

Issue 81

November 2019

Teaching Scotland

For the education profession

Airson luchd-dreuchd an fhoghlaim

INSIDE

NPA L5 Beekeeping

Parity and partnerships

The future?

The Golden Swarm

Community arts project

Successful partnerships and building for the future

Bee Club in Action – KHS Beeclub Partnerships

Success story – partnerships between local bee associations and SBA

Success story – partnerships between schools

Success story – partnerships between academia and schools

Success story – publications

Success story – funding grants

?? – core funding (conversations ongoing STEM/SQA/SBA)

The Royal Society and EBSOC

Video of our lab day

LO Pests and diseases

Vocational qualifications rock

Schools based citizen science project

Following on from our Royal Society project investigating parasites in honeybees, researchers from The Roslin institute and EBSOC have invited Scottish schools to be involved in a potentially ground-breaking project.

The antimicrobial properties of Scottish Honey

15th and 16th May 2020, Edinburgh University