Coursework and/ or Question Paper revisions

Everything that is in the units is, or can be, assessed in the external exam. Therefore there is no change.

One question paper, 100 marks, 180 minutes.

Equality & inclusion issues

No changes have been made to the aims, rationale or content of the course. This means that the original equality review carried out and attached remains valid and fit for purpose. It should be noted however, that the Units, which were a feature of the original ERF, have now been removed.

Actions that will mitigate any adverse impact outlined above

N/A

Summary of Conclusion and recommendation

Mathematics does present some potential barriers for disabled learners but the availability of technological support and assessment arrangements, together with the degree of flexibility in the nature of evidence described in the evidence requirements means that this qualification is open to a very wide range of disabled learners.
