handling of clauses. Linking between sentences will be clear. Paragraphing will reflect a developing line of thought.
 - Sufficiently accurate
As above but with an allowance made for speed and the lack of opportunity to redraft.

2. Using the Category descriptions.

- Categories are not grades. Although derived from Performance Criteria at C and the indicators of excellence for Grade A, the four categories are designed primarily to assist with placing each candidate response at an appropriate point on a continuum of achievement. Assumptions about final grades or association of final grades with particular categories should not be allowed to influence objective assessment.
- Once an essay has been deemed to pass the basic criteria, it does not have to meet all the suggestions for Category II (for example) to fall into that Category. More typically there will be a spectrum of strengths and weaknesses which span categories.

3. Referrals to PA

- Essays based on wrong genre should be marked out of 25 and referred.
- Essays in response to Section E – Language should be marked out of 25 and referred.

Part Two: Marking Instructions for each Question

Critical Essay

GRADE C

Performance Criteria

a) Understanding

As appropriate to task, the response demonstrates understanding of key elements, central concerns and significant details of the text(s).

b) Analysis

The response explains in some detail ways in which aspects of structure/style/language contribute to meaning/effect/impact.

c) Evaluation

The response reveals engagement with the text(s) or aspects of the text(s) and stated or implied evaluation of effectiveness, substantiated by some relevant evidence from the text(s).

Expression

Structure, style and language, including use of some appropriate critical terminology, are deployed to communicate meaning clearly and develop a line of thought which is generally relevant to purpose; spelling, grammar and punctuation are sufficiently accurate.

It should be noted that the term “text” encompasses printed, audio or film/video text(s) which may be literary (fiction or non-fiction) or may relate to aspects of media or language.

Language Questions 13 – 15

The “text” which should be dealt with in a language question is the research which the pupil has done. Examples taken from their research must be there for you to see.

However, to demonstrate understanding and analysis related to these examples there has to be some ability to generalise from the particular, to classify and comment on what has been discovered. It is not enough merely to produce a list of words in, say, Dundonian with their standard English equivalents. This is merely description and without any further development does not demonstrate understanding of any principle underlying the choice of words.

The list of features at the head of the section is supportive. A marker would reasonably expect that some such features would be mentioned in the course of a candidate’s answer.

Supplementary Advice

This advice, which is supplementary to the published Performance Criteria, is designed to assist with the placing of scripts within the full range of marks. However, the Performance Criteria as published give the primary definitions. The mark range for each Category is identified.
