Introduction

This document contains instructions for candidates for the Advanced Higher Gàidhlig performance—talking. You must read it in conjunction with the course specification.

This performance—talking has 30 marks out of a total of 115 marks available for the course assessment.

This is one of four course assessment components. The other components are question papers covering practical criticism, literature and writing, and translating.

The performance—talking is a face-to-face discussion in Gaelic with a visiting assessor. During the discussion, candidates talk about themes or topics from their chosen area of research undertaken during the course, and any other topics studied.

The instructions for candidates can be printed and shared with candidates.
