within sand

Coastal margin

Portrayal of access land on this map is intended as a guide to land normally available for access on foot, for example access land created under the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000, and land managed by the National Trust, Forestry Commission, Woodland Trust and Natural Resources Wales. Access for other activities may also exist. Some restrictions will apply: some land will be excluded from open access rights. The depiction of rights of access does not imply or express any warranty as to its accuracy or completeness. Observe local signs and follow the Countryside Code.

Scotland

National Trust for Scotland, always open

National Trust for Scotland, limited access - observe local signs

Forestry and Land Scotland, normally open - observe local signs

Woodland Trust Land

In Scotland, everyone has access rights in law (Land Reform (Scotland) Act 2003) over most land of the natural ground in the location of the triangulation pillar, and the second is (usually) a separate point which is the highest natural summit.
