Total marks — 20

Choose ONE scenario on page 02 and write your answer clearly, in German, in the space provided in this booklet. You must clearly identify the scenario number you are attempting.

You may use a German dictionary.

Additional space for answers is provided at the end of this booklet.

Use blue or black ink.

There is a separate answer booklet for Reading. You must complete your answers for Reading in the answer booklet for Reading.

Before leaving the examination room you must give this Directed Writing question and answer booklet and your Reading answer booklet to the Invigilator; if you do not, you may lose all the marks for this paper.

Total marks — 20

Choose one of the following two scenarios.

SCENARIO 1: Culture

You went to a Christmas market in a German town with your school/college.
You have been asked to write in German about your experience for the language section of your school/college website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- how you travelled and what the accommodation was like
- what you thought of the town
- what you liked/disliked about the Christmas market
- what food and drink you tried
- what else you did during your stay
- whether you would repeat the experience in the future.

You should write approximately 150–180 words.

OR

SCENARIO 2: Employability

Last summer you worked at a hotel in Germany.
You have been asked to write a report in German about your trip for your school/college magazine.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- how you travelled and what the journey was like
- what your duties were in the hotel
- how you got on with your boss/colleagues
- what you liked/disliked about the job
- how you spent your free time at the weekend
- whether you would recommend a summer job in Germany.

You should write approximately 150–180 words.
