Introduction

This document contains instructions for teachers, lecturers and candidates for the National 5 Music assignment. It must be read in conjunction with the course specification.

This assignment is worth 30 marks. The marks contribute 15% of the overall marks for the course assessment.

The National 5 Music course has three other course assessment components: a question paper and two performances.

This assignment has two parts:

Part one titled 'composing music' has 20 marks.

Part two titled 'composing review' has 10 marks.

Instructions for teachers and lecturers

For candidates to demonstrate creativity, teachers and lecturers should avoid structured template approaches to composition. For example, they must not set some or all of the following features in a template:

- ◆ number of instruments
- ◆ instrumentation
- ◆ prescribed harmonies in certain bars
- ◆ changes of time signature in certain bars
- ◆ prescribed rhythmic, melodic or structural features in certain bars

This restrictive template would go beyond the acceptable amount of reasonable assistance.

Candidates are required to explore and develop musical ideas to create an original piece of music for their assignment. For teaching and learning purposes only, it is acceptable to provide candidates with, for example, accompaniment patterns, bass lines or rhythm banks. However, as the assignment is an assessment and not a learning and teaching exercise, candidates should then create their own individual composition. Candidates should not select, copy and paste musical ideas provided by their teacher or lecturer into their composition.

Teachers and lecturers should not provide candidates composing review templates with, for example, pre-populated phrases that only require candidates to insert one or two words into the text at designated places.

Marking instructions

The marking instructions for the National 5 Music assignment can be found in the course specification.

Instructions for candidates

This assessment applies to the assignment for National 5 Music.

The assignment is worth 30 marks. The marks contribute 15% of the overall marks for the course assessment.

It assesses the following skills, knowledge and understanding:

- ◆ planning and reviewing your own music
- ◆ exploring and developing your musical ideas
- ◆ creating music that is original to you

This assignment has two parts.

Part one 'composing music' has 20 marks.

Part two 'composing review' has 10 marks.

Your teacher or lecturer will let you know if there are any specific conditions for doing this assessment.

Composing music

In this assessment, you have to:

- ◆ plan your composition
- ◆ explore and develop musical ideas using at least three of the following elements: melody, harmony, rhythm, timbre, structure
- ◆ create one complete piece of music

Your composition can be in any style or genre and must last a minimum of 1 minute and a maximum of 2 minutes and 30 seconds.

Composing review

In this part of the assessment, you have to write a composing review.

You must refer to the compositional methods you used and include clear details of:

- ◆ your main decisions
- ◆ how you explored and developed your musical ideas
- ◆ your strengths and/or areas for improvement

You can present your review in prose or bullet points. It should be approximately 200 to 300 words.

You must use the SQA composing review template, which is restricted to one page. You must submit only one composing review document. The template is available from the National 5 Music subject page.

As you work through the assignment, your teacher or lecturer may check your work before you move on to the next stage.

Your completed assignment

Your completed assignment must include:

- ◆ an audio recording of your composition
- ◆ a score or performance plan of your composition
- ◆ your composing review for your composition

Checklist for candidates

You may want to use this checklist to track your progress.

Composing music (20 marks)

Step 1: plan

- ◆ Think about what you would like to create.
- ◆ Think about instruments/voices. Consider instrument(s) you are familiar with. Your composition should be appropriate for the instrument(s)/voices you have chosen to compose for.
- ◆ Think about a structure. For example:
 - verse/chorus
 - beginning – middle – end
 - ABA
 - AB
- ◆ Make a note of the decisions you have made.

Step 2: explore

- ◆ Start simply – you can always add later.
- ◆ Explore musical ideas using at least three of the following elements: melody, harmony, rhythm, timbre, structure.
- ◆ Reflect as you experiment – which of your musical ideas are the most effective?
- ◆ Make a note of the decisions you have made.

Step 3: develop

- ◆ Think of ways you could develop your selected musical ideas.
- ◆ Develop your musical ideas.
- ◆ Make a note of the decisions you have made.

Step 4: create

- ◆ Decide what you think works best.
- ◆ Use these ideas to create your composition.
- ◆ Make a note of the decisions you have made with reference to compositional methods used.
- ◆ Create a score or performance plan of your composition.
- ◆ Create an audio recording of your composition.

Composing review (10 marks)

Your review must include a summary of:

- ◆ the main decisions you have made
- ◆ the ways in which you have explored and developed your musical ideas
- ◆ strengths and/or areas which may be improved

Check over your work to ensure you have completed all sections and steps of the assignment. Check that you have collected all the required evidence.

Let your teacher or lecturer know when you have finished the assignment.
