Choose ONE scenario on page 02 and write your answer clearly, in Italian, in the space provided in this booklet. You must clearly identify the scenario number you are attempting.

You may use an Italian dictionary.

Additional space for answers is provided at the end of this booklet.

Use blue or black ink.

There is a separate answer booklet for Reading. You must complete your answers for Reading in the answer booklet for Reading.

Before leaving the examination room you must give this Directed Writing question and answer booklet and your Reading answer booklet to the Invigilator; if you do not, you may lose all the marks for this paper.

Total marks — 20

Choose one of the following two scenarios.

SCENARIO 1: Employability

You spent two weeks of the summer holidays working in a hotel in Italy. On your return you have been asked to write an account in Italian about your experience for your school/college newsletter.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- where the hotel was located and how you travelled there
- what job/jobs you had to do at the hotel
- how you got on with your colleagues
- what you did during your free time
- what you did with the money you earned
- if you would recommend working abroad to others.

You should write approximately 150–180 words.

OR

SCENARIO 2: Learning

You took part in a school/college exchange in Italy. You have been asked to write about your experience in Italian for the language section of your school/college website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- where you went and how you got there
- what your accommodation was like
- what you thought of the classes you attended
- how you got on with the Italian students
- what excursions you went on
- what you will do to keep in touch with the people you met.

You should write approximately 150–180 words.
