You read about students who study abroad.

De nombreux étudiants étrangers participent à un échange universitaire en France. Ana et Enrique, deux étudiants mexicains, parlent de leurs expériences.

Ana nous raconte : «Je suis arrivée en France il y a deux mois. Pour l’instant tout va bien à l’université. Il y a un bon choix de cours qui sont faciles à suivre et les professeurs sont toujours prêts à nous aider. Quelque chose que j’apprécie vraiment c’est le programme culturel qui nous permet de découvrir la région. Ce qui m’inquiète un peu c’est que je dois écrire une dissertation de trois mille mots et que j’ai des examens à la fin de l’année.»

Quant à Enrique : «C’est une très belle expérience et à l’université tout le monde est très accueillant. Au début j’avais quelques difficultés à comprendre les autres étudiants. Ils parlaient très vite et utilisaient souvent trop d’argot. Mais maintenant je me sens beaucoup mieux. Je trouve que j’ai fait énormément de progrès en français et j’arrive à participer aux conversations. Moi personnellement je recommanderais cette expérience à tout le monde.»

Whilst on holiday in Brittany, France, you read about a new app.

Faites un pas en avant avec la technologie!

La nouvelle appli ‘Balades en Bretagne’ sera disponible pour télécharger gratuitement fin juillet. Grâce à la technologie satellite GPS, cette appli a 150 randonnées à pied partout dans la région et offre quelque chose pour tous les goûts et tous les niveaux de fitness.

Les avantages de cette appli sont nombreux. Par exemple, il y a des guides audio pour se renseigner sur des lieux historiques. On peut aussi télécharger des fiches d’information numériques sur les endroits intéressants à visiter.

You read an article about career advice for school pupils.

QUEL MÉTIER POUR MOI?

En France, depuis quelques années des modules sont offerts aux élèves pour les aider à choisir leur métier.

Les collèges organisent des stages en entreprises et le conseiller d'orientation* parle avec chaque élève. Après cette conversation l'élève doit aussi faire des recherches. Ceci est encore plus important si l'élève ne sait pas ce qu'il veut faire à l'avenir ou s'il s'intéresse à plusieurs professions.

Un bon moyen de se renseigner sur des métiers c'est de rendre visite à un salon d'orientation*. Pourquoi y aller? On y trouve plusieurs employeurs et une grande variété d'entreprises au même endroit.

Les gens au salon d'orientation peuvent aider les élèves en répondant aux questions sur leur métier. Ils parleront aussi des aspects positifs de leur travail et des qualités nécessaires pour le faire. Un autre avantage c'est que souvent l'élève peut découvrir une profession qu'il n'avait pas considérée auparavant.

L'élève doit être réaliste — par exemple pour devenir pilote, il faut être fort en maths.

*conseiller d'orientation – careers advisor

*salon d'orientation – careers fair
