

Centres must receive 'authority to proceed' from SQA using the Alternative Assessment Site Application Form before any arrangements can come into effect.

Please refer to the table below to identify if it is possible for a qualification type to be offered in another country and whether an application will be considered to deliver and

Instructions for interpreting this table:

1. Refer to the column which corresponds with the COUNTRY of your main SQA Approved Centre

2. Refer to the row which corresponds to the QUALIFICATION TYPE you wish to deliver in a country which is different to the country of your main SQA Approved Centre eg.

A centre based in Scotland wishing to deliver a Higher National Diploma to students in England is not permissible. (The equivalent option is the SQA Advanced Diploma.)

A centre based in Myanmar wishing to deliver an SQA Advanced Diploma to students in Spain is permissible subject to approval of a submitted AAS Application.
